do you not think your time better spent taking care of your own family than passing an article against me, who care little for either? It was not for the purpose of interfering with "Harmony" simply to state a few facts, which the Editor himself has taken no exception to why "Harmony" has seen fit to print them. (1) is a plain man, and "speaks the row," I am unable to understand, as done, Mr. Editor. "Harmony" may be the game all his own way so far as concerned, and will only add to the confusion. "See we part, I don't would please to see Douglas and Johnson have not the good chance."

FOR THE N. C. WHIG. WESTERN DEMOCRAT AND THE UNION FLAG. The Editor wants the Opposites to rectify a false report about the flag square. Poor fellow, why don't you put a United States Flag in place of the one script now erected? For the benefit of the Western Democrat, we will tell him that the flag consists of 13 stripes with stars on a blue ground, one third of the length of the flag. The Disunion flag consists of 13 bloody red stars on a white ground. If it is not a Disunion flag, tell us what it is. There is one thing to be said, it is not a National flag, nor has Breckinridge party created any flag in the face of the country, every one is entitled to this. The 13 stripes, we suppose, indicate the number of States the disunionists expect to build their hopes of greatness on Maryland and Delaware being too far to be of service. The 6 stripes are to indicate the trail or original receiving States who are now supposed to be under the control of Yancey & Co., and when the other seven are to be delivered to the hands of Yancey's programme.
