CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANDERSON, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is an universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep 'Castoria' within easy reach." CARLOS MAYNOR, D. D., New York City, Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and have always continued to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PALMER, M. D., "The Withrop," 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

Willing, But Lack Strength.

The People's party people all declare they are opposed to force bill legislation. For this we give them full credit. The action of the Farmers' Alliance, from which the third party largely sprung, gives them a right to be believed when they say that with them in power no force legislation would be tolerated. But have they the power to prevent such a calamity? Have they that power now? It won't do to say they will grow and come into power at a future time. While they are "growing" the Republicans will do the mischief, if the Democrats are defeated this coming fall, by votes drawn from them by the third party.

That is the serious question the Southern people have to decide. There are three, we may say four, parties in the field soliciting their votes. The Republican party is willing and determined to oppress them, if given the power. The third and fourth parties are willing, we concede to protect them from force bill legislation, but do not claim the power in the near future. The Democratic party is willing, has had the power heretofore, to protect them, and claims that it will, with an undivided vote in the South, continue to have that power. Which party will the Southern people favor under the circumstances? The Republican party is out of the question with the voters we are addressing. The third and fourth parties are willing to protect the South from hostile legislation, but lack the power, while the Democratic party both has the will and by standing together will be given the power to give peace to our section, as it has shown by its acts in the past. Defection from the Democratic party is death to Southern liberty.

"Why, man, he doth bestride the world like a Colossus."—Shakespeare.

late State Senate. Mr. Worth was a Republican when he lived in Central North Carolina; affiliated with the Democrats in Lenoir county; was then a Prohibition party man and now a People's party man.

Mr. Lyon has always been a Republican—a regular mossy back 1868-69 one.

Mr. Woody has been a Republican or a Prohibition party man, or both.

Mr. Malone is a Republican and was a Liberal—is a general political kicker.

We do not know whether Maj. Guthrie will accept. He has more than once been a Republican candidate. He was a Republican until he discovered some great rascality and "cussed" the party out. We do not know his political status now.

Mr. Butler and Mr. Skinner have been Democrats; both participated in the Democratic State Convention in Raleigh in May; and both therefore plighted their faith to support the Democratic nominees.—North Carolinian.

The Republicans are now inciting the Third party people to allege that the Democrats have put Harry Skinner up in his speeches, which have certainly made the "nigger in the fence" mighty clear. It will be discovered later on, but certainly at some time, that the Republicans have inspired most of the Third party plans and schemes. Half stands confessed. When Loge Harris attends a mixed caucus of Republicans and Third party men, as he says he did last Monday night, it shows that something is going on under the surface. The caucus referred to was not the one at which the Connecticut missionary Houghton spoke. Houghton brought aid and comfort here in the way of dollars and cents and administered it where it would do the most good. He had the satisfied look in the early hours of the convention of a man who had finished his work in a desired way and was ready to go home. When the secret history of this notable campaign stands revealed there will be a stigma upon some people as dark as any which rested on the corpor. Charlotte Observer.

When Radical emissaries are sent here from the North to traffic with the Third partyites, it is time to call a halt. There is in Raleigh a man from Connecticut who has been conferring with the Taird party people, and has brought corruption money here with which to carry out his schemes. He wants to carry North Carolina for Harrison, and proposes to deliver three negro votes to the Third partyites for their State ticket for one in return for Harrison, and declares he has the money with which to buy them. White men who call themselves reformers and who can be approached with such propositions as that of the Connecticut emissary, should be ashamed to show their faces and are unworthy of even the contempt of decent people.—News and Observer.

A TEACHER in a well known Sunday school tells of a laughable experience he had recently. He had charge of a lot of boys one day, and was trying to make them understand that all good comes from one source. As an illustration, he told them of building a house, putting water pipes in with spigots in all the rooms, these pipes not being connected with the main in the street. He said to them: "Suppose I turn on a spigot and no water comes, what is the matter? He naturally supposed that some of the boys would answer that the water was not turned on at the main. But they didn't. On the contrary, one boy at the foot of the class called out in a voice which showed that he thought that he was right: "You didn't have your water rent paid."

THERE is no abatement of the suicide mania. Scores of them continue to occur daily throughout the country often for trifling cause. "Anywhere, anywhere, out of this world," is the rash conclusion.

The Democrat who will not vote for Cleveland and Stevenson is recreant to the best interest of his country.

MR. STEVENSON himself says that he pronounces his given name as if it were spelled Ad'lee.

SAVED MY LIFE

Would Have Scratched Myself to Death but for Cuticura. Best Doctors Two Years. Bills $125.

Expended $2.50 for Cuticura Remedies. I am To-day a Well Man, With a Smooth Skin.

I was afflicted two years with a disease the doctors called ringworm, herpes, or salt rheum. I was treated by three different doctors, the best I could find, but they did me no good. My doctor's bills were $125. One told me I would have to go off to some healing springs to get well. I saw your advertisement, and wrote to you over a year ago. A young friend of mine was going to New Orleans, La., at the time, and I sent him to bring me back some of your CUTICURA REMEDIES. He brought two boxes CUTICURA, two boxes CUTICURA SOAP, and one bottle CUTICURA RESOLVENT. I must thank God for your CUTICURA REMEDIES coming to my relief, and saving me a well-earned, but well-deserved, death. I have not seen you since, but I have had good health ever since I commenced to use the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I am spreading the fame of it everywhere I go, for it is a God-send to suffering humanity. It was the CUTICURA REMEDIES which saved my life, would have scratched myself to death. I have quit using the medicine now for nine months, and so trace of the disease has not returned.

HONORED HIS MOTHER.

A student who Pinned his Medal on his Mother's Calico Dress.

Rev. Ashbury Christian preached a sermon Sunday night from the text: "Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long in the land." He made some pointed hits about young men from the country who, having come to the city and acquired sufficient money to enable them to dress well and move in "society," became ashamed of their parents and their countrymen's manners. In this connection he related the two following anecdotes:

Not long ago a friend related to me that a lady had come to him and pressing asked the loan of fifteen dollars, saying, "my rent is due, my feet are on the ground and I have not a cent." He cheerfully complied with her request, but he could not help remembering the son who dressed in fine clothes and who figured regularly in the "germans" of the city where he lived.

The other anecdote, which was in strong contrast to the above, related to a poor student at Emory and Henry College, who worked his way at college while his mother did washing for the students. He graduated high on the list, and when Commencement Day came was a candidate for the orator's medal. His mother said to him, "I will not go to the speaking today, my son."

"Why not?" he asked.

"Because I have nothing but a calico dress and sun bonnet to wear."

"Come anyhow, mother," he said.

And she went. When the verdict of the judges came he was awarded the medal; and, before the great audience, he walked straight to his mother and pinned it on her calico dress.—Lynchburg Virginian.

Love All Over.

Riches are naught. A jewel crown

May be undone, and gold will melt,

But an ended pain is long, long felt.

Kisses are sweet, but prayers are best;

Only the lips to a kiss are given,

While the soul goes, with its prayer, to heaven.

Dreams are shadows, yet sometimes come

Like blessed curtains that drop upon

The scorching light of a noon-day sun.

Hopes betray us, but faith is sure,

Nor asks for an answer. She smiles and waits.

A patient child at the heavenly gates.

Love over all! A jewel crown,

A pain that stays, and a prayer, a kiss,

Dreams, hope, faith, patience, are met in this.

In a recent issue of the Churchman there appeared an advertisement from "A Western Priest," setting forth that he was out of employment and wanted a job. He undertook to "keep a congregation awake on the hottest day."

International expositions are in progress in Stockholm, Munich, Schevingen, Vienna and Genoa, besides the Paris Exhibition for Feminine Arts and the demonstrations at Palos and Huelva. Last week Bulgaria opened a national exhibition at Philippopolis.

THINK of this, farmers! The House Committee on Agriculture, in its report on the effect of the tariff, states that one reason for the low price of wool in the United States, despite the so-called protection, "lies in the fact that more than 67 per cent. of all the clothes manufactured here and passing for woolen goods is composed of shoddy, which comes in direct competition with raw wool, the latter being protected by an almost prohibitory tariff."

If a man be a true and loyal Democrat he will vote the regularly constituted Democratic ticket. To do otherwise is disloyalty to the party he claims to belong to.

MR. SOUTHGATE says the Prohibitionists will have four hundred votes in this county. There is nothing like whistling when you go through the woods. We learn that it is their intention to put out a full county ticket.

THE Savannah News says that between ten and fifteen thousand names have been dropped from the rolls of the Farmers' Alliance in Georgia, and that quite a number of sub-organizations have gone out of existence.

WHILE strikes show a dissatisfied condition among the laboring classes, the termination of them usually proves that they are suicidal blows. Strikes cannot solve the labor problem and settle differences between labor and capital.

THE Republican party managers are throwing their corruption funds into Third party districts in the South. A few Republicans have gone into this Third party business for the sole purpose of overthrowing, if possible, the Democratic party.

THE protected monopolists are willing to have the fat fried out of them for campaign purposes to perpetuate Republican power. This the Republican bosses regard as a great lever and a powerful stimulator of hope. It should, however, inspire the masses to greater diligence and exertion to elect Cleveland and Stevenson.

Whooping up Massacre.

Richmond (Va.) Christian Advocate.

Albion W. Tourgee, known as the writer of a number of books abusive of the South, and the originator of a magazine that was a miserable failure, consuming in its collapse all the money he had made by his vile writings, now prophesies that the negroes will rise and butcher the Southern whites, justifies the massacre and joys in the prospect of the slaughter of men, women and children. The negro is not so superlative a brute and demon as this white savage.

Tourgee is an ex-convict, and drifted down to North Carolina with the carpet-bag scum of "Reconstruction Days"—a period that makes an American blush at its mention. This penitentiary felon sets up for a "Judge." If any person cares to canvass the career of the "Judge," let him pass a day at Charlotte, N. C., and listen to any respectable citizen. The "Judge" was a thief on the bench, squeezing purses far and near, under pretense of arresting evil-doers. Whoever had any ready money would soon find himself in jail as a "Klux," and only to get out when his wallet was emptied.

The "Judge" antagonized some other member of his band, who at once obtained all the "papers" in the Judge's trial, crime, conviction and service in the public work house of a Western State, and read them in the presence of the "Judge," who never uttered a word, but sat with a hang-dog look to the end of the story.

Such is Albion W. Tourgee. He is now out of pocket, out of countenance among the best people in the North and out of a job. Why should he not crave another upheaval of society at the South? This cormorant, hungry and greedy, croaks and clamors for shipwreck, slaughter; prey that he may gorge again on human woe. He has been found out at home, and is loathed by the pure and honorable. The exigencies of his decayed fortune have maddened him, till, like the starving castaway, he seems to banquet on feasts that once delighted his palate. Hence the ravaging creature sees in his wild wishes, and shouts over "a massacre such as has not been paralleled since the French Revolution." The hideous crimes of the wretch have seized him, torn off the veil from this "Prophet of Khorassan" and invited the world to spit on his forbidding, ulcerous, stripped soul.

The Ticket Nominated.

It is a variegated ticket. Dr. Pat Ekum, the nominee for Governor, boasts that for four years he has not been connected with any party. He has never before been heard of as a "Reformer," and most of the delegates asked "who is he?" He declares he is going to kick all the Democrats out of office when he gets in.

We have regarded Mr. Cobb, the nominee for Lieutenant Governor, as a Democrat. He was, we think, a delegate to the Democratic State Convention, and pledged his sacred honor to support the nominees. But Mr. Boggs, who nominated Mr. Cobb, said "he has heretofore been a Republican, but he burned the bridges behind him." Dr. Durham has been a Democrat and was a member of the
