

RIOT IN PERSON.

Negroes Attack the Whites At a Speaking.

INFLAMED BY SATTERFIELD.

They Attack the Whites and Knocked Them Down with Rocks—A Large Number of Negroes Hurt in the Riot—Mr. Boone, of Durham, Present—The White People Drawn Together and Will Vote Solidly Against Russell and His Gang.

ROXBORO, Oct. 22.—(Special to Recorder.)—There was a riot at Winstead's Mill, near here, this afternoon between the whites and negroes.

The riot occurred at a political speaking at which R. B. Boone, of Durham, Col. J. S. Cunningham and S. P. Satterfield, of this county, spoke.

Mr. Boone spoke first and was followed by Satterfield, the republican candidate for the Legislature. He made an inflammatory and incendiary speech to the negroes and when Col. Cunningham got up to reply to him the negroes began an attack upon the whites. There was a much larger crowd of the former present than there was of the latter.

For a while everything was confusion and excitement.

The white men were not expecting any trouble and therefore were not prepared for the attack, but they began at once to defend themselves in the best way possible.

Three white men were knocked down with rocks thrown from the rear and badly hurt. A number of the negroes were knocked down and hurt but were dragged off, as fast as they fell, by their companions.

Finally some one fired a pistol and the negroes scattered and fled in every direction except a few who took no part in the riot.

It has since been learned that the negroes formed the plot in Roxboro and went out there in large numbers purposely to attack the white men who assembled to hear the speaking.

The trouble first began last Wednesday when Zeb Waiser made a low appeal to the prejudices of the negroes at Roxboro. Mr. Boone was present at the time and replied to him. He rebuked Waiser severely for trying to inflame the negroes against the white people. Since that time the negroes have been very insolent and the low and degrading speech of Satterfield kindled the flames that had been smoldering and the riot ensued.

The white people of Person county, regardless of party, are so outraged at the uncalculated attack that they have been drawn together. They will vote as one man and see that their rights are protected against every assault made upon them by these henchmen of Russell.

It is feared that this is only the beginning for if they make another attack blood shed will follow.

BARN AND STABLES BURNED.

C. H. Norton Loses About $3,000—Insurance $1,400.

Mr. C. H. Norton seems to be in hard luck here of late. Not long since he was severely injured on the railroad. Now his barn, stables and contents, at his farm, have gone up in ashes. The fire occurred yesterday morning, between 4 and 5 o'clock, and from what can be learned it seems to have been of incendiary origin.

A colored man by the name of "Doc" Roberson lives at the farm and looks after everything. He said he got up about 4 o'clock and cooked and ate breakfast. He then started to the stables to feed the horses and cattle and he discovered that the barn was on fire. Nearly everything was destroyed.

In all Mr. Norton lost the barn and stables; a lot of fodder, straw, hay; three wagons, farming tools, sleigh, harness, horse and colt, game chickens, cow shed and other things too numerous to mention.

Mr. Norton is in Baltimore and his exact loss cannot be gotten but those who know what he had and something about the cost of the barn and stables say his loss will be at least $3,000 and possibly more.

He carried $1,400 insurance with J. Southgate & Son. It was distributed as follows: Building $300; contents $300, and horses and mules $400.

It is not known that he had any enemies who are mean enough to apply the torch to his property and the origin of the fire is a mystery. The colored man, as mentioned above, says positively that the building was fired. It is possible that by some means a match might have got into the possession of some rats and they started the conflagration.

At any rate the loss will fall quite heavily on Mr. Norton and he has the sympathy of a host of his friends, in his trials.

NEARLY A THOUSAND.

Eight Hundred and Twenty-Six Durhamsites Visit the Fair.

Durhamsites were in Raleigh yesterday. They were going down all day from the early train, which was behind time, caused by handling the crowd.

The early train, which reaches here about 5 o'clock in the morning, was thronged by a large crowd and an extra coach was put on here to accommodate them. The next train was a special from Greensboro with young ladies of the Normal and Industrial College, which reached here at 6 o'clock. Several Durhamsites got on this train also.

About 9:30 o'clock the special train from Oxford with five coaches, arrived here. It was about half full when it reached here but was charged on by a crowd who pushed and shoved to get room enough to stand on. It was packed full when it pulled out.

The regular train, due here at 10:30, was behind time. Another crowd was waiting for this train and filled up most of the extra space. Several, some fifty or twenty, went down on the 2 o'clock train.

Since the fair opened the Southern road here has sold 826 tickets. Sunday and Monday they sold 14; Tuesday 51; Wednesday 172, and yesterday they capped the climax and sold 59, which makes a total of 826 as above mentioned.

This is no doubt the largest number that ever attended the fair in one day from Durham. But Durham always sends a large delegation.

Much Good Being Done.

Rev. W. R. Gwaltney preached at the Second Baptist church again last night to a good sized congregation. Several went forward for prayers and three or four professed faith in Christ. The meeting will continue on and there will be services there this afternoon and again tonight. Much good is being done.

Thieves Around.

Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock some sneak thief slipped in the Western Union Telegraph Company's office and carried off a pair of pants belonging to W. H. Oakley, operator, and a coat and vest of E. L. Barbee, messenger. Mr. Oakley was at supper at the time and Mr. Barbee went to the basement for something and when he returned the above mentioned articles were gone. There is no clue as to who the sneak was.

The "Havana Leader."

F. S. Dixon has opened a factory and retail cigar store on Main street, next door to Mr. Bak's. He will make his own cigars and in that way will give to each cigar for 5c. His leading brands are "Havana Leader," "The Fairest" and "The Black Poodle." He also keeps on hand cigarettes and chewing tobacco. Special brands made for customers. Give him a trial.

PERSONAL MENTION.

People Who Come and Go and Stay at Home.

Miss Pattie Beves is in Raleigh with friends.

J. R. Lainer went down to Raleigh yesterday on business.

Rev. G. J. Dowell spent yesterday morning in Cary on business.

W. H. Willard, Sr., of Raleigh, was in the city part of the day yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Reams, Jr. returned from Raleigh yesterday, where they went to attend the Parham-Hunter nuptials.

W. W. Dragoon was all smiles yesterday. He is the father of a bouncing baby boy who arrived at his home night before last.

QUOTED FOR BRYAN.

A special from Berlin, dated Oct. 20, to the New York Journal said: In his speech before the Vienna Parliament urging the Austrian Government to "go slow" in enforcing the gold standard until after the American election had decided what would be the future financial policy of that country. Herr Jax, the Czech leader, quoted extensively from William J. Bryan's recent speeches. The sentiments expressed by the Democratic candidate were frequently and enthusiastically applauded and Herr Jax's reading was often interrupted by the "Bravo's" of the assemblage.

The eyes of the whole world are upon the United States and if we declare for the free and unlimited coinage of silver many countries like the Vienna Parliament, will take example after us. Bimetallism in this country will force England to the same system and those two countries will carry the world. Still the Hannacrats are saying that we will be left alone in our financial policy. It is all bosh.

MISREPRESENTED.

Whether intentionally, and with malice aforethought or not, the Greensboro correspondent of the Richmond Times does W. W. Kitchin, democratic nominee for congress in this district great injustice—so great that as a matter of common justice the HERALD feels it should not go unnoticed.

Under date of October 19th, and published in the Times of the 20th appears an account of the joint debate at Greensboro between W. W. Kitchin, democratic, and W. W. Clark, of New Berne, Palmer-Buckner McKinley adjunct gold bug, from which we take the following extract:

"Mr. Clark made a splendid speech, and presented some strong arguments to the audience which was mostly for Bryan. Kitchin followed in his usual style of villifying every body but populist and silver democrats, which bought cheers from the silverites, but caused the better class of the hearers to leave."

The Recorder emphatically denies that it is Mr. Kitchin's "usual style" to vilify "everybody but populist and silver democrats" and defies the aforesaid correspondent to show that it is. People of all parties all over the district have heard Mr. Kitchin in this campaign, and they know that no political speaker in the state is freer from such a charge.

His farther statement that Kitchin's speech "caused the better class of hearers to leave" is an unwarranted reflection upon some of the best people of Greensboro who remained, and lacks confirmation.

When a correspondent makes these kind of charges, he should "sign up" and let the aggrieved know where the responsibility lies. If he does not, no self respecting paper should longer print his stuff.

The entire statement is so entirely foreign to Mr. Kitchin's record that it cannot possibly damage him in this district, where he is known, but the character of the paper in which the slander was printed may give the utterance some force outside the state to Mr. Kitchin's detriment, and hence we have said this much. That he designates Mr. Kitchin as a "populist" is unworthy of note.

No Asheville Bishop This Year.

New York, Oct. 20.—The house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America met today in the church mission house. The meeting will probably last two days and there will be two sessions daily. Bishop Doane, of Albany, is presiding in the absence of Bishop Williams, of Connecticut.

It was decided not to elect at this session a bishop for the Asheville jurisdiction and it will remain without an incumbent until the next annual meeting of the house of bishops.

Nominations were made for the bishopric of Duluth, which was created a year ago, the same time as the Asheville bishopric.

The nominations will be reported upon tomorrow by a committee.

Colorado's Flag Display.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 21.—In accordance with the suggestions of William J. Bryan and Chairman Jones, of the Democratic National Committee, Gov. McIntyre today issued a proclamation calling upon all good citizens, irrespective of party affiliations, to display the national flag on the 31 of October. Regarding Chairman Hanna's original suggestion of a flag day Gov. McIntyre says:

"It is my opinion that the attempt of Mr. Hanna to debase the national colors of the United States is unpatriotic and impertinent and should be resented by all good Americans."

A Republican Bet.

Edward Eyre has been making a coup de main on the floor of the Produce Exchange. He offered to bet $100 that McKinley would carry every state in the union but one, and, as far as that one state, he would bet $200 that McKinley would carry the unnamed state also. This seemed such a good bet that at first there was no lack of takers. When Eyre refused to make the bet first bet unless accompanied by the second, however, the Call Board men began to suspect the presence of a little joker. The joker was very evident when Eyre named as the one state upon which he bet double money—Maine.—San Francisco News Letter.

The Great Jenny Lind Concert.

Only a few remain who can recall the marvelous enthusiasm which attended Jenny Lind's first appearance in America, in the old Castle Garden, in 1850. When she arrived from England 50,000 people were at the dock to greet her. That night 30,000 people serenaded her in front of her hotel. Seats for her concert sold at fabulous prices. On the night of her first American concert over 5000 people had gathered in the Battery before Castle Garden by six o'clock, although the concert did not begin until eight. When the doors were opened the crush was terrible, and within fifteen minutes every available inch of room, other than the reserved seats, was occupied, and 10,000 people were outside unable to get in. Then every rowboat, railroad and steamer which could be pressed into service was engaged to lay in the water by the old Garden Hall crowded with people who could only hear the strains of Jenny's voice as it floated through the opened windows. The whole scene has now been repictured by Hon. A. Cahey Hall, ex-Mayor of New York City, and he gives a wonderfully graphic recital of the event in the November Ladies' Home Journal. The actual scene of Jenny Lind singing her first song to her wonderful audience of thousands is shown in a picture copied by De Thulstrup from a photograph made at the time. The Journal will be for sale by T. J. Gattis & Son.

The Pennsylvania who is acting as receiver for the Comstock mine in Chatham County is charged with intimidating the employees to compel them to vote a gold-bug ticket. We are unable to learn whether he got his instructions from Mark Hanna or Mr. Louis DeLacroix.

In all countries and at all times when silver has had a fair show, labor and laborers' products have brought living prices. Vote for the single gold standard, ye working men, if you will, and in two years a dollar will so enhance in value you will get about the same wages the Chinese do, and like them, will eat meat once a month.

MADAME CALVE and Madame Melba will both appear in the next issue of The Ladies' Home Journal with articles on the voice. Madame Melba has written before and is, in fact, no novice with the pen, but this is Madame Calve's first attempt at authorship. She wrote the article in French, and after an English translation had been made of it she had the original manuscript bound between morocco covers as a souvenir of her debut as a writer.

COL. JNO. C. LIPTON'S paper now published at Oxford under the misnomer of "The Democrat," contains a list of the appointments of Mr. Lindsey Patterson to speak at different places in the west up to Saturday the 31. This is the same Palmer-Buckner elector who refused to divide time here, and backed out of doing so at Hillsboro after he had agreed to it before one hundred citizens of Durham. Some ten-year-old boy should be put against him wherever he appears. Nine times out of ten the boy will down him.

Dr. Edwards Here.

Dr. W. H. Edwards, formerly of Wake Forest, has located in Durham for the practice of dentistry and a card announcing the same can be found in another column. The Biblical Recorder, in speaking of Dr. Edwards says:

"The editor of the Recorder has read a number of testimonials to the high christian character and to the satisfactory work as a dentist, of Dr. Edwards, from President Taylor of Wake Forest college, and from Professors Royall, Carlyle, Mills and Brewer of that institution. Dr. Edwards having lived at Wake Forest college thirteen years and having done work for these gentlemen, their testimonials should be sufficient for him anywhere. Hon. H. A. London, editor of the Chatham Record also bears testimony to his work. We know Dr. Edwards well as a Christian gentleman, and heartily commend him to the good people of Durham."

We are glad to welcome Dr. Edwards and family to Durham.

See change in Royall & Borden's ad in this issue. Notice their prices on blankets; oak bedsteads, sofas, tea sets, dinner sets and window shades. These prices are very low and they give you correspondingly low prices on their entire stock. Their manager Mr. W. B. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative power, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Cheney, Toledo, O.
