Highest of all in Leavening Power .- U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

A FEW days ago the failure of four banks in the central and northern portions of Virginia was announced. All four of the institutions were operated by one firm, and if the hardships imposed by their suspension beas great in all the communities in which they were located as in the one mentioned by the Basic City Advance, there will be numerous sufferers in the State.
