Gov. Ellis insisted that slaves are not tax ed as white persons, under the present sys-tem. for both male and female states are taxed from 12 to 50, while the white man is only taxed from 21 to 45. He instated that the slave population, in proportion to numbers, peid about two and one holf times as much tax as did the whites. He complained that his competitor was aring to take his platform from him; that he (Pool) was trying to get on some of his plank; but he should not do it ; he would endeavor keep him upon his own. He insisted that Keep him upon his even. He insisted that the op-position enswerbion was in faror of taxing everything. Why after the Constitution 7 Slaves were texed by act of the L-gislature in 1784, and continued to be taxed under that set, until the year 1833, and then the re-triesion was inserted by way of compro-mise. He alluded to Mr. Pool's sprech at scattered the rate , there he was in favor of will receive the Wulla for two dellars. giving a like protection to every species of property, and for taxing all species of prop-erty according to value. The Governor work into the details of a tax bill at considerable Into the details of a tag but at considerable length, and insisted that there should be specifig taxes on such articles as watch-es, cartinges, lawyers, doctors, &c. He ad-mits that the present system of taxing me-chanics worked a hardship and was unjust. He said the State of North Carolina was much in debt and the debts of the State had been in debt and the debts of the State had to be paid; for every acre of land in the State was mortgaged to pay the debt of the same; there was no escape, and the ques-tion was, how can these datts he puid with the least inconvenience to the uniques' He said it was clear the landholders ought not ta pat too much tax upon the moverbin property in the State lest they drive it out of the State, and then the land of the State would have to be said to pay the debis.
