VEGETINE.

Mr. Vandergrift, of the firm of Vandergrift & Hoffman, is a well-known business man in this place, having one of the largest stores in Springfield, O.

OUR MINISTER'S WIFE. Three years ago I was suffering terribly with Inflammatory Rheumatism. Our minister's wife advised me to take VEGETINE. After taking one bottle, I was entirely relieved. This year, feeling a return of the disease, I again commenced taking it, and am being benefited greatly. It also greatly improves my digestion. Respectfully, MRS. A. BALLARD, 1011 West Jefferson Street.

Safe and Sure. Mr. H. R. Stevens. In 1872 your VEGETINE was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasion of a friend, consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and energy. Since then I have not hesitated to give VEGETINE my most unqualified endorsement as being a safe, sure, and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life, and energy. VEGETINE is the only medicine I use, and as long as I live I never expect to find a better. Yours truly, W. H. CLARK, 120 Monterey Street, Alleghany, Penn.

THE FOLLOWING LETTER FROM REV. G. W. MANFIELD, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Hyde Park, and at present settled in Lowell, must convince every one who reads his letter of the wonderful curative qualities of VEGETINE. It is a thorough cleanser and purifier of the blood.

VEGETINE. The following letter from Rev. G. W. Manfield, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Hyde Park, and at present settled in Lowell, must convince every one who reads his letter of the wonderful curative qualities of VEGETINE. It is a thorough cleanser and purifier of the blood.

DEAR SIR:—About ten years ago my health failed through the debilitating effects of dyspepsia; nearly a year later I was attacked by typhoid fever in its worst form. It settled in my back, and took the form of a large deep-seated abscess, which was fifteen months in gathering. I had two surgical operations by the best skill in the State, but received no permanent cure. I suffered great pain at times, and was constantly weakened by a profuse discharge. I saw several small pieces of bone at different times.

By which your remedy is produced. By which I saw and heard I gained some confidence in VEGETINE.

I commenced taking it soon after, but felt worse from its effects; still I persevered and soon felt it was benefiting me in other respects. Yet I did not see the results I desired till I had taken it faithfully for a little more than a year, when the difficulty in the back was cured, and for nine months I have enjoyed the best of health.

I have in that time gained twenty-five pounds of flesh, being heavier than ever before in my life, and I was never more able to perform labor than now.

During the past few weeks I had a scrofulous swelling as large as my fist gather on another part of my body.

I took Vegetine faithfully, and removed it level with the surface in a month. I think I should have been cured of my main trouble sooner if I had taken larger doses, after having become accustomed to its effects.

Let your patrons troubled with scrofula or kidney disease understand that it takes time to cure chronic diseases; and, if they will patiently take VEGETINE, will in a reasonable time cure them.

G. W. MANFIELD, Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

RIZA PASHA, who recently died in Turkey, was a remarkable individual. During the Crimean war he drew the pay of a whole army corps which did not exist, and made $10,000,000 of the enterprise. How the souls of New Yorkers would have rejoiced in the possession of such a man.

Comodoro George N. Hollins, a well known Confederate officer, whose death was announced on Sunday, was a native Baltimorean, and was born in 1799. He served in the war of 1812. He was made a captain in the United States Navy in 1855. He served with distinction in the Confederate Navy. He was a worthy man, and died at an advanced age, honored and respected.—Star.

The latest war news destroys the last vestige of hope for the Turks. While the Grand Duke Nicholas dillydallies with the Turkish peace commissioners at Kezanlik, Radetsky, Gourkoff, and Skobelev, pipes on like a hurricane, for Stamboul, sweeping all before them. Unless an armistice is very promptly concluded, Russian shells will in a short time make music around the towers of Saint Sophia. Neither English nor Austrian mediation is now hoped for.

THE SENATE AND HOUSE EXPENSES. New York Sun. Washington, January 18.—A comparative statement recently made out of the expenses of the Senate and House shows that while the Senate of seventy-six members employs 121 persons at a total expense of $176,907.80, the House, of 292 members, has the services of but 139 persons, at the total expense of $183,645, the average salary in the former case being $1,462.04, and in the latter $1,321; and while it takes $2,327.73 to keep each Senator supplied with legislative attendance, the expense of the members in the House is but $610.

THE SENATE AND HOUSE EXPENSES. Washington, Jan. 17.—Gov. Robinson has granted pardons to Edward Conway, William Burchard Johnson, and one new York, now in Sing Sing prison. The prisoners saved a keeper's life, who had been attacked by a convict.

Identification of John Hussey, Abducted from Dayton, Ohio.—A Baltimore Boy. Special to the Baltimore American. FREDERICK, Md., January 25.—The boy John Hussey, who, some time ago, was captured by Warden Danner, of the Reformatory, who is day, as well as his name as Frank a tramp. The report about is as follows: When he was being dealt out to the prison yesterday, a companion of the tramp Hussey, upset some on a little fellow, which burnt him and led to a fight between the two, resulting in the charging of Hussey with beating this boy from Dayton, Ohio, as well as two others from different places, which he (Hussey) also had with him in jail. Hussey denied the charge, and the little fellows persisted in his (Hussey's) innocence, and claimed to be orphans. The tramp who made the charge then gave Warden Danner the address of the boy's parents as 10 Gordon street, Dayton, Ohio. The warden wrote to the above address yesterday, and received a telegram at 8 o'clock to-night from the boy's father to hold his boy, and that he would start immediately for Frederick. The little fellow was shown the telegram, and finally admitted that his name was John Hussey, and that this telegram was from his father. He said: 'I would not tell at first, because the tramp said he would whip me.' The other two boys were then questioned, and the first admitted that his name was John Ogden, formerly cash-boy in Lord & Taylor's establishment, in New York, and that his father was a merchant-tailor, and resided in Brooklyn. The other said his name was Charles Ogle, of Baltimore, was an orphan, and had two sisters at the Orphan Asylum at the corner of Townsend street and Druid avenue, Baltimore. He corroborated the story of the boy's father, and said that he was a nephew by a detective of Baltimore to Warden Danner some time ago. He was represented to be large for a boy fourteen years of age, and his front teeth lapped. The ages of the other little fellows are about ten, twelve, and fourteen. They are bright looking and very intelligent. Up to this hour no answer has been received from the Brooklyn boy. Hussey's father is reported to be very wealthy.

RECAPTURE OF TILLMAN CRANFORD.—The notorious Tillman Cranford, the Randolph county outlaw, who escaped from the penitentiary a few weeks ago, was recaptured on Sunday morning by Messrs. Lassiter and Ingram of that county.

CRANFORD IS A NOTED desperado, his many acts of violence being hardly eclipsed by those of Henry Berry Lowry, and was a terror to the people of Randolph. He defied the law, as he always claimed that no jail could hold him, having made as many as a dozen escapes since the war from the Randolph jail.

BEFORE his last trial, however, the jail was very closely guarded, and he was brought to the Penitentiary. But he laughed at the idea when he entered the Penitentiary stockade of those poles keeping him, and true enough in a few days he was out and gone. It is to be hoped that the authorities, knowing the character of the man, will exercise that diligence necessary to his confinement. The reward of $300, offered for his recapture, was duly paid on the Governor's certificate Tuesday morning.—Raleigh Observer.

A WIFE CHOKED AND A SISTER SHOT.—Woodville, N. H., Jan. 17.—James G. Jesseman, aged 23 years, who had separated from his wife after being married a year, went to her house in Dorchester, N. H., yesterday afternoon, and knocked her down and choked her. His wife's sister parted them and handed the revolver to her, and she fired twice at Jesseman as he was retreating from the house. The sister took hold of the pistol to prevent further firing, and it accidentally discharged the ball entering her abdomen, making a mortal wound. Jesseman was unhurt.

EX-GOV. BULLOCK FREE.—Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 17.—In the Superior Court today, the last remaining case against ex-Gov. Bullock was dismissed on a plea of autrefois acquit, because of the verdict rendered yesterday. This ends all the prosecutions against him.

GOVERNOR CLARKE. N. Y. World. General Charles Clarke, ex-Governor of Mississippi, died a few days ago at the age of 68. He served in the war of 1861-62. He was sent home invalided as a consumptive by the surgeons. Their verdict Dr. Warren Stone, the highest authority of the Southern faculty, confirmed, one lung having perished completely, and the Lieutenant was advised to go home and lead the quiet life of a planter, avoiding all excitement, whereby he might prolong his life for eighteen months, or perhaps, even for two years. He went home but did not die; indeed, after serving in the Legislature, and several public offices, he was alive to head a rebel brigade at Shiloh. As he took a parting glass with Colonel W. H. McArdle, a veteran Mississippi journalist, he said: 'I think you will have a good chance of publishing that obituary which you promised me thirteen years ago. I have outlived all the doctors, but I am not so confident that I shall escape the Yankee balls and shells which I shall be compelled to face to-day.' After the first day's battle General Clarke was borne to the rear, wrapped in a blanket saturated with blood. 'You can publish that obituary now—he has met with a soldier's death,' was the remark of one of those who bore him, and the obituary was shortly after published in the New Orleans papers. Shortly after the battle of Baton Rouge, General Clarke was seen again at New Orleans. He had been shot through the body at Shiloh, and left on the field, to be taken prisoner, to recover and to be exchanged, and at Baton Rouge a minie ball broke his thigh near the socket. Dr. Stone was the surgeon who now brought round the man he had condemned to a speedy death in 1848, and though his leg was shortened several inches, General Clarke lived to be Governor of Mississippi for the fifteen years later quickly.

FINNISH CRUELTY.—Mr. John Flanagan, a contractor, who owns and lives in the five-story house at 320 West Forty-seventh street, returned home intoxicated last evening. His wife spoke of the disgrace that he had caused, and he picked up a hot smoothing iron, knocked her down, and then drew the iron down her back and across her neck, shoulders, and hands. When he was arrested he did not apparently feel the iron burning the flesh off his hands. Mrs. Flanagan suffered intensely, but refused to say anything against her husband.

HAMMERED TO DEATH.—On Tuesday, the 15th inst, three negroes, aged respectively 11, 9 and 6 years old, were left in a house on Mr. R. E. Hayes's plantation, near Bamberg. Some dispute arose among them and the larger girl, Ida Holman, undertook to regulate Willie Holman with a claw hammer, which she did very effectively, beating his head all to pieces. The verdict of the coroner's jury was in accordance with the above facts.—Raleigh News.

PEACE INSTITUTE.—We are pleased to know that the young lady who has been ill at the Peace Institute is now recovering rapidly, the attack of scarlatina, or whatever it was, being very slight. Mr. Burwell hopes to begin the exercises of the school next week.—Raleigh News.

TERRIBLE FALL.—Martin Doody, a carpenter, of 163 Clinton street, Hoboken, fell from a four story building at Eighth and Bloomsfield streets, Hoboken, Monday afternoon, and sustained internal injuries which it is feared will cause death.—N. Y. Sun.

THE EASTERN WAR. Bucharest, Jan. 22.—The investment of Widdin is complete. Constantinople, Jan. 22.—The Russians have entered Adrianople. Vienna, Jan. 23.—Three hundred thousand dollars are being sent to Constantinople to purchase peace on any terms. A Constantinople dispatch says that the whole district of Barga has been devastated by the Bashi Bozouks and Circassians, who slaughtered the inhabitants and burned the villages. A Russian official dispatch from Tiflis says General Komaroff's detachment from Ardahan stormed Artvin on the 13th inst. The Turks lost heavily and the Russians slightly. Another Russian official dispatch from Kezanlik, January 20th, says: General Strukoff reports from the town of Mustafa Pasha, twenty miles northwest of Adrianople, on the 19th inst, that a panic prevailed at Adrianople. The Turkish government and garrison have withdrawn after exploding the powder magazines and ammunition departments. A fire and civil disturbances had broken out, and the representatives had to come to Mustafa Pasha to entreat General Strukoff to hasten to Adrianople and restore order. This dispatch shows that the Russians were not pressing forward as rapidly as Turkish accounts represent. A Russian official dispatch from Kezanlik, January 19th, says General Gurokoff fought Suleiman Pasha from the 15th to the 18th inst. The Turks were finally driven into the Rhodope Mountains. Their loss was 4,000 killed and 2,000 prisoners. forty-nine guns were also captured.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF THE WHIPPING POST. The press of the State, we are pleased to see, are almost a unit on the re-establishment of the whipping post. The lash is in demand for the punishment of minor offences. What does a thief care for imprisonment? He is fed and cared for by the public. The penitentiary has no terrors. When his time expires he will commit the same offence, without the fear of the law before his eyes. But let the malefactor know that his back shall pay the penalty of his misdeeds with the lash, and that the traditional thirty-nine stripes are to be an outraged community for the wrongs suffered at his hands, and the rights of society will enjoy a security which they have not known since the "higher law" gentlemen of Radical rule tinkered our government to suit their own peculiar notions just after the war. Besides we will see the list of long accounts piled up against tax payers of every county in the State for jail expenses, and tens of thousands of dollars will be annually saved by this mode of punishment given to those overtaken in crime. By all means, let us have the whipping post re-established.—Torch-Light.

HYDROPHOBIA.—Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 21.—Elijah Allen, who was bitten by a dog at Shenandoah December 6, and who several days ago gradually felt the effects, died last night, after suffering terribly. In his last gasp for breath, a noise like the bark of a dog was heard.

POTTSTOWN PA., Jan. 22.—The four year old daughter of J. B. Schaeffer died at Mount Airy of hydrophobia. She was bitten in the early part of December last.

DECIDEDLY CURIOUS.—It is curious and suggestive illustration of the changes brought by time and the coincidences of history that George B. McClellan and Gen. H. Pendleton, once Democrat candidates for President and Vice President, should enter common years of retirement, return to public life together, the one as a Governor and the other as a Senator. McClellan and Pendleton. The names may again be coupled before many more years have passed.

INDIVIDUALS.—A friend informs us of an old lady in Catawba county who keeps her head, hands and mouth all busy. She carries a bushel of corn on her head to mill, the distance being 2 miles, and knia and smokes on the way.—Lincoln Progress.

EX-GOV. HENDRICKS, of Ind., is by advice of his friends, to make a speech at Indianapolis, la., on the 20th of February next, at the meeting of the State Democratic Association to be then held there, in which he is to define his position on the financial questions, taking the ground, it is expected, occupied by Mr. Voorhees, slightly modified.
