PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Clyde Clark is home for the holidays.

Everything nice for the Christmas stocking at Eakes.

Mr. Winder Webb attended the Flower Carr marriage at Durham this week.

Miss Lillie Richards is home for the holidays.

All standard grades of canned goods at Forsyth's wholesale and retail grocery, Durham.

Mr. Joel Whitaker will operate a steam brick plant at Hillsboro with a capacity of 40,000 brick daily.

Forsyth, the Durham grocer, divides his profits with every farmer who trades with him.

Read the advertisements in THE RECORDER this week, as a guide for your Christmas shopping.

Nice apples 25 cents a peck at E. A. Rosemond's, Hillsboro.

It is rumored that the town commissioners of Hillsboro will call a special meeting, discharge the policeman and give the mayor a chance.

Don't think when you pass Forsyth, the Durham grocer, and see him so farmer like that he will not protect you on every order.

The Southern Railway company has reduced its rates to Atlanta, and you can now go for a song. Tickets from Durham and return only $5.

Eakes' confectionery and variety store is the place to buy fireworks, candies, fruits, nuts and all kinds of Christmas tricks.

Eakes has laid in a large supply of toys and confectioneries, and will sell them right to all in search of Christmas novelties.

Let the boys have their fun. You can give them a merry Christmas at small cost by buying toys, fireworks, etc., of M. Eakes, Main St. Durham.

Just Received 1,000 pounds of mixed candies, 1,000 pounds of stick candy and 20 boxes raisins for the Christmas trade at Forsyth's, just above the Banner Warehouse, Durham.

Mountain apples—the finest on the market—very cheap at E. A. Rosemond's, headquarters for toys, fireworks, confectioneries and Christmas goods of all kinds.

The attention of farmers is especially called to the advertisement of the Progressive Farmer in another column.

Don't wait until everything is picked over, but select your Christmas goods before the rush. E. A. Rosemond's is the place to find everything you want.

Miss Pattie Beves, one of Durham's best known and popular young ladies, is in charge of the new toy store of Berry & Co., the only exclusive toy store in the city.

Mr. E. G. Sherrill, agent for the Southern Railway, and Chas. F. Crews leave on the 21st for a gaining trip in the western part of the state. Mr. Best, of Chapel Hill, will relieve Mr. Sherrill.

Royall & Borden, the enterprising and progressive furniture men, sell direct from their own factory and can therefore afford to sell on the best possible terms. They will supply you with everything you need in the housekeeping line.

Santa Claus is still sending goods daily to E. A. Rosemond's, his usual headquarters in Hillsboro, and as a consequence the children and the children's parents are making it their headquarters also. Don't buy your Christmas toys until you see his stock.
