The Bing Pass One Seeing
You sat alone—there with your sightless eyes.
Holding your box with strange, mute gesturing;
Like swiftly moving films they passed you by—
These so-called seeing—some with pitying care.
Some lightly tossing down their careless coin.
Others—mole-folk—unseeing you at all.
But further bent aground. And some where were
Whose snug, well-ordered, all-complacent selves
Frowned on the unthrift of your huddled shape!

And as those passed, strangely they seemed the blind—
The dead and dying—musty beggar folk—
And you the sightful! For did not your face
Mirror a thousand deaths and swift rebirths?
Were you not granted of His heavens and his earth
Did you not now see shining fields within—curve
Back on the hills of boytime—there where, still
Deep in your dreams, your comrades wait for you?

Else whence that child-look of a granted bliss—
Of pains and pities melted into peace?
And some—those others—mole-bred, self-bound folk
Who passed you by with blindness in their eyes?
How could they see?—those phantom folk long dead
Or never touched to life—faces that were
Loveless and gray, ashen and unlit all—
Who had not won to love or grief or pain,
Nor gessed your height of quiet suffering.

MACSWINEY'S CONDITION REPORTED VERY BAD

(By The Associated Press)
London, Sept. 21.—Mrs. MacSwiney, who visited her husband this evening evening said that his condition was very bad indeed. He was in great pain and had not spoken all day. He was still conscious, however.
A late bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination league said: "The lord mayor's condition is unchanged. He is still in a very prostrate condition, but conscious."
A bulletin issued at 10 o'clock tonight says: "The doctor, after visiting the lord mayor, said he was in a very weak condition and advised his relatives not to speak to him or give him the slightest exertion."
Miss Annie MacSwiney, the mayor's sister, replying to the statement issued by the home office yesterday, says: "The home office is simply attempting to draw a red herring across the track of the real question at issue. The present protest of the lord mayor is not directed against the kind of degree of treatment meted out to him; the protest is against the act of imprisoning him. It is a declaration before the world that Ireland denies England's right to set up

WHEAT PROFITS DISTRIBUTED TO GROWERS

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 21.—More than $25,000,000 just distributed by the Canadian Wheat Board as excess profits on last year's crop was like finding money to Canadian farmers.
Every farmer whose wheat the board sold is being paid at the rate of 30 cents a bushel on participation certificates, which were issued at the time the wheat was delivered. This represents the surplus over the $2.15 a bushel, which the farmers were paid originally. The entire excess profits were pooled and distributed pro rata. A further distribution on a basis of an additional 10 cents a bushel is announced for sometime in September or October. This final payment will bring the price of last year's wheat up to $2.55 a bushel.
The windfall was an especial cause of jubilation among the new prairie farmers in the areas of heavy settlement on the Canadian national railway's transcontinental line, who are just getting a start in their new homes. The price of $2.55 is the highest the farmer ever received for his wheat in the history of Canada.

"YOM-KIPPER" WILL BE OBSERVED HERE

Jewish Holiday Began Yesterday Evening At Sunset and Ends Today

"Yom Kipper" or "The Day of Atonement," Jewish holiday began at sunset last night and continues until sunset tonight. Services are being held in the local Jewish synagogue for the observance of this day by the Jews of Durham and of the world.
The thought underlying the day is expressed in the scriptural words: "On this day, He will atone for you, to purify you from all your sins." It is a day, therefore, of reconciliation of man with his fellow-man and with God, and is observed as a climax to the holiday season which began Sunday, September 12, with the New Year's day and continued through two 10 days of penitence.
This day is the most solemn of all days in the Jewish calendar. It is observed in fasting and prayer. The whole day is spent in the synagogue. In the evening there is the service which commences with the chanting of the well-known Kol Nidre. The day proper has four services. Of these the Mussaf, or additional service, contains a description of the atonement rites as practiced in the ancient days in the temple at Jerusalem. The Nefilah service is understood to be held at the time when decision is finally made as to man's fate, and thus the Nefilah prayers, instead of having the usual phrase, "Inscribe us in the book of life" use the expression, "Seal us in the book of life."

GRAND JURY EXCUSES SEVERAL WITNESSES

(By The Associated Press)
Chicago, Sept. 21.—Grand Jury investigation of alleged gambling in major league baseball will start tomorrow with several subpoenaed witnesses excused from testifying until next week.
President John A. Heydler, of the National league, today telegraphed that he was in the midst of a private investigation which would keep him busy until next week and asked the jury not to interfere with it. He promised to appear later. Manager William Gleason, of the local American league team, and Oscar Reuchow, a Chicago sports writer, also were excused because they left tonight for Cleveland for the Chicago-Cleveland series. Both promised to appear later.
President Heydler said he would make every attempt to have Jacob (Rube) Benton, who was subpoenaed, appear before the jury but pointed out that Benton's team, the New York Nationals, was in the midst of a pennant fight and that Benton was needed.
The jury plans to investigate last year's world series first, then the Philadelphia-Chicago National league game of August 31, and finally baseball pools and alleged gambling in general.

GERMAN COMPANY CONCEALED PROFITS

Berlin, Sept. 21.—A special commission appointed by the former ministry of war to audit the books of the Daimler Motor Works has issued a report which charges the firm with concealing profits exceeding 50,000,000 marks.
It is stated that the annual balance sheets of the firm during the four years of war production failed to include more than $1,000,000 marks profit, which is more than tenfold the amount of its capital.
The report states that on the eve of Germany's big spring offensive in 1918 the Daimler company which was one of the country's chief suppliers of war materials threatened to shut down its plant unless the ministry of war awarded it a liberal price and increases.
The plant was then placed under military supervision and its director removed from office but, the commission reports, Captain Gross, who was supposed to supervise the military control, was elected into the company's directorate and entrusted with the management of the plant.
Miss Kate Herndon, has returned from a trip to Weaverville.
