The Next Presidency.

Lynchburg Advance. It is admitted that the two most prominent Democratic candidates now in view for the preelection, another-and no dark horse, either-has been pranced into the ring by his friends, in Surgical Institute, 151 North Spruce the person of Governor Robert St., Nashville, Tenn. Aug.-27-1y. E. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, the twice-elected Governor of that State. He is by no means a small figure-head in the race, and as the other two prominent candidates are from the same State, and will, of course, have some conflicting interest and influences to combat, it opens a broad field under certain contingencies for Governor Patti- vanish after using Dr. Davids Live Terms moderate son to step in and carry off the Fills. stakes. More curious things have happened in past presidential contests, and most noted among them was that of 1844 in the nomination and election of James K. Polk, and in 1852 in the nomination and election of Franklin Pierce. The darkest horse sometimes wins the prize, but Hill is at present a long way ahead by the bold and glorious fight he has made for sound Democracy for the last eight years without losing a battle.
