

A BASKET OF CHIPS.

Some very pious young ladies in Syracuse have established an association which they style 'The Young Women's Anti-Young Men Warnings at the Church Doors with Utmost Dignity Society.'

We know of some other places besides Syracuse where such a society is needed.

"Why don't you get married?" said a young lady, the other day, to a bachelor friend. "I have been trying for the last ten years to find some one who would be silly enough to love me," was the reply. "I guess you haven't been up the way," was the insinuating rejoinder.

A rush to the head.—The ladies of New York cannot expect to entirely succeed with their latest fashion. It is painful evidence that the new bonnet are too much for them.

A Yankee who recently returned from Newfound-land says that the fog is so thick there that he used to drive a nail in to hang his hat on.

A merchant in Burlington having sunk his ship for a couple of feet, announces that "in consequence of recent improvements, goods will be sold considerably lower than formerly."

Bold outrages are to be feared at the first heat; when they have taken time, they subside of themselves, and as the factions grow stale, they utterly fail.

"I am afraid, dear wife, that while I am gone, absence will outshine love." "Never fear, dear, the longer you stay away the better I shall like you."

A popular writer says that a woman "should be won by degrees." Certainly—win first her ears and eyes, then her lips, and then her hands.

"I wonder, Lury, how it feels to kiss one of these horrid creatures, with a mousetail?" "I don't know, but I'm going to get the hairbrush and try it."

A young man, in conversation one evening, chanced to remark—"I am so prophetic." "True," replied a lady present "so prophetic to yourself or any one else."

Gentlemen who smoke, allege that it makes them calm and complacent. They tell us that the more they smoke the less they fret.

A Chance for the Insuperable.—How glad the M. C.'s must be that the House is organized and their voices have market value at last.

The Italian sisterhood justly complain that "in men, every mortal sin is venial; in woman, every venial sin is mortal."

"Where shall I get a pistol?" said the sheriff to a judge. "Why, I suppose, sir that you can get enough pistols out of doors."

A Question for Tailors.—How is it that the Luxurious bachelors have to be renewed so often?

An Arkansas paper says that many of the girls in the State grow six feet high.—They must be uncommonly well cultivated.

The parent joy that no man experiences in one he loves, is to see that person a source of happiness to others.

If you ever promise at all, take care, at least, that it be no nobody may suffer by trusting to you.

Is it not better that your friend tell you your faults privately, than that your enemy talk of them publicly?

As the members of the body make one person so before God all good men make one community.

The fact is, J. W. since you have taken to drinking you are only half a man. "O, I suppose you mean I'm a drunk John."

Why is a cabinet maker like a crochery dealer? Because one sells ten sets and the other a piece.

Way is a lady's veil like a telescope? (Answer.) Because through both are seen glimpses of heavenly orbs!

Tripping precautions will often prevent great mischiefs, as a pair of the worst parties a mortal throat.

Not to fear our Police Magistrates.—Fire by degrees.

Industry and Economy are the true guides to wealth.

A Prophecy for James Buchanan.—March Fourth.

Why should you sit as lightly on your shoulders as flowers on plains?

GENERAL BARTON.—The nation produced over by an old book.

Indemnity for the past—pay up, Security for the future—pay down.

Reputation abroad, and reverence at home are pillars of safety and sovereignty.

The love and hate of the people are equally dangerous.

Father of the Cornish—Pop Corn.

The Aggregate of Humanity—Home run.
