

The office of the Democrat is up stairs in building next to Bank of Clinton.

JANUARY 18, 1921.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

See Hurwitz's new ad. Measles have been epidemic in Clinton.

Mr. Jno. A. Stevens was up from Wilmington Sunday. See the new advertisement of Mr. O. J. Powell's big bargains.

Mrs. Foushee, of Greensboro, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. J. Powell. Mrs. Virginia Bradshaw is visiting her son Mr. L. W. Bradshaw, of Clinton Route 2.

Mr. Yom Herring, of Wilmington, spent the week-end with his brothers, Messrs. O. F. and A. R. Herring. Mr. Frank Boyette, of Fayetteville, attended the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Mattie J. Fryar, Saturday.

Mr. J. R. Baggett, of Spencer, N. C., and Miss Sallie Hall, of Orange, this county, were married one day last week.

Mr. E. B. Boykin, of Halifax, came down to attend the funeral of his niece, Little Mary Evelyn Robinson, Saturday.

Mrs. D. L. Herring, who has been quite sick for the last two or three weeks, we are glad to report, is convalescing.

Mr. Eddie Naylor and Miss Roxie Spell, of Dismal town, hied away to South Carolina ten days ago and returned man and wife.

Mr. D. M. Tew, of Route 1, gave the Democrat a call and ran up his subscription. Call again Mr. Tew, we are always glad to see you.

Mr. J. B. Kirby returned last Thursday from a week's visit to Tampa and other points in Florida. Mr. Kirby lived several years in that state.

Mr. Robert N. Butler, of Salem, visited his son, Mr. J. R. Butler, Sunday, and participated in the Sunday school service at the Baptist church.

Little Mary Evelyn Robinson was buried at the home graveyard in Lisbon township instead of in the Clinton cemetery as stated in the account of her death.

Circle No. 3 of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will give an entertainment on Friday evening, Jan. 21, at the home of Mrs. B. S. Peterson.

Mrs. J. M. Best, one of our esteemed subscribers, was in town Saturday, for the first time in several months, taking this occasion to send her date up to next winter.

Rev. S. A. Fann will preach at Plain View church at 2:30 p. m., the fourth Sunday in this month. The members and the public will please take notice and attend.

Mr. Buck Rich, of McDaniels township, killed a hog last week that weighed 720 pounds net. Mr. G. T. Bradshaw, of Hills, had one to weigh 696 net. Whoppers both; but just wait till Messrs. C. R. Beaman and Alvin Royal report their monsters.

At the recent celebration of Mr. Jeremiah Seavey, when his niece, Miss Mary Moore, gave a fine dinner, at which Dr. Hollingsworth, Mr. J. K. Peterson and others were guests, lemonade was made for the occasion from lemons grown on a tree at the Seavey home.

Messrs. James Barbrey, W. C. Thompson, Jim Draughton, Robert Morrissey and Joe Herring, returned Friday evening from a duck hunt at Snead's Ferry, and Mr. Thompson awoke Saturday with a case of measles, though he is just the age when one would expect a fellow to have that disease.

Mr. M. E. Britt, J. P., also receiver for Enoch McLamb, has moved his office from the Mayor's office to the Johnson building, where he will do all the business pertaining to the receivership and the office of justice of the peace. However, all his business as mayor pro tem will be, as formerly, conducted in the mayor's office.

Miss Alice Glynn Owen, a Registered Nurse, who has been doing private nursing in Fayetteville, for the past few months, has recently decided to locate in Clinton, by request of the town physicians and wishes to inform the public she will be on call and at their service any time they chance to need her. She can be located on McKay street, next door to Mrs. London.

Mr. B. B. Powell, of Hills township, came near losing his stables by fire last Thursday morning before day. Only the fact that he was called by Mr. Willie Bradshaw, who was going by early to move a man, saved Mr. Powell from the loss of stables, barn, and all his corn and fodder. It is not known how the fire originated. Mr. Powell was burned out twelve years ago.

It is manifest that Clinton has an efficient night police force in the persons of Messrs. Harvell and Melson, and it goes against the grain for people, without cause, to make such slighting remarks as that the night police were asleep as usual when anything happens. Night work on the police force is not a sinecure, and the unpleasant task should not be made more disagreeable by such thoughtless and stinging remarks, unless they were deserved.

Mr. A. E. McDuffie, a former North Carolinian, but in recent years identified with interests in various parts of the world, has recently moved to our town and is contemplating investment in certain electrical interests here. He was originally from Fayetteville and is the grandson of Dr. McDuffie, so well and favorably known to the men of this day and generation. He studied at Case University, Cleveland, Ohio, and has since made several trips around the world.

We regret to have to report the very serious illness of Mrs. Julian Merritt, who has been critically ill of pneumonia. The baby boy, who first had the dread disease is still sick, while there are four other children, all small, and three of these have the measles. Indeed, here is a case where more than sympathy is due from the community. Both the brothers of Mrs. Merritt, Messrs. Nick and Clarence

LOCALS INTENDED FOR LAST WEEK.

Mr. Vivian Whitfield left Tuesday morning for Cuba where he will be in the Consular Service for the coming year. Mrs. Whitfield will visit her mother a while longer, joining Mr. Whitfield in Havana later.

The youngsters in the High School are "hard at it" this week preparing for mid-term examinations. Here's wishing every one of them "Good luck."

Miss Ruth Hudson is now a member of the Clinton Graded School Faculty. She took charge of the Seventh Grade on the opening of the Spring term last week.

Mr. Crosswell Robinson, of the Roseboro Bar, was in town last Monday. Mr. Moses Hammond, who makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. B. P. Smith, is on the sick list.

Miss Maud Alderman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ross, of Wadesboro. Mrs. Newton Carter, of Wallace, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. R. Powell, for several days. She left Monday afternoon for her home.

Miss Marianna Colwell arrived last week to make her home with her brother, Mr. A. W. Colwell. The Aid Circle of the Presbyterian Auxiliary held an interesting meeting Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Wilbur Jackson. Sickness in several homes kept a number away. The hostesses served enjoyable refreshments.

The regular meeting of the U. D. C. will be with Mrs. Ella Hiatt Friday afternoon of this week. This is an important meeting and the members are urged to attend.

Mr. H. E. Falson left Tuesday morning to attend the Inaugural Ceremonies in Raleigh this week. Mr. Moses Hammond, who has been quite ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. P. Smith, is improving.

Miss Maud Alderman returned Sunday from a pleasant visit to relatives in Wadesboro and Charlotte. Mrs. Futrell, of New York City, and Mr. Hammond, of Ashboro, have been with their father, Mr. Moses Hammond, during his illness.

As was to be expected the sale of Red Cross Seals was not as great this year as last. The Chairman, through the Democrat, wishes to thank the Drug Stores and those merchants who so generously aided in the sale of the Seals.

MR. AND MRS. C. C. ROBINSON BEREAVED. Much sympathy is felt and expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Carey C. Robinson whose little daughter, Mary Evelyn, died last Friday, after two weeks of illness of measles, followed by pneumonia and meningitis.

Little Mary Evelyn was nine years old and a most tractable and industrious character, devoted to her parents and to the other children, one of whom she had most faithfully helped nurse through a siege of illness. The burial was in the Clinton cemetery, Saturday morning.

THE W. U. OFFICE IMPROVED. The W. U. Telegraph office is putting on airs. The new office desk which came some time ago is a handsome piece of furniture, awaiting placing till the office walls and floor had been renovated. Mr. Daughtry, the competent operator, now has more than decent quarters and conveniences for his own comfort and the service of his patrons.

CARD OF THANKS. We desire to thank our every friend and neighbor who so willingly assisted and so graciously comforted us during the sickness and death of our little daughter and sister Mary Evelyn. In all the realm of human experience there is nothing so good as simple human kindness. The memory of your kindness and sympathetic words will ever be fresh in our memories.

MR. AND MRS. C. C. ROBINSON AND CHILDREN. We desire to thank our every friend and neighbor who so willingly assisted and so graciously comforted us during the sickness and death of our little daughter and sister Mary Evelyn. In all the realm of human experience there is nothing so good as simple human kindness. The memory of your kindness and sympathetic words will ever be fresh in our memories.

SERIES OF SERMONS IN ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH. Beginning Sunday morning, January 23rd, Rev. A. R. Parsley will begin a series of sermons in St. Paul's Episcopal church on the general subject: "The History and Value of the Episcopal Church." These sermons will be of controversial in their nature, but are designed to give a careful and accurate account of the Episcopal Church and to correct certain misunderstandings concerning it. There will be four sermons, as follows:

The Episcopal Church, Its History. The Episcopal Church, Its Influence. The Episcopal Church, Its Service to mankind. The Episcopal Church, Its Conservatism.

These sermons will be given Sunday mornings at the eleven o'clock services and visitors will very welcome.

BRIDGE CLUB. (Too late for last issue.) The members of this club were charmingly entertained last Tuesday afternoon in the attractive home of Mrs. H. J. Hubbard.

Four tables played. Besides the members Mrs. Hubbard had as her guests, Mesdames G. W. Flemming, Vivian Whitfield, Herbert Smith and Misses Cyrette Holliday and Rebecca Herring.

At the close of the games the hostess, assisted by Mesdames L. E. Whitfield, A. W. Colwell and R. H. Hubbard, served a most enjoyable salad course with coffee.

The next meeting of the Club will be with Mrs. E. G. Lee, Jan. 25th.

NORTH CAROLINA'S NEW POET. A young genius has risen in Duplin. We refer to Mr. F. L. Alderman, of Rose Hill, whose poetic talent has been recognized by a number of the leading papers and magazines in the country, and this recognition comes in the form of liberal checks for his work. By the courtesy of the young poet, we are giving our readers a sample of his poems, though we do not consider "A Perfect Day" the equal of the poem published last week in the Duplin Record.

Mr. Alderman is only eighteen, the age at which Bryant wrote the immortal "Thanatopsis." His schooling has been limited to a course at Dell High School, though he has taken a course in English by correspondence.

Mr. Alderman is a son of the late Frank Alderman, who was a son of the late Owen Alderman, of Pender county. His father died when the young man was only eighteen months old. His mother is a sister of Messrs. J. T. and L. A. Kennedy, the former recently chairman of the board of commissioners of Sampson county.

It is hardly an exaggeration to say that this youth is manifesting the brightest poetic talent in the state and that, without the handicap of bad eyes, which caused him to discontinue his course in school, he would soon rank with the state's best talent of any period.

The Aldermans have made records as teachers and preachers and it is gratifying to one of the stock, as is this writer, to recognize a budding poet of the name.

A CARD OF THANKS. We want to thank our neighbors and friends for the many kindnesses that they administered unto us during the sore distress we had in our home.

J. H. PACKER AND FAMILY.
