Poetry.
From the Florida Sentinel.
My life is like the scattered wreck
By life is like the scattered wreck
By GEORGE WARD, of Florida.
My life is like the scattered wreck
Cast by the waves upon the shore;
The broken mast, the rudder gone,
Tell of the shipwreck that is o'er.
Yet from these pieces of the wreck
The merciful hand of God will form,
Again to tempt the faithful sea,
But hope rebuilds no bark for me.
My life is like the lightning bolt,
That strikes the oak and withered fern,
Sternly to mark the coming storm;
Yet round me here the careless crew
The careless crew of life are seen,
And I am left to mark the doom,
Not to the power of lightning's ire.
My life is like the desert path,
In the mountain's bow and arrow;
Whereby the wanderer's weary feet
That find no home, their weary feet
Yet there the weary feet still tread,
Some flower will find a sweet perfume,
For me the flowers will bloom with them.
