. We have the satisfaction to announce mey and others. the actival, in this city, of a distinguished stranger from the sunsy clime of France, six land of LaFayette, and associated with miny thrilling memories of ou first revoluon and of our first war of independence Typite came, to draw his sword in behalf of a brave and generous people, who have taken up arms to resist the attempts of a tyrant and a despot to subjugate and endays them.

Prince Poligone served with much gallentry in the Ceimes, and is unquestionsby well acquainted with the organization and discipline of the French army.

"We understand that President Davis reived the Heines yesterday at his office, a the War Department, with that urbanity and cordiality for which he is so justly dis-

THE WORK YOR THE NORTHERN CONcause -- The Northern press is now turning to attention to the work of the extra ses mon of Congress. The following is the plan of one of them :

The first thing Congress must do is to the name of ALEXANDER & McDOU.

The first thing Congress must do is to the name of ALEXANDER & McDOU.

The first thing Congress must do is to the name of ALEXANDER & McDOU.

The first thing Congress must do is to the name of ALEXANDER & McDOU. pass an indemnity till in favor of the Presdent to protect him against the legal conacquences of those unconstitutional acts which necessity has compelled him to adopt for the preservation of the Government .-In the pext place Congress ought to provide for the expenses of the war. To do this effectually instead of borrowing from merchants, it mught to establish a National Bank, with a capital of one hundred and fifty millions, whence the Government would be enabled to obtain a loan of fifty millions immediately upon the security of the deposits and the incoming revenue. The next ains to be attended to is the increase of the Navy and the efficiency of the war Do partment. Lastly, a general bankrupt law must be passed to relieve merchants from their liabilities, and to enable them to commonco a new career under brighter auspi-

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes that the tariff will be reduced on some articles, and the free list suspended; ten and coffee taxed to the amount of twelve millions, and the dusy an sugar increased. Direct taxes will not be resorted to now, but will be as required Nobody estimates the expenses of the war at less than three hundred millions a year Sathing will probably be proposed in Congress with a view to peace, and President Davis has said in his letter to the Maryland committee, that though desirous of peace, le cannot renew an offer of negotiation .-The revenue at New York for a whole week amounted only to $100,000.

BILLY WILSON'S THINKS -This exemtary regiment of Zouaves sailed from New fork on Saturday by the steamers Vanderilt. Their destination has not been postvely stated, though it was supposed to be Fortress Monroe. For two or three days previous, the police were busy in looking up he stragglers, who were generally found essily drank and brought in our drays .-Just as the heat was leaving a free fight took Piace, and one thief, who had the delirium temens, tried to drown himself.
