Editorial notice regarding subscription rates and contact information for the North Carolina Edig.

THE POLITICAL SAY.

Just now, there seems to be a dead calm in the martial elements of the country. But to our prognostic Kan. it is that fearful sort of a calm, which in the natural elements, usually precedes and foretells the bursting of a mighty storm.

The present status of the South.

It is a gratifying spectacle to behold the patriot unanimity, which now characterizes the action of the people of the slave States in relation to the issues of the pending crisis. They are far more united in their determination to resist the aggressive policy of the Federal Government, than were the colonies during the Revolution.

THEIR ENDS AND AIMS.

There are several reasons why the Northern people persist in waging the present unnatural, fratricidal war against us. In the first place they know that their manufactures cannot live and flourish without the protection of a high tariff which they equally aware that our people do not need such a governmental support.

SALUDA (S. C.) GUARDS.

The above named company of South Carolina Volunteers, from Saluda District, Lexington District, will leave Columbia on Tuesday (10 day) afternoon by an extra train, at 4 p. m. and arrive at this place about nine o'clock.

REMEMBER, MISS, WITH COURAGE.

I remember, Miss, with courage of the next profound gratitude, the flag, which on the summit of these towers of Columbia, you have now presented to us. Never can we be sufficiently grateful for this mark of your esteem and devoted patriotism.

FLAG PRESENTATIONS.

On Wednesday afternoon last the Charlotte Greys was presented with a very handsome banner, by Miss Hattie N. Howell on behalf of the ladies of Charlotte, in a very appropriate manner.

Miss: Your prompt response to the call of your country, challenges our admiration; and we present you with this testimonial of our appreciation of yourself and your gallant corps. We desire that you will bear it with you to remind you, that you are entrusted, not only the honor of North Carolina, but the hopes of those for whom our Creator has constituted you the protectors.

THE BURNING OF THE GOSPORT NAVY YARD.

The Petersburg Express has the following favorable account of the condition of things at the Gosport Navy Yard after the fire:

It gives us much pleasure to say that the damage to the Navy Yard is much less than was at first anticipated. The large brick building which occupies the front of the yard, and is used as a sail loft, riggers and gunner's shop, was fired, and all the wood work destroyed, but the walls are standing and the roof is unharmed.

WAR MOVEMENTS IN LOUISIANA.

Accounts from the upper parishes say that the military spirit is increasing. Volunteer companies are forming rapidly, and banners are offering money freely.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

A rumor from an authentic source has reached Havana to the effect that the Mexicans are getting up another general warfare against the citizens on the Rio Grande above Brownsville.

RAILROAD CONVENTION.

At the Convention of Rail Road Presidents, to-day, it was resolved to carry troops at two cents a mile, and to carry provisions and munitions of war at one-half the local rates.

WAR ITEMS, &c.

It is reported that General Harney has been captured at Harper's Ferry and sent to Richmond.

A SOUTHERN CAPITAL INVADED.

The Maryland Legislature was expected to meet this day at Frederick—the capital, Annapolis, being in possession of Lincoln's janissaries.

The Gallant South Carolina Soldiers.

Several hundred of the South Carolina soldiers passed through this place last night en route to the "Old Dominion."

VIRGINIA IS WITH US.

The next day received of the receipt of Virginia's 10th with peculiar emotion. The bells are ringing and cannon booming, but there are but expressions of joy.

SURPRISE.

On the 17th instant, a German by the name of John Dumber, who has been residing in Salisbury for some three or four months, and boarding with Mr. Bus, was found in his room lying on his back, with a pair of tongs in one hand and a single barrel pistol lying on the floor by his side.

NEWS.

MEETING OF CONGRESS.

CHICAGO, April 20.

It is now a settled fact that the extra session of Congress, which is to convene on the 4th of July next, will be held in this city. Suitable arrangements have been made for the session by a private Secretary, dispatched by the President to this city with full authority to act.

DETAILS OF THE CONFLICT BETWEEN THE BATTIMOREANS AND MASSACHUSETTS REGIMENT ON FRIDAY LAST.

Yesterday morning the excitement which had been gradually rising in this city for some days with reference to the passage of Northern volunteer troops southward, reached its climax upon the arrival of the Massachusetts and other volunteers, some from Philadelphia, at President street depot, at 10 1/2 o'clock. A large crowd assembled, evidently to give them an unwelcome reception.

THE TROOPS REACH GARDEN RAILROAD STATION.

As early as 9 o'clock throngs collected about the Camden Station, in anticipation of the arrival of the troops from the President street depot. The throngs gradually augmented until about 10 1/2 o'clock, when a large body of police appeared, and the mass took to the streets.

rank from every direction, the negroes who were about the wharf, in many instances joining in the assault. At Gay street the soldiers fired a number of shots, though without hitting any one, so far as could be ascertained. After firing this volley the soldiers again broke into a run, but another shower of stones being hurled into the ranks at Commerce street with such force as to knock several of them down, the order was given to another portion of them to halt and fire, which had to be repeated before they could be brought to a halt. They then wheeled and fired some twenty shots, but from their stooping and dodging to avoid the stones, but four or five shots took effect, the marks of a greater portion of their balls being visible on the walls of the adjacent warehouses, even up to the second stories. Here four citizens fell, two of whom died in a few moments, and the other two were carried off, supposed to be mortally wounded.

As one of the soldiers fired he was struck with a stone and knocked down, and as he attempted to rise another stone struck him in the face, when he crawled into a store, and prostrating himself on the floor, clasped his hands and begged piteously for his life, saying that he was threatened with instant death by his officers if he refused to accompany them. He said one-half of them had been forced to come in the same manner, and he hoped all who forced others to come might be killed before they got through the city. He pleaded so hard that no further vengeance was bestowed upon him and he was taken to the police station to have his wounds dressed. As soon as they had fired at this point, again wheeled and started off in a full run, when some three or four parties issued from the warehouses there and fired into them, which brought down 3 more soldiers, one of whom was carried into the same store with the one alluded to, and died in a few moments. The others succeeded in regaining their feet, and proceeded on with their comrades, the whole running as fast as they could, and a running fire was up by the soldiers from this point to the depot, the crowd continuing to hurl stones into the ranks throughout the whole line of march.

ed down a soldier with his fist, and hurled off their muskets as trophies of their exploit. One of those in the station house said he had no enemy against the South, and that only because his company was ordered otherwise he would have been killed as a coward and recreant. Others in the ranks were actuated by the same motives. A body of 105 of the volunteers from the North was taken in charge by the police of the eastern district and sent back to the military train in its run to Washington was stopped at the Jackson bridge, by the removal of several rails. They were then ordered to dismount, and the rails were replaced, and the protection of the troops from the bridge and woods along the route, but the range was too long for effect.

PROFESSOR LOWE. URBAN C. H. April 21, 1861.

Quite an excitement was created in this town this morning upon the announcement of an unusual and precipitate appearance of a stranger last night, at 9 o'clock. The manner in which the citizens of "Fox Ridge, Union District, S. C., welcomed him, was quite ludicrous. The stranger was a man of about 40 years of age, with a high forehead, and a full beard, and a pair of eyes which were as blue as steel.
