Sunday Reading.

WHAT RELIGION DOES FOR US.

Christ took upon him "flesh and blood, that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is the devil; and deliver them who, through fear of death, were all their life time subject to bondage." What religion does for the Christian in his life-time, is not known, indeed, cannot be known, until the day of eternity shall reveal it. Who can tell the depths of moral degradation to which he might have sunk but for religion! the amount of crime, the infamy, disgrace, and wretchedness, it has saved him from! to say nothing of the inward peace, the rich consolations and heavenly joys it has imparted. Is it nothing to be saved from remorse, the stings of conscience, and the apprehension of future wrath! Is it a small thing to have the heart cleansed from all unholy affections, inordinate desires, and wicked tempers, and to have it filled with the "fruits of the spirit—love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance!" Is a life of piety, of virtue and usefulness, of no importance! Is it nothing to enjoy the protection of heaven! the guidance of the Holy Spirit! the teachings of infinite wisdom! the smile of God! and the light of his reconciled countenance! In the hour of temptation, when surrendered with evil influences, and exposed to the artful designs of unprincipled men, and the malign influence of diabolical spirits, is it no great advantage to have an allwise and almighty deliverer near, to make a way for his escape, and to deliver him from all evil! And when the world frowns, when "friends forsake's and "foes unite," when wasted by disease' or racked by pain, or borne down by worldly sorrow and affliction, are the consolations of religion, the presence of Jesus, and the hopes of everlasting life, of no account, and to be treated as nothing worth!

But in all this the blessedness of religion is not so fully tested as it is in the dying hour. God does not forsake his servants in the time of their greatest need, neither does he leave them comfortless; his presence goes with them, and his rod and staff comfort them, as they pass through "the valley and shadow of death." Religion takes away the fear of death, and bears its humble possessor triumphantly over the cold stream. It gives him victory in that hour when all things else must fail; and, having brought him off a conqueror over his last enemy ushers him into the celestial city, the society of angels, and the presence of Jesus; crowns him with glory and honor, and rewards him with everlasting life.

Can any thing be so valuable, so desirable as religion? That which secures both worlds—the life which now is, and that which is to come—is not to be lightly esteemed; it should not be despised and neglected, but sought after with earnestness and perseverance, as the "one thing needful," the "pearl of great price," the "true riches" that which will confer happiness and true prosperity in life, victory in death, and immortality beyond the grave.

Reader, "seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness," and all things else, which heaven sees best, will be "added unto thee." Let it be thy earliest and latest care, the object of thy greatest desire, the burden of thy every prayer. Seek it in preference to all things else. The gold of Ophir, the wealth of the Indies, all the honors and emoluments of the world, are not to be compared to it. When these have all faded and perished, religion will still remain, glorious and valuable as ever.—Canada Christian Advocate.

MAN'S REDEMPTION.

Recollect Christian? God thought fit to require the blood of his Son for the redemption of our souls. These souls must have been very precious in the sight of God, since he redeemed them at a price so immense. The misery into which they were liable to be plunged, must have been extremely terrible, since God thought proper to make such great efforts to save them from it. The fidelity, of which they are capable, and to which the Lord intends to elevate them, must be infinitely valuable, since it cost him so much to bring them to it. For what in the universe is of equal value with the blood of the Son of God? Disappear, all ye other miracles, wrought in favor of our souls! ye astonishing prodigies, that confirmed the gospel! thou, delay of the consummation of all things! ye great and terrible signs of the second coming of the Son of God! Vanish before the miracle of the cross; for the cross shines you all into glorious light makes your glimmering vanish, and after my imagination is filled with the tremendous dignity of this sacrifice, I can see nothing great beside. But, if God hath estimated our souls at such a rate, shall we set a low price on them?—If he hath given so much for them, do we imagine we can give too much for them?—If, for their redemption, he hath sacrifined the most valuable person in heaven, do we imagine there is any thing upon earth too great to give up for them?—Saurin.

HARLAN PAGE.

"I have just read the life of Harlan Page for the third time. Next to the Bible I value that book, for it is the Bible with practical comments—religion lived out. O how often do I wish that I had moral courage sufficient to live as he did. He emphatically lived not to himself. He never was easy unless he were actively engaged in doing good. He labored continually to bring souls to Christ, and he succeeded."—Rev. Wm. T. Biddle.

SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR,
AS A LIVER MEDICINE.

THERE has long existed a demand for such a remedy that could be relied on as safe and effectual. This remedy has been prepared to meet that demand; and an extensive trial of its virtues has shown how nearly really it has accomplished the purpose designed. Among the complaints which have been specially cured by the use of the Invigorator, we mention Liver Complaint which is the cause of many other diseases—among which are, Biliousness, Headache, Pain in the Side and Loins, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Lastlessness and Irritability—all of which are caused by a diseased action of the Liver. The Invigorator is compounded with particular reference to the Liver, and when that disease is removed all the rest are cured, as the cause of them is taken away. A few doses of the Invigorator rarely ever fail to stimulate the Liver to a proper action, and by its continued use to remove the disease. It has been taken with great success in cases of Cholic, Dysentery, &c., and for these it has been found a very effectual remedy. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach to a healthy action and restores the appetite and vigor. One dose will relieve the oppressive uneasiness experienced by eating a hearty dinner, as it excites the digestive organs to vigorous action. For a debilitated state of the system the Invigorator has no equal which experience proves, as it restores the system and removes the yellowness from the skin, which is the result of a diseased Liver.

Prepared and sold by Sanford & Co., 188 Front st. New York. Price $1 per bottle, containing 40 doses. Also sold by

STEADY PROGRESSION

EAGLE CITY.

THE SUBSCRIBER has the pleasure to announce to the world, to whom he sends greeting all kind wishes for their prosperity and peace, that he is making steady progress in the improvement of Eagle City, destined, he believes, to become the greatest manufacturing city in the country. He is now erecting a new cotton mill at this place, to be called the "Troy Mills," and hopes to have it in full operation soon. It will be one of the best, (if not the very best,) mills in the country. The machinery was selected by himself, and the latest and most approved patterns were chosen. It will work like a lever watch—smooth and steady—and he doubts not will excel, in its products, the most beautiful achievements of the renowned Eagle Mills, under whose shadow it is developing its fair and delighting proportions. Eagle Mills long gained for itself a fame as fair as it is widespread, both for the excellence of its yarns, and the superiority of its cloth fabrics. Troy Mills alone threatens to rival it, and hence the world may look out for a contest involving a result not less interesting in itself, than it must be desirable to every Southern patriot.

The dreamer, speculating on coming events might well step in here, and casting forward his ken beyond the boundary of present time, portrays the aspect of Eagle City a few years hence. Let him sketch it: We see a city of beautiful proportions with its towering steeples pointing heavenwards: close ranged blocks of granite buildings with glittering metal roofs, reflect the cheerful beams of a vernal sun: the invigorating breezes of a delightful climate, stir the leaves of long rows of elms: the streets are enlivened with a cheerful busy throng: the song of half a million of spindles is mingled with the roar of looms and cascades: Eagle monument rises above all things else, bearing on its top an immense eagle, wings extended, looking down with pleasure on all below. Eagle City Bank is in full view, and by its liberal policy invites all energetic business men to claim its encouragement. Calico printers roll out their baled-up goods: the cars of the North-western Railroad receive them, together with thousands of other things, the products of the City: the deafening whistle is blown, and the sound is echoed and re-echoed from hill to hill, and wakes the drowsy powers of reposing fat cattle, which browse in the rich surrounding valleys: the scene grows!—grows!—and the end is beyond the portraying skill of the prophet. We had but a glimpse—but what a view! And it is all to be realized beyond doubt. Enough, enough!—I will press on to its final consummation.

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pain produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention. Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood, Dropsical Swellings, Heart, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped, they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions, see wrapper on the Box.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
For the rapid Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

THIS remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. Not only in formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, &c., and for CHILDREN it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by—

Charlotte, October 23, 1855. 3tf

THE GREATEST
MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF THE AGE.

Dr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR;

From the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of Biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the Eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appears to me surprising: first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it, and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c. the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults one table spoonful per day—Children over ten years dessert spoonful. Children from five to eight years, teaspoonful.—As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

A letter from J. R. Callum, Druggist, Milton N. C., dated Aug. 14, 1847:

Dr. J. Krol—Dear Sir: Your medicines have given entire satisfaction in this section of country. The Abyssinia Mixture especially is highly approved of. It has never failed to cure in any case—it sells so fast, that I never had enough to supply the demand. You will please send me a large supply of it as soon as you get home.

J. R. CALLUM.

Dr. McLANE'S
CELEBRATED
AND LIVER PILLS.
Two of the best Preparations of the Age.

They are not recommended as Universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports.

The VERMIFUGE, for expelling Worms from the human system, has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various animals subject to Worms.

The LIVER PILLS, for the cure of LIVER COMPLAINT, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEADACHE, &c.

Purchasers will please be particular to ask for Dr. C. McLane's Celebrated VERMIFUGE and LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros.

SOLE PROPRIETORS, Pittsburgh, Pa., and take no other, as there are various other preparations now before the public, purporting to be Vermifuge and Liver Pills. All others, in comparison with Dr. McLANE'S, are worthless.

The GENUINE McLane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores.
