ABSOLUTELY PURE

Stitch's Consumption Cure.
This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold. A few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c., 50c. and $1. Porous Plaster. Sold by R. BLACKNALL & SON.

Among the Republican lies told against Stevenson is one that he works men at starvation wages in the mines in which he is interested. The fact is that three hundred men employed in the mine in question called upon him (Mr. Stevenson) after his nomination and cordially congratulated him. Stevenson believes that disputes between employers and their workmen should be settled by disinterested arbitrators. And Mr. Cleveland thinks that way also.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Adams, M. D., 111 St. Charles St., Boston, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MAYER, D. D., Late Pastor Birmingham Reform Church.

RALEIGH is to have a new weekly paper—The North Carolinian. It will be edited by Mr. Josephus Daniels, formerly of the State Chronicle, and will appear about the first of August. Mr. Daniels is a vigorous and able writer and he will make a good paper—one that will do effective work for the cause of Democracy in this campaign.

THERE is a very decided movement in Durham, and one we hail with pleasure, to have good sidewalks. Let the spirit become contagious. It is something we shall certainly put our foot on—the sidewalks we mean, when they are completed.

JOSEPH PULTZER, of the World, has cabled a subscription of $5,000 to the permanent charity fund of the New York Press Club. This makes a third $5,000 gift the charity fund has received within two years. The other two were given by W. W. Astor and John Jacob Astor.

TARIFF reform is not a theory; conditions now exist in the field of labor that oppose and refute the protective policy.

The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics at Washington reports that the total number of immigrants arrived at the ports of the United States from the principal foreign countries, except from the Dominion of Canada and Mexico, during the month ended June 30, 1892, and the six and twelve months ended the same, as compared with the same periods of the preceding year, were as follows: Month ended June 30, 1892, 71,120; same period in 1891, 68,317; six months ended June 30, 1892, 353,961; same period in 1891, 325,307; twelve months ended June 30, 1892, 619,420; same period for 1891, 555,496.

AN ECZEMA ON A BOY

Sufferings intense. Head nearly raw. Body covered with sores. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

I bought a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box CUTICURA SALVE, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, for my son, aged thirteen years, who has been afflicted with eczema for a long time, and I am pleased to say that I believe the remedies have cured him. His sufferings were intense, his head being nearly raw, his ears being gone except the gristle, and his body was covered with sores. His condition was witnessed by this remarkable cure, and the doubting ones are requested to call or write me, or any of my neighbors. W. M. STEVENSON, Windsor P. O., Union Co., N. C.

Stubborn Skin Disease

I used the CUTICURA RESOLVENT for about four months for the treatment of a very stubborn case of skin disease, something like eczema. I will state I tried a great many other remedies, and had been treated by local physicians, and all to no purpose. The CUTICURA RESOLVENT did the work, and my body was absolutely cured. E. D. McLELLIN, Piedmont, Ala.

WEAK, PAINFUL BACKS.

Kidney and Urinary Pains and Weakness relieved in one minute by the CUTICURA Anti-Pain Plaster, the first and only pain-killing plaster.

Now that the friends of Mr. Harrison have equipped what they call the "Republican Press Song Bureau" why don't Mr. Cleveland's ardent followers girt up their loins and do likewise? Everybody realizes the vast influence of really able doggerel in a heated national campaign. It will never do for the Democrats to be behindhand in this great moral and intellectual struggle. We observed with interest that the Republican Song Bureau managers are putting their product very low to the trade. For $1 dollar per week they will furnish you with a hebdomadal gush of great sweetness and power, or, as they somewhat tamely express it, "A new rich, and bright song." They have made their headquarters in the city of Detroit, the metropolis of that extraordinary State which produced the "Sweet Singer of Michigan," and from this tune-way, they propose to radiate melody on terms within the reach of the humblest creatures in the rural districts.

The Electropoise is an Instrument for the Cure of Disease Without Medicine.

BASED on new theories of the cause and cure of disease, it deals with the electrical and magnetic conditions of the body and the gases surrounding it in the atmosphere, controlling these conditions at will. It is NOT ELECTRICITY. DISEASE is simply impaired vitality. The Electropoise constantly adds to the vitality and only assists NATURE, IN NATURE'S way, to throw off the trouble.

A 40-page book, describing treatment and containing testimonials from all sections, and for the cure of all diseases, mail FREE on application. Address ATLANTIC ELECTROPOISE CO., Washington, D. C., Charleston, S. C., Atlanta, Ga.

It is now time that somebody nominate Benjamin F. Butler and his political sweetheart, Belva Lockwood, for the presidency.

Shas Peters on Education.

Believe in educations, sir? Well I jest guess I do: I've seen too much o' how it works to take the other view I've seen how knowledge takes a spot that's sort o' cold and bare, 'Nd covers of it up with quite a nickleplated air. I sees the difference every day 'tween educated f.l.'s 'Nd them as thinks it's nothin' but a fraud 'nd soyt o' noax. Why, right to home I sees it. There's my wife, she studied well.

Not only how to read and write, to cipher, 'nd to spell, But she's an art's likewise in a most uncommon way.

'Nd I believe to find her like you'd travel many a day. For instance, she can knock a tune from our melodeon.

As easy as a huntsman pulls the trigger of his gun. I've seen that woman play a song with one note up in G.

'Nd then the next one came 'way down—as far, I s'pose, as Z—'Nd not a bit of different did it ever seem to make.

If she had twenty-seven notes, or only one to ske; Her fingers they hop about, 'nd all the needed keys She'd seem to strike as easy, sir, as you or I could sneeze.

But best of a' her talents is the way she decorates. She'll make a lovely what-not with two simple apple-crates;

'Nd all the picture 'rames we have upon our parlor wall She's made of colored maple leaves she'd gathered in the fall;

'Nd all our books, from almanac to Dr. Browne on Hope, She's got in cases that she's built of boxes made for soap.

The organ stool she uses when she sets her down to play. Ain't store-made, as you'd think, but just a stump she found one day.

She covered of it up with cloth all trimmed with fringe and stars 'Nd set a cushion on the top. 'Nd all our ginger-jars She sort o' paints in gee-gaw style, with dragons in a fight;

'Nd when she sets 'em round the house, they makes a pretty sight. I tell you, sir, it takes a gal that knows a fearful pile To take a lot of common things 'nd give 'em such a styie;

They seem to be worth having, 'nd my wife she does all that—'I've seen her make a basket of a busted heaver hat, It's edification's done it, 'nd if my kids isn't fools, I'll see they gets as much of it as there is in the schools.

Of Feminine Interest.

Mrs. T. P. Taber Willets, of Roslyn, L. I., personally manages a farm of 600 acres. Her Guernsey herd is one of the finest in the country, and their owner is said to know the pedigree of every one of them.

Miss Grace Lewes, eldest daughter of the late George Lewes of England, the husband of the famous novelist, George Eliot, is on a visit to Mr. Daniel H. Harkins, also of England, but now occupying a typical country home at White Plains near Ophir Farm, the residence of Mr. Whitelaw Reid.

At the University of Pennsylvania the first three fellowships in the graduate department for women have been awarded to Miss Alice M. Arkinson, a graduate of Swarthmore and Cornell; Mrs. Laura Cross of Louisville, Ky., a graduate of Hampton College, and Miss Emily Ray Gregory, a graduate of Wellesley.

Lady Paget, wife of the British Ambassador to the Austrian Court, has become a convert to vegetarianism. She is said to have renounced the use of flesh meat on humane grounds, but a different complexion, so to speak, is given to the announcement by her explanation that vegetarians have usually a very clear and frequently beautiful skin.

ALL of the great World's Fair buildings, except two, are practically completed. A portion of the interior finishing and decorating is all that remains to be done on most of them. On the Manufactures Building and Machinery Hall work is being pushed sixteen hours a day, and they are fast catching up with the other structures.

It is expected that the Russian Government will authorize the export of rye and bran on August 1.

PART of WEAVER'S RECORD

Some of The Things He Said When in Congress.

If the people's Party ever had a possibility of carrying a single southern state, or if its leaders ever dreamed of securing a large vote in any of them the nomination of Jas. B. Weaver must have destroyed their hopes.

Weaver is a political hack who has been a member of every political party organized in his time and has been true to none.

He is a wild, visionary individual, a fluctuating mortal, who is your best friend today; your bitterest enemy tomorrow; who praises you today; damns you to-morrow.

In a debate in the house of representatives on July 11th, 1888, Mr. Henderson of Iowa quoted some extracts from Mr. Weaver's old speeches against the Democratic party and the south. Mr. Weaver instead of denying them said they were true.

The southern man who can desert the democracy and vote for Weaver after reading these extracts is not worthy the name of a southerner.

Here are some of Mr. Weaver's utterances in speeches in Iowa when he was not a democrat:

"I want to congratulate you, fellow citizens, on the suppression of purely democratic rebellion, gotten up by the democrats for the democratic purpose of dissevering this union and perpetually establishing human slavery. Now and forever it is established as an eternal truth that the democracy in no place or state can ever be trusted with government. As a party it should disband just as a section of it did at Appomattox."

Again he said of the Democracy: "I am astonished beyond measure that a party with a record so utterly vile and wretched and wicked should be so lost to all shame and decency as to make an appearance before the people of Iowa."

In another he said: "What is the use of further arranging the defunct democracy with all its hoary crimes at the bar of public opinion? We know that its acts comprise murder, treason, theft, arson, fraud, perjury and all crimes possible for an organization to connive at."

Here is another: "No republican can ever, under any circumstances, have any part or lot with the hungry, rebellious, man-hating, woman-selling gang corporated under the name of democracy, a name so full of stench and poison that it should be blotted from the vocabulary of civilized man and handed over to the barbarism that it so fitly now and in all the past has represented."

And another: "But, then, what could you expect from the poor, blind, diseased, decrepit, dismal, damned old democratic party?"

Here is still another: "There can be no doubt about the question at all. With greenbacks and national bank notes our business needs are well met. There can be no better paper currency than these. But the assaults of a party which through its financial legislation inflicted untold wrongs and robberies upon the people by permitting banks without a solid basis to issue a circulating note. * * * The fact is, gentlemen, the democracy never has been able to comprehend the financial question. Between its inherent dishonesty and apparent sensibility, it makes a petty, but not unusual exhibition of its corporate consolidated idiocy."

A picturesque specimen, this, for a party to nominate or any man to cast his ballot for.

If you wish to send a letter away in a hurry, be sure to write "in haste" upon the envelope. The postmaster and clerks will fall all over each other in their haste to get it into the first mail; then the postal clerk will yell to the engineer, "pull her wide open. Here is a letter that's in a rush!" And the train will just fly. It is expensive for the railroads, as accidents are liable to happen, and the officials will not thank us for giving it away, but that is the way to get your letters through real quick.

Measure Lost.

What the Silver Question Is.

A correspondent asks for a "common sense, every day, school boy explanation of the silver question." The "silver question" at present is whether the mints of the United States shall coin silver dollars weighing 412½ grains as freely as they coin gold money. Any owner of gold bullion can take it to the mint and have it coined into gold twenty, ten, five, and two and a half dollar pieces at his option, and to any amount. The same "freedom" is sought by the silver men for the holders of silver bullion.

The objection made to this free coinage of silver is that 412½ grains of silver are not now worth 258 grains of gold as they once were. In other words, the quantity of silver it is proposed to put into the silver dollar—whose coinage is to be free—is not now worth 100 cents, but is only worth 66 cents. All free coinage bills make the silver dollar of 412½ grains legal tender for 100 cents—an obviously unjust thing to do. If free coinage, as advocated in Congress, meant putting 100 cents worth of silver—over 450 grains—in a dollar, nobody could object to it, but there is a decided objection to making 66 cents worth of silver pass for 100 cents. The silver men insist on the free coinage of the light dollar.—Baltimore Sun.

Took the Wrong Horse.

A certain Durham young man was out in the country a few days ago to see his best girl. When it was time for him to leave he went to the stable and hitched up the horse as there was no one around except the women folks. Just as he was driving past the house homeward bound the old lady rushed out and said, "Stop my young man; you are going off with the old man's blazed-face horse!" The young man said it was the horse he drove there, but the old lady said it was the blazed-face horse and she would know him in Texas. The gentleman had to go around and look at the face of the animal before he was convinced he had the wrong horse.

Henderson and Leazar.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—A report is in circulation in the Seventh Congressional District of North Carolina that Mr. Henderson pledged himself two years ago not to be a candidate again, but to give way to Mr. Leazar. Mr. Henderson says there is no foundation for such a report and that he has never promised any one at any time to give way in favor of Mr. Leazar or any other aspirant.

A Large Assignment.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 23.—The Louisville Bagging Manufacturing Co., W. P. Tapp, president, W. L. Tapp, secretary and treasurer, made an assignment yesterday. Liabilities, $70,000; assets, nominally, $126,000.

Arkansas Democrats.

BATESVILLE, Ark., July 22.—The Democratic convention of the sixth Congressional district met here yesterday and began what promises to be a protracted struggle. Thirty-nine ballots were taken without change.

The Mallory Durham Cheroot Co.

is pushing right ahead and increasing its business and capacity. The present three story factory building on Farrish street, is crowded and more room is in demand. The two-story building adjoining is to be run up another story, and the work is to begin as soon as arrangements can be made.

Tenting at "Camp Holt."

CAMP HOLT, WRIGHTSVILLE, N. C., July 22.—Over eight hundred of the State Guard are already in camp, and Camp Holt presents a busy and interesting scene. The arrangements for the encampment were perfect, and it will be one of the most pleasant in the history of these annual encampments.
