WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 -- Constant A physician of Missouri announces that he will not take a female patient hankegiving and gratitude are due from the American people to Al-mighty God for His goodness and mercy, which have followed them unless he can order the costume as well as the medicine, since the day He made them, and ahead in the shops of Paris and Lon-don for all the golden hair that can vouchsafed to them a free government. With loving kindness He has conbe purchased in the next five years. stantly led us in the way of prosperity and greatuess. He has not ler carried a coin on a silver sulver visited with swift punishment our shortcomings, but with gracious care He has warned us of our dependence style.

upon his forbearance and has taught us that obedience to His holy law is the price of a countinuance of His precious gifts. In acknowledgement of all that God has done for us as a na-tion and to the end that on an ap who follows all its movements at a tion and to the end that on an ap respectful distance. pointed day the united prayers and praise of a grateful country may reach the throne of Grace, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the Unit d States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the twenty-ninth day near Red Hill, this county, on yes erday, while digging in the ground un-earthed a copper kettle filled with of November instant, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed throughout the land.

On that day 'et all our people suspend their ordinary work and occupations, and in their accustomed places of worship with prayer and songs of praise, render th uks to God for all his mercies, for the abundant harvests which have rewarded the toil of the husbandman the year that has passed, and that hav followed the labors ot our people in their shops and their markets and traffic. Let us give thanks for peace and for the social or.ler and contentment within our borders, and for our advancement in all that adds to national greatness.

Mindful of the affliction which a portion of our land has been visited, let us, while we humble ourselves before the power of God acknowledge His mercy in setting bounds to the deadly march of the pestilence, and let our hearts be chastened by sympathy with our fellow countrymen, who have suffered and who mourn. And as we return thanks for all the blessings which we have received from the hands of our Heavenly Fathe, let us not forget that He has enjoined upon us charity; and on this day of thanksgivang let us generously remember the poor and needy, so that our tribute of praise and grati tude may be acceptable in the sight
