Sunday Reading.

RELIGION WITHOUT THE CROSS.

Reader! as long as you live, beware of a religion in which there is not much of the cross. You live in times when the warning is sadly needful. Beware, I say again of a religion without the cross.

There are hundreds of places of worship in this day, in which there is everything almost except the cross. There is carved oak and sculptured stone. There is stained glass and brilliant paintings. There are solemn services and a constant round of ordinances. But the real cross of Christ is not there. Jesus crucified is not proclaimed in the pulpit. The lamp of God is not lifted up, and salvation by faith in Him is not freely proclaimed. And hence all is wrong Reader beware of such places of worship They are not apostolical. They would not have satisfied St. Paul.

There are thousands of religious books published in our times, in which there is everything except the cross. They are full of directions about sacraments and praises of the church. They abound in exhortations about holy living, and rules for the attainment of perfection. They have plenty of fonts and crosses both inside and outside —but the real cross of Christ is left out.— The Saviour and his dying love are either not mentioned, or mentioned in an unscriptural way. And hence they are worse than useless. Reader, beware of such books.— They are not apostolical. They would never have satisfied St. Paul.

Reader! St. Paul gloried in nothing but the cross. Strive to be like him. Set Jesus crucified fully before the eyes of your soul Listen not to any teachings which would interpose anything between you and him. Do not fall into the old Galatian error. Think not that any one in this day is a better guide than the Apostles. Do not be ashamed of the old paths, in which men walked who were inspired by the Holy Ghost. Let not the vague talk of men, who speak great swelling words about catholicity, and the church, and the ministry, disturb your peace, and make you loose your hands from the cross. Churches, ministers, and sacraments, are all useful in their way, but they are not Christ crucified. Do not give Christ's honor to another. "He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord."—Rev. J. C. Ryle, B. A.

THE HAND THAT SAVES US.

Two painters were employed to fresco the walls of a cathedral. Both stood on a rude scaffolding, constructed for the purpose, some forty feet from the floor. One of them was so intent upon his work that he became wholly absorbed, and, in admiration, stood off from the picture, gazing at it with intense delight.

Forgetting where he was, he moved back slowly, surveying critically the work of his pencil, until he had neared the edge of the plank on which he stood. At this critical moment his companion turned suddenly, and almost paralized with horror, beheld his imminent peril; another instant, and the enthusiast would be precipitated upon the pavement beneath. If he spoke to him, it was certain death; if he held his peace, death was equally sure. Suddenly he regained his presence of mind, and seizing a wet brush, flung it against the wall, spattering the picture with unsightly blotches of coloring.

The painter flew forward, and turned upon his friend with fierce upbraidings; but, startled at his ghastly face, he listened to his recital of danger, looked shuddering over the dread space below, and with tears of gratitude blessed the hand that saved him.

Just so, we sometimes get absorbed upon the pictures of the world; and, in contemplating them, step backwards, unconscious of our peril, when the Almighty in mercy dashes out the beautiful images and draws us, at the time we are complaining of his dealings, into his outstretched arms of compassion and love.

SIN SHORTENS LIFE.

Every form of sin tends to precipitate the ruin of the transgresser. It hastens the final catastrophe. Not a violent passion can man indulge which does not tear his heart-strings. How often has a sudden access of rage broken the golden bowl of life! What a warning against all evil ways! Why are men so eager to reach the end of their course? Why in such haste to put themselves out of the world, when beyond it they can anticipate only the blackness of darkness? Have they not suffered enough in this world that they are so impatient to rush into another still more miserable? Will they not be contented till they are dead and gone—aye, dead and damned?

On the other hand, every Christian virtue tends to prolong as well as to sweeten human life. Kind emotions, right affections, and activity in doing good all fortify and confirm the powers of the body as well as of the mind. Not only is the intellect clearer, but the sleep is sounder, and the limbs are stronger. Such a man has nothing to fire his brain, or accelerate his blood, or to cause his heart to beat violently with rage or fear. Thus it often comes, as the reward of faith and patience and charity, as well as of honor and reverence to a father and mother —that the days of the obedient, the kind, the gentle and the good, are made long on the earth.—New York Evangelist.

THE RESTING DAY.

This weekly suspension of our toils, this weekly undoing of the burden of our labours from our back, reconciles us to the sentence of labour, and we bend to our tasks as sons of Adam with more willing minds. All our life is not toil; it is not one unceasing round of work; we can refresh our wearied bodies or our jaded minds; we can put off the yoke from our neck, and, as it were, stretch our limbs. O, how great the blessing of the Lord's day! O, happy thing for us that we can have some reprieve from work! it is not all work—work—work—work. We can put down spade and plough; we can get rid of buying and selling; we can close shops and leave the bales of goods; we can let the fire go out in the forge; we can let the cattle rest in their stalls and not drive the team; we can get rid of clients and consultations, and disputes; we can escape factories and looms, and the hot air of workshops; we can put down the needle and give rest to the weary finger and aching eye; we can fly from the counter and wearying customers, from the desk and dry accounts; we can escape all the din and clatter, and noise of the busy working world, and have one day out of seven a day of peace. All then is calm; all is quiet; quiet are the streets, quiet are the shops, quiet are the fields and the roads; something of the peace of heaven passes over the world, and we feel that such stillness is from heaven.

THE SPIRIT OF PRAYER.

In our prayers we ought to think first of God and his honor before we think at all of ourselves, except it be for the purpose of acknowledging our intrinsic unworthiness in ourselves to speak to our God. This is most strongly and unmistakeably taught us, by the construction of the Lord's Prayer. Short as it is, the first half consists of petitions for the hallowing of our Father's name, the advance and coming of his kingdom, the fulfilment of his will by all; all this before we are led to think of ourselves at all, before we ask even for our daily bread, for forgiveness of sins, for strength in temptation, and rescue from evil of all kinds. These are necessary enough, and so we feel them, but they are nothing in comparison with those former petitions, and indeed we must of course desire good things for ourselves only so far as they are consistent with the fulfilment of those petitions. So again it is throughout—"Our Father," "give us," "forgive us,"—not "My Father" "forgive me," utterly unselfish. In both respects it has the very spirit of sacrifice from first to last. —Tupper.

DELIGHT THYSELF IN GOD.

O, labouring and heavily laden souls, the restlessness which you take so many different ways to alleviate, is occasioned by nothing so much as by the want of God. While you are living without Him, all that you do is vanity and vexation of spirit. There is a rest for your souls; but it is not in those things which you have been so earnestly pursuing. You seek it from the earth; but the earth says, "It is not in me." You seek it from pleasure, from fashion, from riches, from friendship, from praise, but praise, friendship, riches, fashion, pleasure, each of them say, 'It is not in me.' Ask it from everything in creation, and everything in creation will say, "It is not in me." You must seek it above and beyond creation; for there is no rest for your souls till you seek it where it is to be found, in the bosom of God's everlasting love.—Hewilson.

SANDFORD'S INVIGORATOR,
AS A LIVER MEDICINE.

THERE has long existed a demand for such a remedy that could be relied on as safe and effectual. This remedy has been prepared to meet that demand; and an extensive trial of its virtues has shown how universally it has accomplished the purpose designed. Among the complaints which have been specially cured by the use of the Invigorator, we mention Liver Complaint which is the cause of nearly other disease—among which are, Biliousness, Headache, Pain in the Side and Loins, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness and Irritability—all of which are caused by a diseased action of the Liver. The Invigorator is compounded with particular reference to the Liver, and when that disease is removed all the rest are cured, as the cause of them is taken away. A few doses of the Invigorator rarely ever fail to stimulate the Liver to a proper action, and by its continuance to remove the disease. It has been taken with great success in cases of Cholic, Dysentery, &c., and for these it has been found a very effective remedy. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach to a healthy action and restores the appetite and vigor. One dose will relieve the oppressive uneasiness experienced by eating a hearty dinner, as it excites the digestive organs to vigorous action. For a debilitated state of the system the Invigorator has no equal which experience proves, as it restores the system and removes the yellowness from the skin, which is the result of a diseased Liver.

Prepared and sold by Sandford & Co., 188 Front st. New York. Price $1 per bottle, containing 30 doses. Also sold by

STEADY PROGRESSION

EAGLE CITY.

THE SUBSCRIBER has the pleasure to announce to the world, to whom he sends greeting all kind wishes for their prosperity and peace, that he is making steady progress in the improvement of Eagle City, destined, he believes, to become the greatest manufacturing city in the country. He is now erecting a new cotton mill at this place, to be called the "Troy Mills," and hopes to have it in full operation soon. It will be one of the best, (if not the very best,) mills in the country. The machinery was selected by himself, and the latest and most approved patterns were chosen. It will work like a lever watch—smooth and steady—and he doubts not will excel, in its products, the most beautiful achievements of the renowned Eagle Mills, under whose shadow it is developing its fair and delighting proportions. Eagle Mills long gained for itself a fame as fair as it is widespread, both for the excellence of its yarns, and the superiority of its cloth fabrics. Troy Mills alone threatens to rival it, and hence the world may look out for a contest involving a result not less interesting in itself, than it must be desirable to every Southern patriot.

The dreamer, speculating on coming events might well step in here, and casting forward his ken beyond the boundary of present time, portrays the aspect of Eagle City a few years hence. Let him sketch it: We see a city of beautiful proportions with its towering steeples pointing heavenwards; close ranged blocks of granite buildings with glittering metal roofs, reflect the cheerful beams of a vernal sun: the invigorating breezes of a delightful climate, stir the leaves of long rows of elms: the streets are enlivened with a cheerful busy throng: the song of half a million of spindles is mingled with the roar of looms and cascades: Eagle monument rises above all things else, bearing on its top an immense eagle, wings extended, looking down with pleasure on all below. Eagle City Bank is in full view, and by its liberal policy invites all energetic business men to claim its encouragement. Calico printers roll out their bolts of goods: the cars of the North-western Railroad receive them, together with thousands of other things, the products of the City: the deafening whistle is blown, and the sound is echoed and re-echoed from hill to hill, and wakes the drowsy powers of reposing fat cattle, which browse in the rich surrounding valleys: the scene grows!—grows!—and the end is beyond the portraying skill of the prophet. We had but a glimpse —but what a view! And it is all to be realized beyond doubt. Enough, enough!—I will press on to its final consummation.

AYER'S PILLS.

A new and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases—Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Piles, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Region of the Kidneys, Back and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c. &c. Indeed, very few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and search sickness and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive state of body prevails; besides, it soon generates severe and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Feverish attacks, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which load the burying ground of the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues in Physicians' Practice, and Patients, has shown results surpassing any thing hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the many eminent gentlemen who have testified in favor of these Pills, we may mention

Prof. J. M. LOCKE, Analytical Chemist, of Cincinnati, whose high professional character is endorsed by JOHN MCLEAN, Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States.

THOS. CORWIN, Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. J. M. WHITLEY, Governor of Indiana.

N. LONGWORTH, great wine grower of the West.

Also, Dr. J. R. CHILTON, Practical Chemist, of New York City, endorsed by

Hon. W. L. MARCY, Secretary of state.

Wm. B. ASTOR, the richest man in America.

S. LEEDS & Co., Stores of the Metropolitan Hotel, and many others.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred certificates, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the experience of eminent public men is found in their effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs that load the system, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, and are by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of compounding the medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of compounding, every medicine is burdened with more or less of inert matter, which is nauseating, by this process the medicinal virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and nauseous qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove, as they are proved, more purely remedial, and the Pills a surer, more powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he would not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition, I have supplied the accurate Formula by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British American Provinces. If, however, there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his request.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known! Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their excellence of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and have done confidently, and are willing to certify that their antiseptic were more than realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar-wrapped, they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions, see wrapper on the Box.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

DR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pastures needs a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR;

From the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both of them cancer.) He has now in his possession over two thousand certificates of its virtues, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of Biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the Eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appears to me surprising: first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it, and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day—if it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent nostrums was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c. the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults one table spoonful per day—Children over ten years dessert spoonful. Children from five to eight years, teaspoonful.—As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that his house, known as the "Railroad Hotel," opposite the Chester Depot, is still open for the reception of regular and transient boarders and the travelling public; and that he is making every exertion to deserve and secure a continuance of the kind and liberal patronage which has hitherto been extended to him. He flatters himself that every needed arrangement has been made to promote the comfort of all who stop with him—his rooms are airy and well-furnished, his servants are attentive and obedient, and his table constantly supplied with the best of the season, so that his friends will not want any attention necessary to make their sojourn pleasant and agreeable. His stables are furnished with good hostlers and an abundance of provender, and he is prepared at a moment's notice to supply his customers with private conveyances of every sort, to any part of the surrounding country.

He desires to return his acknowledgements to the public for past favors, and solicits for the future an equally liberal share of patronage.

JOHN R. NICHOLSON.

Dr. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

AND

LIVER PILLS.

Two of the best Preparations of the age.

They are not recommended as Universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports.

The VERMIFUGE, for expelling Worms from the human system, has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various animals subject to Worms.

The LIVER PILLS, for the cure of LIVER COMPLAINT, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEADACHE, &c.

Purchasers will please be particular to ask for Dr. C. McLane's Celebrated VERMIFUGE and LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros.

SOLE PROPRIETORS, Pittsburgh, Pa., and take no other, as there are various other preparations now before the public, purporting to be Vermifuge and Liver Pills. All others, in comparison with Dr. McLANE'S, are worthless.

The GENUINE McLane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores.
