MINISTERIAL FEARLESSNESS.

Ever since the ancient prophet fearlessly... in the ears of the shining king...

True courage is so rare a virtue that it... is seen in the lowest form of brute bravery...

True heroism requires the speaking of the... rights at the right time, lovingly and...

Not does moral irreproachability consist... in launching against others any anathemas...

Coming to Christ. A young man... in one of the New York prayer meetings...

Ministers tell us, he continued, in their... sermons how easy it is coming to Christ...

To prevent sows from killing their pigs... About two years ago, we first mentioned...

MURMUR AT NOTHING. If our life is tolerable, it is ungrateful... if remedied, it is vain.

Scratching Knives. A small, clean pete... with the end cut off, is a very momen...

ESSAY ON FARMING, Read before the Martin County, N. C., Agricultural Society, June, 1889.

Mr. President:—Owing to business at our last meeting, I was not prepared to give my views in regard to Farming.

I will endeavor to do so now, and will make no apology for inability to do justice to a subject so much important.

As regards manures, there are so many different kinds, and the manner of applying them is so different, it is no easy task to decide which is best.

INSOLENCE PUNISHED.—On Thursday evening last, a gentleman named George Dashiell, of Memphis, Tenn., who is stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel, New York, accompanied by a gentleman named Nelson, and his daughter, also of Memphis, Tenn., attended the performance of the Ravel Troupe, at Niblo's Theatre.

SLAVE HOLDERS, LOOK AT IT!—The report of the police committee submitted to Council on Monday afternoon, showed 21 cases of negroes imprisoned for drunkenness. Where are we sending, and what security is there in our property?

BUTTON-HOLE SEWING MACHINES.—One of the complaints against the ordinary sewing machines is, that they will not sew button holes and such like work.

WAKE COUNTY TOBACCO.—Granville, Caswell, Person, and all the other Tobacco raising counties, must look to their lands, else old Wab will bear them off in triumph.

PALM OIL.—Mrs. Knowles, one of the attendants in the Lunatic Asylum at Staunton, Va., was killed on Friday last, by one of the patients, who struck her with a heavy brick on the head, causing her death shortly after. She was formerly of Rockbridge county, Va.

EXTRAORDINARY EXHIBITION—A MAN OF LEATHER.

An exhibition of a very remarkable and unusual character, attracted a small, but highly respectable, audience, at the Madison, on Thursday evening last.
