

He quoted from the "Newbern Enquirer," (a Democratic paper,) which undervalued the free white labor of the State and exalted slave labor over it. And he then proceeded to show, that in agriculture alone, while labor was immensely more valuable—than slave power had increased between 1860 and 1850, had increased more than our white population—he believed, had done so during the present decade—that the agricultural worth of our whole people leaving the State every year, under our present unequal tax system—yet democracy never shed a tear over their departure or cared to give a single thought to stop this outward tide of white laborers and citizens—but could never make head at the bare prospect of a negro's leaving the State. He asked whether 20,000 more on a state, worth $1,000, could have the effect of driving out the State? Every body knew it did not.

He went on to warn the country against the idea that was to be practised on them in this campaign. The Democratic Convention had taken a stand for the Equal Taxation—etc. etc. He had taken such a position also yet, in the face of the convention, the Democrats were going to run candidates for the Legislature in many counties where he had, and universally, he had been told, beyond the mountains, who were out and out for Ad Valorem. He said the people never would get this just measure in that way. These candidates only wanted votes and would deserve them when they got to Raleigh. No one should seek to be a representative man, who did not adhere to the cause of the people on this subject.

M. B. Beckwith alluding to the late disruption of the Democratic party at Charlotte. It could not come together at Baltimore without one side or the other breaking down from principle, and uniting again upon some infamous scheme like the Kansas Bill or the Cincinnati platform. The party was now a mere fraction—powerless for any good to the country.

Mr. Barringer was repeatedly and enthusiastically cheered during the delivery of this speech, and retired from the stand amidst a thunder of applause.

The Committee on business having returned while Mr. Barringer was speaking, when he had concluded, Col. Palmer, of Stanly, as Chairman of aid Committee, announced the following report:

Your Committee on business, after due consideration, submit the following resolutions and recommendations:

Resolved, That the principles set forth in the platform of the Convention which assembled in Raleigh on the 22d of Feb. last, commend themselves to the favor of every conservative national party.

Resolved, That the principle of Equal Taxation, as promulgated by the Raleigh Convention, is essentially just and is the only system of Revenue suited to the genius and the interests of a free people.

Resolved, That the Jones Post, of Pasquotank, we recognize a friend, a statesman, a wise and discerning work of men, that will surely prolong his usefulness in the service, and we appeal to most men every where, who love their country more than party, to incur his triumphant election.

Resolved, That taxation and representation should go together, as now provided by our organ 12, and that Wing sentiments of the West are amply opposed to any change of the basis of representation in either House of the General Assembly that shall not be in accordance to an equal and just recognition of a system of taxation which shall operate justly and equally upon all tax payers, and hold sections.

Resolved, That the appointment of Rufus Barringer and S. W. Walkup, as delegates to the Constitutional Union Convention, which this day assembles in Baltimore, be and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed by this convention.

Resolved, That extravagance, profligacy, corruption, and insolvency pervade every department of the public service. The Democratic party, which has evaded every plague given to the people in 1852 and '56 to secure internal tranquility upon the slavery question, and retrenchment in the public expenditure—and now, by the late disruption at Charlotte, it remains only in the form of factions powerless to save the Union or the Constitutional rights of the South.

Resolved, That the exigencies of the public welfare imperatively demands a change in administration, State and National, and that the Democratic party has evaded every plague given to the people in 1852 and '56 to secure internal tranquility upon the slavery question, and retrenchment in the public expenditure—and now, by the late disruption at Charlotte, it remains only in the form of factions powerless to save the Union or the Constitutional rights of the South.

Resolved, That Wm. F. Bynum, Esq., of Lincoln county he appointed Elector for this District.

Resolved, That A. Young, of New Bern, and Col. M. L. McRae, Esq., of Catawba, are Assistant Electors for this District.

Resolved, That we recommend the following practices to Sub-Electors for their respective counties:

A. J. Dugan, Esq., for Anson county.

Rufus Barringer, Esq., for Cabarrus county.

Wm. Pegram, Esq., for Gaston county.

Col. Wm. Grier, Esq., for Mecklenburg county.

C. M. T. McGehee, Esq., for Union.

Wm. C. Lind, Esq., for Rowan.

H. W. Gorham, Esq., for Lincoln.

Wm. J. Montgomery, Esq., for Stanly.

Resolved, That we recommend friends to the Constitutional Union and Catawba County Conventions or otherwise, to fill the position of subscriber for themselves respectively, as we have no means here of knowing their wishes in this respect.

Resolved, That Luke Blackmer, Nathaniel Boyd, J. M. Collins, Wm. Murphy, James B. Broad, a central District Committee to attend to the affairs of the party in the district, with power to fix vacancies in any of the appointments above made.

On motion, the foregoing Report of the Committee was unanimously adopted.

Col. Palmer, of Stanly, was then called out—He said the leading question which must engage the attention of the people in this session, was that of practical and direct pecuniary interest to every taxpayer; and what was better still, it was simple, and the principle contended for by him and friends, so manifestly just, that it could not fail to be sustained, and could only be overthrown by a party which will bring peace and prosperity to the whole country; and that, as that party stands now, the black water to Black Republicanism, we invite to its banners good men and true men everywhere.

Resolved, That Wm. F. Bynum, Esq., of Lincoln county be appointed Elector for this District.

Resolved, That A. Young, of New Bern,

and Col. M. L. McRae, Esq., of Catawba, are Assistant Electors for this District.

Resolved, That we recommend the following practices to Sub-Electors for their respective counties:
