The Rise of Jimmie Johnson.

IX.—VERY MUCH JOHNSON.

Junior Partner Johnson bought the interest of Jones. Now the whole establishment this ADVERTISER owns. Used to be an office boy, but found a way to rise. Learned to be of value, then he learned to ADVERTISE. See next issue for continuation.

From the Chapel Hill News.

Prof. N. C. Curtis, of the department of Architecture at the University has recently received an urgent call from the President of the Alabama School of Technology at Auburn to accept the professorship of an organized department of Architecture at that college. Prof. Curtis has not accepted the professorship but has the offer under consideration. The present architectural and drawing department at the State University was first organized by Mr. Curtis and is now one of the largest and most important branches of the University course.

Pittsboro held an election Monday to authorize a tax of 30 cents on property and 90 cents on the poll for the establishment of a graded school for the Pittsboro school district. The school tax had a majority of 24. There were 65 registered voters; 49 votes cast for school, 4 against and 12 not voting. Pittsboro is keeping up with the procession, along with other progressive towns.

The smallpox scare in West Chapel Hill has about subsided, and the town has lifted the quarantine regulations against that place. The citizens out there are to be commended for the steps they took in trying to prevent the spread of the disease.

The remains of F. L. Terry, aged 24 years, who died at a hospital in Salisbury Sunday night of typhoid fever, were sent to his home at Hillsboro for interment.

From the Roxboro Courier.

Some one broke in the store of Mr. H. J. Rogers again last Friday night. This is the third or fourth time his store has been robbed. His loss this time was about $50.

The Dispensary has been in operation in Roxboro two years last Saturday. During that time the town has received $6,500 and the county roads $6,500, making a total of $13,000.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mitchell, of Wooddale, died last Monday morning after a lingering illness lasting through several years. Mrs. Mitchell was in her 85th year. She leaves five sons and one daughter to mourn her death besides many other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pass returned home last Friday morning from Asheville where Mr. Pass had been under the treatment of Dr. Burroughs for the past 8 months. It is indeed gratifying to his many friends to see him so much improving in health. Mr. Pass expects to return to Asheville about the middle of May and will spend the summer there.

Mr. T. O. Sharp and family left last Friday morning for Durham where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp have resided in Roxboro for the past ten or twelve years, and it is with regret that we see them leave, but our loss will be Durham's gain. Mr. Sharp will continue in the marble and tombstone business, in which line he has built up a nice business. He goes to Durham because the field is larger, and he can get better freight rates. We wish him much success in his new home. The people of Durham will find in him an excellent citizen. His partner, Mr. Joe Burch will not go at present, but will remain here for a short while in order to wind up the business here.

Mix This at Home.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to readily relieve and overcome any form of Rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter from the blood and system all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter, relieving at once such symptoms as backache, weak kidneys and bladder and blood diseases.

Try it, as it doesn't cost much to make, and is said to be absolutely harmless to the stomach.

Get the following harmless ingredients from any good pharmacy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sassafras, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

This simple mixture is said to give prompt relief, and there are very few cases of Rheumatism and kidney troubles which will not go completely away.

These are all harmless everyday drugs, and your druggist should keep them in the prescription department, if not have him order them from the wholesale drug houses for you, rather than fail to use this, if you are afflicted.

Durham Minister Married.

Laurinburg, N. C., April 3.—This evening at the home of the bride's parents was solemnized the marriage of Miss Ruby Hynes McKay to Rev. William Chas. Barrett, of Durham.

The occasion was necessarily a very quiet one owing to the recent death of the bride's brother, but the scene was one of unusual beauty. The decorations consisted of potted plants and white carnations, a lovely arch from which a wedding bell was suspended and under which the bridal party stood was a feature. The guests were met at the door by Misses Lelia May Gill, of Laurinburg; Helen McLendon, of Wadesboro, and L. Ruby Reid, of Wake Forest.

The bride came in with her maid of honor, Miss Robertta Coble, of Laurinburg, and joined the groom, who had proceeded there with his best man, Mr. W. H. Weatherspoon, Jr., of Durham.

Mendleson's wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. J. T. Fields, who entered with the bride's brother, Mr. A. G. McKay, and while the bride's pastor, Rev. W. H. Whitehead, performed the impressive ring ceremony she played "The Flower Song."

The bride was charmingly attired in a going away gown of grey voile over taffeta with hat and gloves to match and carried bride's roses. The maid of honor wore blue silk with hat to match and carried white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of the Baptist University for Women and is one of the most popular young women of the state.

The groom a graduate of Wake Forest college and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, is pastor of the Second Baptist church of Durham and is one of the brightest and most promising young men in the denomination.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrett arrived in the city last week and are for the present at the parsonage of the Second Baptist church, having taken rooms with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whitaker, with whom Mr. Barrett has been living since he has been in Durham.

The Fourth Ward Meeting.

Citizens of Durham living in the fourth ward held a general mass meeting last Friday night. A good crowd was in attendance, and it was about fixed when the meeting was called to order that the ward would recommend the nomination of N. Underwood and J. D. Pridden.

When W. H. Weatherspoon announced that the meeting would come to order and stated the purpose of the call for the meeting, and asked for nominations the trouble began. W. B. Guthrie came upon the scene advocating the idea of "doing away with a ward primary and going to a general mass-meeting" at the court house and giving his reasons, concluding by saying that he was for the old board "tooth and nail."

Jas. H. Southgate was elected chairman of the meeting and R. O. Everett, secretary. At this juncture Mr. Guthrie and his followers walked out of the meeting.

The result of the ward meeting was that N. Underwood and J. D. Pridden were chosen as the choice of those present. The vote cast in this meeting was 155, and when the votes for nominations were counted there were 103, showing that about 50 of those that voted for the election of a chairman were gone.

Opening of New Church.

Sunday last was a memorable day for the members of the Second Baptist church of this city. It was the occasion of the opening of their new church. In the Interest of Road Bonds.

As had been announced a meeting of all citizens interested in the county road bond issue met at the court house last Saturday. The good to be derived, the expense, and in fact the questions that naturally arise over the issuance of bonds, was discussed, and a motion was made and carried for the appointment of committees to have charge of an active campaign for bonds.

Speeches were made by Messrs. G. W. Watts, I. F. Hill, E. J. Parrish, H. A. Foushee, V. S. Bryant, J. S. Manning and Dr. W. I. Cranford. Chairman of the county commissioners, A. D. Markham was elected chairman and J. M. Umstead acted as secretary.

The Durham High school and Raleigh High school debated at Raleigh last Friday night. The Raleigh boys won! The speeches of the boys of each school were said to be of a high order and showed that the students of these high schools were close observers.
