One Touch of Nature, The Editor of the Billville (Ga) Banner states his grievance with less elegance, per-haps, than some, but with as much force as any. He labored with the same burden that has fallen on many others, and seems to speak from the bottom of a very full heart. He says: "A paper cannot live where a town council sticks its notices on a china tree and the mer-chants do their advertising on paper sacks. Some of them say

Th Southern Exposition for 1831 will be held in Raleigh, the capital of North Carolina, from the 1st of October until the 1st of December. In this movement all of the fourteen Southern States and New Mexico and Arizona have united, and it will certainly be one of the most interesting an I instructive of all before the agricultural resources of the South, and the great advantages the Southern States offer to farmers over the far West. Ten years ago the Times predicted, after a very careful examination into the agricultural condition and opportunities of the Sout , that the time could not be far distant when the tide of agricultural emigration would turn from the setting sun to the more inviting South; and every venr has strengthened that con-

Ingersoli on the Farmers.

I do not blame the farmers for trying to better their condition. They have certainly had a time and they feel that they have been opposed by the bankers, railroads, merchants and patent-medicine makers, to say nothing of ministers and lawyers. Everything seems against them. They have to fight frosts floods and draughts and all sorts of worms and bugs and speculators and cyclones and all the birds of the air. Everybody and everything takes toll from the farmers. No wonder that they want to do something. 1 do not think the planks in the Cincinnati platform can be fastened together and held in their places. The farmers ought to know that resolutions passed by political conventions raise neither corn nor wheat, neither can they effect prices. I do not believe the Government can make money by law any more than it can make good crops by law. The Gove ment cannot support the the Expositions in the South for people. The people have got to Northern people. It will bring out more prominently than ever pauper. I ask this one question -If the Government can make money why should it collect taxes. Why not make what it needs and stop bothering the people? Still, I am glad the farmers are discussing these questions. They will find out what the Government can and ought to do.
