THE BRIDGE BURNERS—THE FEDERAL LOSS AT PORT ROYAL—

PORT ROYAL, Nov. 12.—The Savannah Republic of this morning, states that it has been informed by a gentleman from the South that the bridges over Chesapeake Creek were burnt by discharged soldiers.

CRISIS OF THE ENGLISH PRESS ON AMERICAN AFFAIRS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—News received from Europe, by the last steamer, shows that the London Convention is holding sessions in Paris.

THE SLEEPING GARRIE CONTINUES TO DEBACLE THE COURSES OF THE HOUSE, AND

THE BLOW WEED AND ARCHBISHOP HUGHES GOING TO EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Blow Weed and Archbishop Hughes are about starting for Europe.

SALT.—In the Petersburg Express of the 14th we find the following advertisement, which we copy for the public benefit.

TO PERSONS WISHING SALT.—Any person or association of persons, wanting SALT, not for speculation, are informed that the South Side Company has made an arrangement with the Virginia and Tennessee Company.

H. D. BIRD, Supr. The salt costs, we believe, 50 cents per bushel of 50 lbs. at the Salt Works.

By all means let a train load be secured for this purpose, with a certified agreement that it is "not for speculation."

BAD FOR THE SPECULATORS.—The Legislature of Alabama has passed a law to prevent the sale of salt in that State by speculators, at exorbitant rates.

TIT FOR TAT.—

We learn from the Newbern Herald that General Holt has preferred charges against Col. Singletary growing out of his late expedition.

EFFORTS OF CONFEDERATE AGENTS TO OBTAIN FAVORABLE INTERFERENCE IN AMERICAN AFFAIRS.—

LETTER received at New York by the last mail from Europe, from the New York Herald contains the fact that strenuous efforts are being made through the Chamber of Commerce and other organs.

READY FOR THE FUR.—

The editors of the Southern Intelligencer in the issue for last week, say that there is some expectation that the Yankee fleet will land at Charleston.

THE MOBILE PAPERS REPRESENT THE WORK OF DEFENSE SOUTH OF THAT CITY AS GOING BRAVELY ON.

Labor in abundance has been furnished, and they are executing as rapidly as engineers lay out the work for them.

WHAT NORTH CAROLINA IS DOING.—Perhaps it never will be written, what North Carolina or any other Confederate State is doing for the war.

The Richmond Examiner alluding to the recent contribution of $264 from the people of that patriotic town, Fayetteville, by Mr. W. C. Troy, for the benefit of the first Maryland regiment, says:

The gallant State of North Carolina is demonstrating a spirit and generosity of patriotism in the existing war that but rarely to give her a position in its history second in deeds to none of her sisters.

HIGH PRICES FOR NEGROES.—We learn that at a sale of slaves made near Eagle Rock, in this County, by John C. Moore, auctioneer, the following prices were obtained:

- George, 21 years old, $1,245
Jim, 18 years old, 755
Lase, 15 years old, 755
Catherine, 11 years old, 615
Woman B, 14 years old, with 2 children, 2 and 4 years old, 1,455

SALE DAY.—The attendance was good—but the only property sold were the negro belonging to the estate of the late John Weber, whose names and ages are annexed:

- Hy, Joke, aged 45, $1,900 00
Mey, 35, and child 2 years, 950 00
S. ph, aged 14, for 1,100 00
Hannah, aged 12, 850 00
Mavis, aged 9, 725 00
J. K., aged 7, 545 00
Ann, aged 5, 401 00

SCOTT'S LAST AND BEST.—

Scott was not altogether devoid of wit, and he said to have frequently indulged in sarcasms when Douglas Jerrold would not have dreamed of doing so.

GOVERNOR BROWN, OF GEORGIA, IN HIS LATE MESSAGE, SAYS THAT GEORGIA HAS NO regiments in the field—recommends the issue of Treasury notes by the State, and an advance to cotton planters of two thirds of the value of their crop.

FROM THE ST. LOUIS, EVENING NEWS WE LEARN THAT AN ORDER WAS ISSUED BY the arrest of Rev. E. R. McAuley, editor of the St. Louis Christian Advocate, the well known weekly publication of the M. E. Church, South, in this city.

TWO YANKEE PRISONERS, A CAPTAIN OF

Ohio Volunteers and a Lieutenant in U. S. Engineers, escaped from the tobacco warehouse in Richmond on Saturday night last, but were recaptured and brought back.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.—

It is mentioned as a fact worthy of note, that every male descendant of the author of this song, (the "Star Spangled") liable to military duty, is now in the Confederate Army.

THE AUSTIN (TEXAS) INTELLIGENCER, SPEAKING OF THE HARVESTING OF THE CORN CROP in that section, says the average yield is about thirty bushels per acre.

THE DABLER.—BROTHER JOSEPH DABLER.—The inventor, Com. Dabler, commands the navy yard at Washington, and is making strong efforts to fit out a great naval expedition which, it is very likely, will first engage on Ship Island and the adjacent Mississippi coast.

There was a rumor current in the city on Thursday that the public documents were being removed from Washington to Philadelphia.

REMOVING THE PUBLIC ARCHIVES FROM WASHINGTON.

It is thought that the Archives will be taken to Philadelphia. The Archives, it seems, will be taken to Philadelphia.

PAID UP.—

Mrs. E. J. Bount of Pitt county has sent 49 pairs of socks with her own money and sent forward to the soldiers, mostly to Virginia.

ACTORS AND HIS DOGS.—

The ultra abolitionists of the "Union" are seriously displeased by Lincoln's remonstrance against Fremont's proclamation, and are denouncing the former as "the slavehound of Illinois."

A NEGRO PREACHER HAS REACHED ENGLAND WITH A QUANTITY OF FRIENDSHIP FROM

Secretary Seward, and the English papers comment on it as overruling the Dred Scott decision.

THE FACT THAT THE SOUTH CANNOT BE ATTACKED WITHOUT BREAKING THE VERY COMPACT BY WHICH THE ATTACK IS JUSTIFIED IS A STRONG REASON FOR LETTING IT ALONE.

THE YANKEE SCALPERS IS THE NAME OF A COMPANY OF CHEROKEE INDIANS ENLISTED IN THE CONFEDERATE SERVICE.

VALERIE ARRIVAL.—

We have reliable information that an overland route from Keyport, with a full cargo of varieties suited to the public demand.

IT IS SAID THAT THERE ARE SEVERAL OTHER FACTORIES UNDER CONSTRUCTION AT NEW ORLEANS.
