A fg for your upper ten girls. With their velocits, sature and laces, Their dismonts and rubes and pravil. And their milliner figure and forms: They may share at a party or ball, Emblicament with half they present at gree one in bless of them all, My girl with the callen drives

She is plump as a pitridge, and fair As the rose is its earliest bloom. Her teeth will with itory compare, And her breath with the clover perfume. Her stop is as free and is light, At the face's whom the hunters hard press. And her eye is as soft and as tright, My girl with the calico dress,

Your dansites and foolings may succe, At her simple and modest store, But the charms she permits to appear, Would set a whole melong on size! She can date, but she never allows The hugging, for squeeze and mirrow. She is avoing all these for her spouse, My gori with the callen dress

She is chuerful, warm-hearted and true And kind to her father and mothur, e studies how much she can du For her swret little sisters and brother.
