

THE DURHAM RECORDER.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOLUME 87.

DURHAM, N. C., MARCH 8, 1907.

NUMBER 90.

NEWS FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS

Items of Interest from Various Places as Viewed and Told by Those on the Field.—Personals.

South Lowell.

Lion-like March is roaring in, Pilling Forest with his din, Blowing 'way the silver sheen, Making ready for the green. Soon there will a mist appear, Telling all that spring is here. Riverlets and tiny rills, Making music on the hills.

Mrs. W. C. Faucette, and little son, Holt, left Saturday for their home at Grimesland. Their many friends miss them up in this country.

Misses Sudie and Kate Pool spent Sunday at Mr. J. H. Garrard's.

Mr. Sam Pool gave a dance Saturday night to the young people, all enjoyed it very much. Our little "Buffalo" was there tripping the light fantastic toe. The little horse, that goes by so fleetly with the mail every day, was at the hitching post at Mr. William Terry's Sunday.

Oh now "Tinker," don't repine, Since "Fair Luna" ceased to shine, Soon thou'lt find another shrine There thy cause to plead.

Faint heart ne'er its lady won Sure thy race is just begun And we trust these words "well done" Will for thee resound.

Dear readers allow me to introduce to you my little sister, Koma whose name will appear with mine for a while under the South Lowell items.

L. H. G. and Koma.

Durham, Route 6.

Misses Maude Sorrell and Belle Markham are drilling their pupils for an Easter entertainment.

Misses Eva, Belle and Tina Ross spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Era King.

Post-cards are all the go now. Watch out, girls; don't let someone puzzle you.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. May spent Sunday in Durham.

Misses Maude Sorrell and Belle Markham spent Saturday and Sunday near Gorman at Miss Markham's home.

Miss Belle Ross spent last week with Miss Era King.

Mrs. Annie Cash spent a few days with her parents last week, Mr. and W. S. Hodges.

Girls, hereafter when you start to walk don't get scared at a loose horse. If you do, you may happen with worse luck than falling in a gully. The "wee" one said she thought it was time to run.

Wiley May and family spent Sunday in Durham with Mr. May's mother.

Durham, Route 5.

Last Sunday morning, at 9:30 o'clock, there was a marriage at D. S. Garrard, Esq., when his oldest daughter, Miss Ada, was given in marriage to Mr. Sol Hester. Rev. John Carden, of West Durham, spoke the words that made them man and wife. We wish them a long, happy and prosperous voyage over the sea of time.

Fletcher McAuley and Miss McGhee, both of West Durham, were married last Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. May peace and blessings attend them.

A little visitor has taken up his home at John Bell's. It's a little boy.

A horse kicked Tommie Cates last Sunday, striking him just over the heart, and came near causing death. He revived, however, and in a few hours seemed to be all right.

Miss Cyndy Rhodes, the only daughter of J. R. Rhodes, has been very sick with some kind of throat trouble and grip. The doctor spent Sunday night with her and she was resting some easier Monday.

J. F. Latta spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Ben F. Hester.

A fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hester Sunday morning.

W. R. Shambley cut his foot severely a few days ago while hewing crossties.

La grippe has the entire family of B. F. Hester in its ruthless grasp.

Ed King, one of the employes at the pump-house, is able to be out again after a severe attack of pneumonia.

There was a called meeting of the board of education of Orange county Monday to consider consolidating the four districts formerly mentioned in this correspondence into one. There were representatives there from all the districts save one. Some were in favor of and others opposed the movement. The outcome was that nothing definite was accomplished. We hear that there was quite an animated discussion over the matter. If they will pardon us for expressing an opinion in the matter we would like to say that it seems to us this matter rests entirely with the board, and that they should do their duty without fear or favor, or being pulled about by any faction or party. We have always thought that the four districts would make one entirely too large if consolidated, thereby compelling some of the children to go a long distance and making it impracticable for them to go at all in bad weather. We hope the matter can be adjusted peaceably and justly and without engendering any bitterness, which now seems to be threatening.

Rougemont, Route 3.

Sunshine and showers tell us that March has come again.

Miss Sarah Gray is still very sick. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Misses Annie Carden, Ella and Martha Walker, spent Saturday and Sunday with their teacher, Miss Maggie Laws. The young men of that community would be glad to see them again.

Miss Annie Gray, of Durham, is visiting home folks.

Master Royal Tilley is on the sick list.

Miss Mary Russel closed her school at New Bethel Friday. She gave a candy stew which was enjoyed very much.

Claud Gray visited his cousin, Robert Gray Sunday.

Thomas Roberts, aged about 70 years, passed away at his home last Monday, February 25. Heart trouble was the cause of his death. He leaves a wife and ten children to mourn his death.

Henry Laws and cousin, Miss Blanche Laws spent Sunday with Miss Ida Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pool gave the young people a dance Saturday night. All report a nice time.

The school at Poplar Grove will close March 15. Everybody is invited to attend its commencement exercises.

Chas. Nichols and Miss Annie Gray spent Sunday at Mrs. Mollie Wilson's.

Henry Laws will leave for Durham Monday. We wish for him much success.

E. J. Gray crossed the river and filled his regular appointment last Sunday evening. But I don't suppose he preached to but one person.

Buffalo News.

Do everything well, make that the rule of your life, and live up to it and you will find it most conducive to your own happiness, and to the happiness of those with whom you are brought into contact or communication.

Miss Annie Gray, of Durham, has returned to Durham after spending several days with her mother. Mrs. Gray is very feeble. We hope she will soon recover.

Miss Koma Holden is boarding with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Garrard and attending the South Lowell school.

Bunnie Laws and Miss Velma Bobbitt spent Sunday with Misses Daisy and Annie Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pool gave Ed Wilson a dance Saturday night. Ed invited his friends, there were goodly number present, and the occasion proved to be one of pleasure.

We were pained to hear of Mrs. W. G. Mangum's illness. She has a large number of friends on Buffalo, who wish for her a speedy recovery.

One of our Buffalo boys is growing very anxious to visit Durham, he seems to be in trouble. Cheer up boy, no matter how discouraged and sad hearted we may be, if we will just look up we can behold life's sun still shining, and we may find that each cloud, no matter how dark it may be, has a silver lining.

Around Gorman.

There is still right much sickness around our little village, but most of the patients are convalescent we are glad to know.

Rev. Mr. Pace spent Saturday night with J. D. Rycroft and family. Mr. Rycroft is somewhat better.

Mrs. Mary Crabtree, who was carried to Raleigh to the State Sanatorium sometime ago, is no better. She was carried for her mind.

Lucius Cheek and sister, Miss Eary, spent Saturday night with A. J. Hall's family.

Mrs. Dock Gooch returned Sunday, from Durham where she had been on a visit to relatives.

John W. Barbee, an aged citizen, died near here Sunday of heart trouble, he had been declining health for a long time. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. W. Fisher, and the remains laid to rest at old family burying ground near East Durham. He is survived by a wife and three children.

Lewis Walker, a colored man died near here Monday, he had been ill several days. Pneumonia was the cause of his death.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Holloway spent Wednesday in Durham.

J. H. Holloway spent Tuesday in Durham on business.

Misses Eva Hall and Addie Wheeler, recently spent the night with their school mate, Miss Delia Glenn, on Durham, Route 4.

Miss Lula Addison, of the O. & C. junction, is still confined to her room we regret to learn.

T. C. Markham, of Durham, and sister Miss Belle, of Bilbao, spent Saturday night and Sunday with home folks. Miss Belle was accompanied home by Miss Maude Sorrell, they were given a delightful party by the Misses Markham. Having ten couples of their friends present, they played games, made some fine music and whiled away the time very pleasantly. Come again girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moring, of Durham, visited relatives near here Sunday.

W. W. Ferrell and B. L. Shaw called on the Misses Hall Sunday night.

There will be regular services at Robersons Grove Sunday. Come and hear Mr. Beach.

W. H. Jones and Paul Shaw, of Philadelphia, called on some of the "Fair Sex" near here Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Holloway spent Sunday afternoon with Tom Holloway and family.

Last but not least, our mail carrier goes around with a greasy mouth, now as he killed three hogs last week. Guess he wishes hog killing time would last the year around.

Obe Tingen is able to be out again, his many friends will be glad to learn.
