Anniversary of the American Tract Society.

Society.

The 34th annual meeting of the American Society was held at the Academy of Music, in this city, unsterday morning at 9 e-clock, which opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Spring. The Prevident, Chief Justice Williams, was in the Chair. About Sub Life Directors and Life Members were present, and occupied the lower floor, admitted A very large audience ocspired the galleries. Hes. Dr. De Wits, Chairman of the Excentive Committee, made a few opening and touching remarks as to the entire harmony of the Committee for 24 years. The election of President, Vice Presidents. Secretaries, Le., was then gone into Gaussian, of Charleston, S. C., as a Director, and Hon W C Alexander, of New Jersey, as a Vice President. The Executive Com-mittee was then by elected by a vote of 231 to 23 scattering. The election of this Com-mittee is only by Life Directors.

The opposents of the Society, because it will not approve, publish and scatter Trants against davery present, were far less than last year. These few made a desperate, dy-ing struggle to disturb the meeting by introducing resolutions and making speeches to or urge the Committee to publish su correlating indports, deciding that this and such sall ets do not belong to the Society, and should not come up for discus-sion. After voting down all these resolufor fear some might consure this so lighted agains as excharaging the re open-ing of the African slave trade, which Chris-ians north and nouth are opposed to, the Society passed almost unanimously the foleclusion, offered by the venerable Spring. In offering it, and with kell, that he had no sympathy with Seriety; the spirit of apposition to this Noticty; that he approved all the setting of this meeting, and that with the great nojority of those pre-sent he desired to put an end to the discusment he desires to put an end to the discus-sion on sixery before this Society, as it was an improper time and place for such dis-cussion. The resolution is in these mords: "Resorted, That in laying the preceding resolutions on the table, tim Society have trade and the great wickedness of re-opening that miquinus traffic in any form."

As this point the 30 or 40 appearants left the house with all the wind taken out of their sails—the Society taking the only safe ground, that it is neither anti-slavery har pro-slavery, having nothing to do with the
