Poetry.

I Know Not Why I Love Thee.

PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.

I know not why I love thee,
Thou dost not care for me;
But while I love I will wander,
Forever look for Thee.

A magic spell is round thee,
My spirit to enthrall;
I struggle to forget thee—
To free my heart again.

Perchance thou ne'er didst love me,
But are my spirit wing,
'Twill linger round thy pathway,
A fond but fruitless thing.

I know thou art another's,
And never can be mine;
But while I am loved, will rove, love,
Forever true to thine.

And in some future world, love,
In heaven's delightful clime—
Amid seraphic millions,
My spirit will seek Thine.

Miscellaneous.

Rough Beginning of the Honey Moon.

On last Friday morning an athletic young farmer, in the town of Waynesborg, took a fair girl "all bathed in blushes" from her parents, and started for the first town across the Pennsylvania line to be married, where the ceremony would be performed without a license. The happy pair were accompanied by a sister of the girl, a tall, gaunt, sharp featured female of some thirty seven summers. The pair crossed the line, were married, and returned to Wellsville to pass the night. People at the hotel where the wedding party stopped, observed that they conducted themselves in a rather singular manner. The husband would take his sister in law, the tall female aforesaid, into one corner of the parlor, and talk earnestly to her; gesticulating wildly the while. Then the tall female would "put her foot down" and talk to him in an angry and excited manner. Then the husband would take his fair young bride into a corner, but he could no sooner, commence talking to her, than the gaunt sister would rush between them and join angrily in the conversation. The people at the hotel ascertained what this meant by about 9 o'clock that evening. There was and uproar in the room which had been assigned to the newly-married couple. Female shrieks and masculine "swears" startled the people at the hotel, and they hurried to the spot. The gaunt female was pressing and kicking against the door of the room, and the newly married man, mostly undressed, was forcing her out with all his might. Unreasonably she would kick the door far enough open to display the stalwart husband in his gentleman Greek slave apparel.

It appeared that the tall female insisted upon occupying the same room with the newly wedded pair; that her sister was favorably disposed to the arrangement, the husband had agreed to it before the wedding took place, and was indignantly repudiating the contract.

"Won't you go away, now, Susan, peaceful?" said the newly married man, softening his voice.

"No," said she, "I won't—to there."

"Don't you budge an inch!" cried the married sister within the room.

"Now, now, Maria," said the young man to his wife, in a piteous tone; "don't go to cuttin' up in this way; you don't."

"I'll cut up's much's I wanter!" she sharply replied.

"Well," roared the desperate man, throwing the door wide open, making among the crowd, "well just you two wimmin put on your duds and go straight home, and bring back the old man and woman, and your grandfather, who is nigh to a hundred; bring 'em all here; and I'll marry the whole d—ed cohoodle of 'em, and we'll all sleep together!"

The difficulty was finally adjusted by the tall female taking a room alone. Wellsville is enjoying itself over the sensation.—Cleveland Herald.

NOT THAT KIND OF A CAT.—A gentleman doing business on Main street, was presented with a beautiful kitten. Yesterday a couple of young ladies, one of them named Julia, happened in the store, and of course kitty, as kittens and babies always do, came in for an immense quantity of endearments and caresses.

"Oh my! what a sweet, darling little kitty! What is its name?"

"It has not been christened yet."

"Oh, the dear little thing. Do call it Julia, won't you?"

"I should be very happy to do so," said our gallant friend—"but it died last night of a cat."

Kitty was deposited on the floor in a twinkling, and a couple of young ladies were seen looking around for a good place to faint.

LOVE.

How beautiful is love in its hours of purity! How its sweet smile soothes and charms our darkest hours of adversity!—How it thrills the heart and warms the warm blood in rushing along its arteries, with emotions too deep for utterance, unless said in indescribable!

Love! sweet love! Thy power is indisputable! Thou hast conquered the most stubborn hearts, and caused stranded and wayward hearts to kneel and sue for thy coveted favor.

☞ A handsome young fellow in New York, in great distress for want of money married last week a rich old woman of seventy. He was no doubt miserable for want of money, and she for the want of a husband; and "misery makes strange bed fellows."

Gonorrhœa & all Diseases of the Urinary Organs.

SCHUYLER LAKE, Essex Co., N. Y., February 5, 1859.

W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir:

Having used your Hair Coloring to restorative, and being most pleased with its effects, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the use of a very few bottles of same, which cost me $2 per bottle, my half countenance of brown grey, has so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very much over sixty years. Since I used it my hair has retained its natural color, and I have received a very handsome present by you. I consider it according to advertisement, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots was entirely restored to its original color. It is continuing to grow until it is now nearly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color.

MYLES GLAMAN.

JOEL F. POTTER, Justice of the Peace.

FITCHBURG, VT., Aug. 1, 1857.

I hereby certify, that my hair having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Restorative, prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y., for some weeks, and my hair was in due time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be as it claims.

W. M. KINGSLEY,

Pastor of the Baptist Church, Fitchburg, Vt.

Mr. W. E. HAGAN: I have been Secretary of this Benevolent for three years, and I am happy to be a good testimonial from. It has only restored the head of my hair, giving it new life and strength, but it gives myself new life as a most delightful sensation on the scalp. Words nothing can express it exactly. I fully believe it to be the best article in use.

Yours Respectfully,
KNOWLTON HOWLAND.

The above are but a few of the many letters of recommendation which have been received in the possession of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring in Rochester. It now needs no testimonials of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth to the hair. This singular effect is not produced as when it is used, for it acts upon the natural constitution of a shining color to the roots, and then effects the change. The color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not stain the skin.

Price 50c and $1 00 per bottle. Sold every where.

CHARLOTTE HOTEL,

BY

D. McDONAGH,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE Proprietor of this Hotel is still at his post ready to fulfil the duties of "mine host" to the travelling public and others who may call on him, and he flatters himself that no comfortable quarters can be found with him or any where in this vicinity. Being situated nearly in the centre of Charlotte, Business Men will find this Hotel a most convenient and desirable location. He has been engaged in the business of this place nearly eighteen years, and in that time he has made several additions to his former house, so it has been greatly enlarged and improved, presenting in front a two story VERANDA 100 feet in length by 12 feet in width, handsomely shaded by trees on the side-walk, affording a pleasant promenade at all hours of the day.

The House has been thoroughly furnished throughout, and in every part of it creature comforts are abundant and tangible, especially in the DINING ROOM, where the "inner man" is "renewed" day by day.

Connected with this Hotel are Stables affording room for 100 horses, abundantly furnished with grain and provender, attendants by faithful and obliging hostlers.

The Proprietor feels confident that with his long experience and many new advantages now in his power to please, he is prepared to offer his friends and the "rest of mankind," as many comforts and as much good cheer as will be found anywhere, perhaps a little more so.

MOTHERS

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of

Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial, and why? because it never fails to effect instantaneous relief when given in time. Trifle not with magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true.

It contains

NO PARECORIC OR OPIATE

of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by producing it stupefaction. For that reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY GRIPING in the BOWELS, ACIDITY of the STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP, also, for soothing the gums, reducing inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being as safe to administer to a babe with nursing, as to all cases of CONVULSIONS OR OTHER FITS. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which all other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant. Price, 25 cents. Full direction accompany each bottle.—Prepared and is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from it, no fluid or solid but what it must taint and corrupt. The scrofulous taint is variously developed by an unusual disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be the origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the end of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

Its effects commence by depositions from the blood of corrupt or alterative matter, which, in the form of tubercles, in the glands, swellings, and on the surface, eruptions or sores. The disease overpowers, which produce in the blood, deposites the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have no power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently we find numerous people by the streets who, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumptions which destroy one-fifth of our race, and many of the diseases of the liver, kidneys, heart, and other organs, arise from or are promoted by the same cause.

The portion of all our population scrofulous or tainted by this hereditary poison, is variously estimated; but probably one-half of the whole race is undermined by it. Some think it is the curse entailed upon the descendants of Ham for his impiety to his father Noah. Many are long perplexed in their search after the cause of their ailments and ill health, not suspecting that it is in the blood, and that it is part of their very existence. Others, &c.,

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly getting reputation in this country. I have one testimonial to my personal knowledge, and give you leave to publish the same, and give you all the testimonials I can get.

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my buggy against a stump and the reins, that when my head struck a stump I fell to the ground, and the wheels of the buggy passed over my head, and my head was badly injured. I was insensible for a long time, and when I came to myself I found myself in the house. From the time I received the injury, I began to lose my hair, and in a few months I was entirely bald. I tried many remedies for the purpose of restoring the hair, but all failed. I then commenced using your Restorative, and in a few days I found that my hair was coming out, and in a few months I had a fine head of hair, and it has remained so ever since. I have recommended it to many persons, and it has never failed to restore the hair to its natural color. I am now using
