YORKVILLE, S. C., Aug. 14, '91
ATLANTIC ELECTROPOISE—Gentlemen: For the past five years my wife has been a sufferer from dyspepsia. So completely did the disease make a wreck of her former self that life was almost despaired of. Her nervous system was almost entirely destroyed, and the slightest noise would throw her into a nervous spasm, which would last for hours. Medical skill failed to bring any relief.

Through the recommendation of an eminent divine we were induced to try the Electropoise. After a persistent use of the instrument, the effect has been wonderful. Her nervous system has been restored to its almost normal condition; her digestion is wonderfully improved; she is rapidly gaining in flesh; and, upon the whole, is making a rapid recovery, which speaks volumes for the wonderful curative powers of the Electropoise, as her case was considered hopeless. If any are skeptical on the subject, let them try the Electropoise, and its wonderful powers will quickly dispel all doubt.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARTHUR, M. D., 111 St. Catharine St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it is a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."
CANTON HAYES, D. D., Late Mayor Bloomington, Ind.
"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Punishing the Press.
The New York Advertiser says: Daniel Webster Talmadge of Brooklyn may be said now to be a vindicated statesman. He has had his libel suit against the New York World confirmed by the Court of Appeals, and he may be said to be $7,000 better off, less lawyer's fees, wear and tear of intellect and worry.

Some three years ago the World decided to perform a valuable public service by breaking up the nest of professional lobbyists in Albany. For one Ed. Phelps had carried on business there as a lobby chief, corrupting members of the Legislature, striking corporate interests and handling "boodles" in all its varied forms. A smart young woman was sent to Albany to secure Phelps' interest in an alleged bill. She obtained from Phelps a proposition to pass the bill for a specific sum. She also obtained from him a list of the names of members of the Assembly whom he would have to pay to vote for the measure. On this list was the name of Daniel Webster Talmadge. When the story was printed the list of names of alleged bribable members was given, as showing Phelps' methods of doing business. There was no charge that Talmadge was a corrupt man or that Phelps would be permitted to bribe him. The publication drove Phelps out of Albany, and for a season paralyzed the vultures of the lobby.

Talmadge sued the World for $50,000. There was no evidence that he had been damaged one penny's worth, and yet the jury gave him a verdict, which now has been affirmed. It was a piece of the injustice frequent in the past. The World never did a better thing than expose and pillory Phelps, the King of the Lobby. Its publication was in the interest of public morals, and there was nothing in it to harm Talmadge. And Mr. Talmadge has not been helped by his verdict, beyond the mere material comfort which the money thus obtained may bring.

Fashion Notes.
Jet bonnets are very fashionable. Princess effects are very fashionable. Brocaded silk for ball dress is very stylish. Sprangled cloth is used as trimming for hats. Capes of silk with a lace flounce for the opera. Blue and medium shades of green are in great favor. Full silk ruffling for skirt trimmings are again in use. Gold and silver fillets for the hair are very fashionable. Gauntlets reaching to the elbows are very fashionable. Little bow knots of white enamel are a novel lace pins. Heart shaped locketts in gold and silver are very fashionable. Collars appear higher, and the Medici shape continues in favor. White silk, corduroy and velvet are fashionable for evening dresses.—Dry Goods Chronicle.

Crisp and Ca-nd.
Butler county, Pa., has a genius who dreams the correct location of oil wells. The proportion of pure Anglo-Saxon words in the Bible is 97 per cent. of the whole. An old well in California which for a number of years, has furnished excellent water, has suddenly turned into an oil well.

The "Bone Circulating Library" of the College of physicians and Surgeons of New York contains hundreds of human bones of all sizes, shapes and forms, which the students are permitted to take out for study. Seals when basking place one of their number on guard to give the alarm in case of danger. The signal is a quick clap of the flippers on a rock. Rabbits signal with their fore paws and have regular signals and calls. Good peat in Germany furnishes a cellulose which is valuable to paper makers. Besides serving as a wholesome litter for live stock, it is also used to preserve perishable goods. Meat and fish are now packed in peat litter for transport between Trieste and Copenhagen.

The grippe in Paris is quite fatal. Last Tuesday the number of deaths from this disease reached one hundred.

Some of our colored citizens are much interested in the Federal Building. Several of the Sun's subscribers have written letters to Congressman Cheatham, the colored Congressman from this State, asking him to do everything in his power to help secure the building. Some of the letters were brought to this office before they were posted, and they would have been a credit to much better educated persons—they were well written. It is a pleasure to note this stroke of enterprise on the part of our colored citizens, for it shows that they take an interest in everything that pertains to the progress of Durham.

THE question as to whether or not newspapers are to be considered as manufacturing establishments, is one about which we care very little, but as a matter of fact, the United States Government fixed their status thirty years ago when, under the internal revenue laws, it classed them as manufacturers. A tax of $10 per annum was collected by the Government from every newspaper in the country as long as the internal revenue law included manufacturers among its subjects of taxation. The tax was abolished five or six years after the end of the war, but, during the time that it was collected, newspapers were considered the product of manufacturing establishments.

COMMITTEEMEN, Congressmen, most honorable sirs! When you are through discussing, and have adopted your rules, whatever you do, don't rule out the Durham Federal Building. We give you a fact as big as the tariff question—we need that building; not so much for ourselves as for the legitimate business of the government.

MRS. PAUL HAMILTON HAYNE, widow of the southern poet, died at her home near Augusta, Ga., Thursday morning. She was a noble woman of rare intellect and rich culture and was beloved by all who knew her. Her only son William Hayne is a poet of much reputation, and writes very much in the style of his gifted father.

It is surprising how suddenly a half-column communication to a newspaper setting forth the qualifications of an individual for office, will shrink to five lines when the author is informed that its publication will cost so many cents per line.

A Leap Year Song.
My Charley gave me a ring,
And oh! but it was grand!
And I was such a simple thing
I did not understand.
'Twas wrong to cling—to cling
To cling unto his hand.
And when his promise were sealed
By kisses that were warm,
A subtle power he seemed to wield
And I'd no thought of harm,
When asked to yield—to yield
To yield unto his charm.
He was a swell—a howling swell—
And I a maid quite trim,
In fancy pealed the marriage bell,
And—and the lights were dim;
'Twas thus I fell—I fell—I fell—
I fell in love with him!

To the Sunday School Workers of North Carolina.
BRETHREN:—The Executive Committee of the Sunday School Association of North Carolina, issues this call for its Eleventh Annual State Convention to be held in New Bern, on the 29th, 30th and 31st days of March, next. The Convention will be attended by Mr. Wm. Reynolds, of Peoria, Ill., late President of the International Sunday School Association and now Superintendent of Organization of that Association (the most prominent worker in the country) and by Prof. H. M. Hamill, Superintendent of Normal Work, of the Illinois Sunday School Association.

The representation in the Convention will consist of members of the State Executive Committee, all speakers named in the Programme of the Convention, and five delegates from each county.

Greatly reduced round-trip rates of fare will be obtained from all railroads. If arrangements can be effected, a special train will be run from Salisbury or Greensboro to New Bern. An outline programme and information concerning railroad facilities will be published as soon as practicable.

All Counties which have not held Conventions since last March, are earnestly requested and urged to take immediate action, hold Conventions and elect delegates to the State Convention. A full representation from every County in the State is greatly desired.

We appeal to the Minister, Superintendents, and every lover of the Sunday School cause throughout the State, to bestir themselves and see that County Conventions are held in Counties where none have been held during the year.

The press of North Carolina, ever willing to do its part in every good work, can be used, and we appeal to each worker in the cause to see for himself that a call for a County Convention is issued at once.

Let it be no longer delayed.
ANY SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKER is commissioned to arouse the brethren to the issuance of the call.

A profitable and pleasant time may be expected. Let no County fail to be represented.
By order of the Executive Committee.
