REMEMBER JESUS.

It is a mark of grace, that the believer, in his progress heavenward, grows more and more alive to the claims of Jesus. If you "know the love of Christ," his is the latest name you will desire to utter; his is the latest thought you will desire to form; upon him you will fix your last look on earth; upon him your first in heaven. When memory is oblivious of all other objects; when all that attracted the natural eye, is wrapped in the mists of death; when the tongue is cleaving to the roof of our mouth, and sleep is gone, and sight is gone, and hearing gone, and the right hand lying powerless by our side, has lost its cunning, Jesus! then may we remember thee! If the shadow of death are to be thrown in deepest darkness on the valley, when we are passing along to glory, may it be ours to die like that saint, beside whose bed, wife and children once stood, weeping over the wreck of faded faculties, and blank departed memory. One had asked him, "Father do you remember me?" and received no answer but another and another, but still no answer. And then all making way for the venerable companion of a long and loving pilgrimage, the tender partner of many a joy and sorrow, his wife, draws near. She bends over him, and as her tears fall thick upon his face, she cries, "Do you not remember me?" A stare—but it is vacant. There is no life in that flinty eye; and the seal of death lies upon these lips. The sun is down, and life's brief twilight is darkening fast into a starless night. At this moment, one, calm enough to remember how the love of Christ's spouse is "strong as death," a love that many waters cannot quench, stooped to his ear, and said, "Do you remember Jesus Christ?" The word was no sooner uttered than it seemed to recall the spirit, hovering for a moment ere it took wing to heaven. Touch- ed as by an electric influence, the heart beats once more to the name of Jesus; the features, fixed in death, relax; the countenance, dark in death, flashes up like the last gleam of day; and with a smile in which the soul passed away to glory, he replied, "Remember Jesus Christ! dear Jesus Christ! he is all my salvation, and all my desire!" —Gulliver.

HAPPY ILLUSTRATION.

I remember that on my return to France, in a vessel which had been on a voyage to India, as soon as the sailors perfectly distinguished the land of their native country, they became in a great measure incapable of attending to the duties of the ship. Some looked at it wishfully, without the power of minding anything else; others dressed themselves in their best clothes, as if they were going that moment to disembark; some talked to themselves and others wept.

As we approached, the disorder of their minds increased. As they had been absent several years, there was no end to the admiration of the hills, the foliage of the trees, and even the rocks which skirted the shore, covered with weeds and mosses. The church spires of the villages where they were born, which they distinguished at a distance up the country, and which they named one after another, filled them with transports of delight.

But when the vessel entered the port, and when they saw on the quays, their fathers and mothers, their wives, their children and their friends, stretching out their arms with tears of joy, and calling them by their names, it was no longer possible to retain them on board; they all sprang on shore, and it became necessary, according to the custom of the port, to employ another set of mariners to bring the vessel to her mooring.

What then would be the case, were we indulged with a sensible display of that heavenly country, inhabited by those who are worthy of our most sublime affections? The laborious and vain cares of this life would from that moment come to an end. Its duties would be forsaken, and all our powers and feelings would be left in perpetual rapture; it is wisdom, therefore, that a veil is spread over the glories of futurity. Let us enjoy the hope that the happy land awaits us, and in the meantime, let us fulfil with cheerfulness and patience what brings to our present condition.

FEEL WHAT YOU SAY.

However highly gifted he may otherwise be, it is a valid objection to a preacher, that he does not feel what he says; that speaks more than his oratory. An obscure man rises up to address the French Convention. At the close of his oration, Mirabeau, the giant genius of the Revolution, turned round to his neighbour and eagerly asked, "Who is that?" The other, who had been in no way interested by the address, wondered at Mirabeau's curiosity; whereupon the latter said, "That man will yet act a great part," and, asked to explain himself added, "He speaks as one who believes every word he says." Much of pulpit power, under God, depends on that—admits that explanation, or one allied to it. They make others feel who feel themselves. How can he plead for souls, who does not know the value of his own? How can he recommend a Saviour to others, who himself personally despises and rejects him? Unhappy, indeed, and doubly blind those whose leader is as blind as they are; and whose object of all, the blind preacher; for while leader and led shall fall into the ditch, he falls underneath—his the heaviest condemnation, the deepest and most damned perdition. In possession of such a man—of one who has adopted the Church as other men the law, or army, or navy as a mere profession, and goes through the routine of its duties with the coldness of an official—the pulpit seems filled with the gasty form of a skeleton, that in its cold and bony fingers holds a burning lamp.—Gulliver's Gospel in Ezekiel.

THE SOUL.

What makes the soul so valuable? Its immortality. When endless years have run on, the soul will still exist; amazing thought! Will it never tire? Will the ethereal pulsation of sublimated existence never grow heavy? Will the wheel never be broken at the cistern? Never! The soul will endure as long as the throne of God! As heaven's wall shall gather no mosses from age, neither will the soul become decrepit; and in all the multitudes of heaven not one shall be seen leaning upon his staff for very age! What! like the angels, never grow old! To be always the same through countless centuries as when first created! But cannot she annihilate herself! Oh no! the soul's literal suicide can not be performed! No Judas Iscariot can find a sulphurous tree, or jutting wall, which, in Gehenna's cavern, or burning fields, may afford him suspension between life and death. The soul must live on.—Rev. Dr. Andrews.

KNOWLEDGE OF GOD.

To know God only as a philosopher; to have the most sublime and curious speculations concerning his essence, attributes and providence; to be able to demonstrate his Being from all, or any, of the works of nature, and to discourse with the greatest propriety and eloquence of his existence and operations, will avail us nothing, unless at the same time we know Him experimentally; unless the heart know him to be its supreme good, its only happiness; unless a man feel and acknowledge that he can find no repose, no peace, no joy, but in loving and being beloved by Him; and does accordingly rest in him, as the centre of his being, the foundation of his pleasures, the origin of all virtue and goodness—his light, his life, his strength, his all; in a word, his Lord, his God.

If you love others, they will love you. If you speak kindly to them, they will speak kindly. Love is repaid with love, hatred with hatred. Would you bear a sweet and pleasant echo, speak sweetly and pleasantly yourself.

NEW PLATFORM OF THE AMERICAN PARTY.

1. An humble acknowledgment to the Supreme Being who rules the universe for his protecting care, vouchsafed to our fathers in their successful revolutionary struggle, and liberties manifested to us, their descendants, in the preservation of the liberties, the independence, and the union of these States.

2. The perpetuation of the federal Union and Constitution as the palladium of our civil and religious liberties, and the only sure bulwark of American independence.

3. Americanism must rule America, and to this end native-born citizens should be selected for all State, federal and municipal offices or government employment, in preference to all others; nevertheless,

4. Persons born of American parents residing temporarily abroad should be entitled to all the rights of native-born citizens; but

5. No person should be selected for political station, whether of native or foreign birth, who recognizes any allegiance or obligation of any description to any foreign prince, potentate or power, or who refuse to recognize the federal and State constitutions (each within its sphere) as paramount to all other laws, as rules of political action.

6. The unqualified recognition and maintenance of the reserved rights of the several States, and the cultivation of harmony and fraternal good will between the citizens of the several States, and to this end, non-interference by Congress with questions appertaining solely to the individual States, and non-intervention by each State with the affairs of any other State.

7. The recognition of the right of the native-born and naturalized citizens of the United States, permanently residing in any Territory thereof, to frame their constitution and laws, and to regulate their domestic and social affairs in their own mode, subject only to the provisions of the federal constitution, with the privilege of admission into the Union whenever they have the requisite population for one representative in Congress. Provided always, that none but those who are citizens of the United States, under the constitution and laws thereof, and who have a fixed residence in any such Territory, ought to participate in the formation of the constitution, or in the enactment of laws for said Territory or State.

8. An enforcement of the principle that no State or Territory ought to admit others than of the United States to the right of suffrage or of holding political office.

9. A change in the laws of naturalization, making a continued residence of twenty-one years, of which ten years should be provided for, an indispensable requisite for citizenship hereafter, and excluding all paupers and persons convicted of crime from landing upon our shores; but no interference with the vested rights of foreigners.

10. Opposition to any union between Church and State; no interference with religious faith or worship and no test oaths for office.

11. Free and thorough investigation into any and all alleged abuses of public functionaries and a strict economy in public expenditures.

12. The maintenance and enforcement of all laws, constitutionally and constitutionally enacted, until said laws shall be repealed, or shall be declared null and void by competent judicial authority.

13. Opposition to the reckless and unwise policy of the present administration in the general management of our national affairs, and more especially as shown in removing "Americans" (by designation and conservatism in principle) from office, and placing foreigners and ultraists in their places; as shown in a truckling subservience to the strong, and an insolent and cowardly hostility towards the weaker powers; as shown in re-opening sectional agitation by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise; as shown in granting to unnaturalized foreigners the right to suffrage in Kansas and Nebraska; as shown in its vacillating course on the Kansas and Nebraska question; as shown in the corruptions which pervade some of the departments of the government; as shown in disgracing meritorious naval officers, through prejudice or caprice; and as shown in the blundering mismanagement of our foreign relations.

14. Therefore, to remedy existing evils, and prevent the disastrous consequences otherwise resulting therefrom, we would build up the "American party" upon the principles herein before stated.

15. That each State Council shall have authority to annul their several constitutions so as to abolish the several degrees, and substitute a pledge of honor instead of other obligations, for fellowship and admission into the party.

16. A free and open discussion of all political principles embraced in our platform.
