THE INTERNAL EVIDENCE OF CHRISTIANITY.

BY REV. DR. ROBERT J. BRICKENRIDGE. Dr. Brackenridge has performed a work...

If we enter now somewhat more into particulars, we shall find this volume to consist of sixty-six separate books, one of which (the book of Psalms) contains no less than one hundred and fifty distinct compositions...

These authors were from every rank in life. Bishops, kings, rulers in a free commonwealth, judges, magistrates, lawyers, generals, priests, private citizens, senators, artisans, farmers, shepherds, soldiers, fishermen, tax collectors, and they appear to have been persons of every sort of temperament...

From the American Magazine. CHRISTIANS DON'T CARE FOR MY SOUL. So said a young man recently, when pressed by a friend to attend to the subject of his salvation...

As I have had some experience in cutting timber, and calling myself a close observer of such things, I am anxious to share with you my views on this subject...

AN INTERESTING PAGE. The recent investigations of Prof. Wray, chemist, at the Royal Agricultural Society of England, have brought out a curious fact...

of the terrible remorse that preyed upon the soul. A few moments more, and the deathless spirit stood all unprepared in the presence of its Maker...

O Christian, Christian, beware! Your words, your actions, your very thoughts as mirrored in your countenance, may be either saving souls, or turning them to everlasting perdition...

Agricultural.

From the Cotton Planter and Soil.

FEEDING COWS, MILKING, CHURNING. Dr. CLARK—Dear Sir: In reading the January number of your most excellent journal, I find that you call upon the ladies to assist you in your great enterprise...

Mrs. EX-PRESIDENT POLK.—Mrs. Polk, the esteemed widow of the ex-President, has determined to reside in Washington during the next session of Congress. Hereafter, since her husband's death, with the exception of a visit in London at the time when Mr. Buchanan was the American minister there...

Distressing Calamity.—The fire at Baltimore on Tuesday night last was one of the most destructive and lamentable, in its results that has, perhaps, ever visited that city, especially so in regard to loss of life. Though the fire did not spread over a large area of ground, yet nearly a half million dollars' worth of property was destroyed.
