Love at First Sight.

There was a quiet marriage here last Monday that was a result of what is generally termed "love at first sight." The contracting parties were Miss Mamie Howerton, formerly of Roanoke, Va., and Mr. Frank Bennett, of New York. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of Mangum Street Methodist church.

The bride came here some time ago from Roanoke, Va., has been stenographer for General J. S. Carr. The groom came to Durham from New York, and had known his bride just one week before marriage. The couple went up to Greensboro, where they spent several days before coming back to Durham. They will remain in Durham for two weeks or more before leaving for their future home in the North.
