

pose of securing to the National Legislature that knowledge of the interests, sentiments and condition of the whole country, which can be only had through a representative chosen by each small section or district...

pled in the strife, that an extreme remedial act (the Force Bill) of the Government itself became a necessary expedient...

North Carolina Edifying.

CHARLOTTE: Tuesday, September 4, 1850.

FOR THE PRESIDENT, Hon. JOHN BELL, OF TENNESSEE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Hon. EDWARD EVERETT, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE, Hon. GEO. E. BADGER, OF WAKE.

FOR THE DISTRICTS, Hon. J. W. HENSON, OF PATERNON, N. C.

HON. JOHN BELL, OF TENNESSEE.

HON. EDWARD EVERETT, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

HON. GEO. E. BADGER, OF WAKE.

HON. J. W. HENSON, OF PATERNON, N. C.

HON. JOHN BELL, OF TENNESSEE.

HON. EDWARD EVERETT, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

HON. GEO. E. BADGER, OF WAKE.

HON. J. W. HENSON, OF PATERNON, N. C.

HON. JOHN BELL, OF TENNESSEE.

HON. EDWARD EVERETT, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

HON. GEO. E. BADGER, OF WAKE.

HON. J. W. HENSON, OF PATERNON, N. C.

HON. JOHN BELL, OF TENNESSEE.

HON. EDWARD EVERETT, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

HON. GEO. E. BADGER, OF WAKE.

HON. J. W. HENSON, OF PATERNON, N. C.

HON. JOHN BELL, OF TENNESSEE.

HON. EDWARD EVERETT, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

HON. GEO. E. BADGER, OF WAKE.

HON. J. W. HENSON, OF PATERNON, N. C.

HON. JOHN BELL, OF TENNESSEE.

Prospects of Bell and Everett.

Every day brings us news that induces us to believe that the prospects of Bell and Everett are growing brighter and brighter.

As we draw closer and closer to the important day when the issues of the Presidential contest are to be decided, and with them the destiny, perhaps, of the nation, the positions of the contending forces are being more and more clearly defined.

There is no reason why it should not be so. The democratic party is now a thing of the past. The last and fatal attack to which it was subjected at Charleston and Baltimore broke up the little remnant of strength it had left. It never rallied. It was evidently beyond the aid of all political quacks.

There is no reason why it should not be so. The democratic party is now a thing of the past. The last and fatal attack to which it was subjected at Charleston and Baltimore broke up the little remnant of strength it had left.

There is no reason why it should not be so. The democratic party is now a thing of the past. The last and fatal attack to which it was subjected at Charleston and Baltimore broke up the little remnant of strength it had left.

There is no reason why it should not be so. The democratic party is now a thing of the past. The last and fatal attack to which it was subjected at Charleston and Baltimore broke up the little remnant of strength it had left.

There is no reason why it should not be so. The democratic party is now a thing of the past. The last and fatal attack to which it was subjected at Charleston and Baltimore broke up the little remnant of strength it had left.

There is no reason why it should not be so. The democratic party is now a thing of the past. The last and fatal attack to which it was subjected at Charleston and Baltimore broke up the little remnant of strength it had left.

There is no reason why it should not be so. The democratic party is now a thing of the past. The last and fatal attack to which it was subjected at Charleston and Baltimore broke up the little remnant of strength it had left.

Blondin is Some.

Blondin has written a letter to the Duke of Newcastle, stating that it is important that the Prince of Wales' entrance into the United States should produce a sensation worthy the country and himself, and to accomplish this, he proposes to take him across Niagara Falls, in a wheelbarrow, on a tight rope, free of expense.

The New York Evening Post, a Black Republican journal, in commenting upon Jere. Clemens' letter, states that Mr. Bell once visited New York and lay around a week or more, laying pipes for a nomination as Vice President on the Black Republican ticket.

The editor of the Western Sentinel pronounced the telegraphic dispatch that was published in all the papers in the State, that Judge Douglas would be in Raleigh on the 20th August, as an Opposition "Roar-back" or lie. Well, the editor should have gone to Raleigh to ascertain the truth of this "transparent humbug."

Mr. Editor: Mr. E. A. Yates, at the Breckinridge and Lane meeting to form a Democratic Club, said that the Constitution of the United States was "just no platform at all," and yet he voted for Mr. Breckinridge on a platform that was denounced at the Charleston Convention as a swindle, and according to the principles he is now advocating, he is responsible for the war of the secession; but let that be with him and his party.

AN UNANSWERABLE ARGUMENT.—In the speech recently delivered at Macon, Georgia by the Hon. Benjamin Hill, of that State, we find an unanswerable argument in behalf of the soundness of Mr. Bell as the question of Southern rights, and in proof of the duty of all patriotic and intelligent Southerners to support his election.

My first proposition, and which I shall establish without a doubt, is that John Bell is as good as the platform on which Mr. Breckinridge is nominated.

1. That Congress has no power to abolish slavery in the Territories.

2. That the Territorial Legislature has no such power.

3. That, on the contrary, it is the duty of the Government to protect property (slavery understood) wherever necessary.

These are three sound propositions, and cover the whole ground of power and duty.

From the Ironhill Express.

A called meeting of the Stockholders of the A. T. & O. Rail Road Company convened in the town of Statesville on the 23rd of August, when, on motion of Gen. John A. Young, the meeting was organized by calling John Young, Esq., to the Chair, and appointing R. F. Simonton and M. L. Watson, Secretaries; who were also appointed a Committee to ascertain the number of Shares represented, and reported one hundred and seventy-one thousand nine hundred and fifty dollars represented in person and proxy.

The meeting was addressed by Gen. A. E. Jackson, of Tennessee, President of the Road; Gen. J. A. Young; Col. A. Mitchell; L. Q. Sharpe, Esq., and others.

There was a considerable amount of business transacted; and the Delegation from Alexander county were assured, that as soon as the necessary amount of money could be produced, the Road would be located to Taylorville.

After a very satisfactory and harmonious session, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

THE NEW YORK MOVEMENTS. The Black Republican Press, speakers and party are very bitter in their comments on the action of the National Democratic and National Union men in New York.

THE WESTERN DEMOCRAT OF JUNE 5.—What was its language? "Here it is:—Mr. Bell is a Disunionist and has heretofore opposed secession—but we suppose he is willing to go into the Richmond convention if there is any chance to dissolve the Union."

THE ONLY PLATFORM WHICH THEY STAND UPON, is the Constitution of the United States, which is the only platform that the Charleston Baltimore Convention ought to adopt.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

WHAT THE WHIGS OF THE NORTH INTEND TO DO.

The New York Express thus lays down the programme of the Northern Whigs and Americans, in the Presidential campaign.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

THE WHIGS OF THE STATE and the Americans shrank out their line of policy at Union, and above or temptation is not likely to drive them from following it out.

Highly Important from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, August 27.—The news from Mexico is highly important. The greatest excitement prevails at Vera Cruz, both among the people and the authorities.

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."

THE SPANISH FUSION, says of the record made there and of the candidates named:—"Bell and Everett—good names, both of them. Men known to the whole country for many years of service in high position—statesmen whose records stamp them as national patriots in public affairs, and with private characters without spot or blemish."