SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOLUME 87. DURHAM, N. C., APRIL 19, 1907. NUMBER 102.

The Rise of Jimmie Johnson.

XII.—IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

Rise of Jimmie Johnson—was it merely due to luck? No, indeed! The boy DISPLAYED a leading LINE of pluck; WANTED things and ADDED them; so Jimmie Johnson's rise Proves the proposition that IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

NEWS FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS

Items of Interest from Various Places as Viewed and Told by Those on the Field.—Personals.

From Ceffo.

We farmers would be so glad if the weather was warmer. Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Jordan and Hudie Tillman were guests of J. R. Long the first Sunday. Tom Long, from Virginia, was a visitor in this community this week. He reported cold weather and a busy time with the farmers.

Little Dena Tingen spent one day last week with Misses Quella and Alma Long. Quite a small visitor, isn't she?

Miss Era Long and Hudie Tillman spent Sunday with Mrs. Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Long visited their mother, Mrs. John Carr, near Loch Lily Saturday night.

Banks Wade, from near Leasburg, spent Tuesday night with J. R. Long's family.

"J. A. C." doesn't travel the "Ceffo Roads" as often as usual, and the reason is apparent to those that know the news.

Mrs. Pat Jordan spent last week in Roxboro with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Oakley recently visited their brother, C. H. Duncan, near South Boston, Va.

Lester Oakley and Miss Perkins were married Sunday.

Little Kathleen Jones is spending some time with her grandmother, Mrs. Bettie Bowling.

Rev. J. D. Bowen preached a fine sermon at Redmountain Baptist Church Sunday. His subject "Sins of Christians." Redmountain people are very much pleased with their new pastor.

Redmountain Baptist church has decided to hold a "memorial service" in honor of one of the oldest members, a founder of the church, Capt. Wm. Bowling, who died March 18th, at the next regular appointment 2d Sunday in May.

The women of Redmountain church were all smiles Saturday when they entered their Missionary room and found one of their numbers, Mr. J. E. Bowling, of Durham, had seated the room with nice chairs.

Rufus Bowen was right sick Sunday.

Miss Asa Rhew is on the sick list. Grippe seems to attack many.

With great sympathy we chronicle the death of Mrs. James W. Bowling, the wife of our kind and accomodating mail carrier. Mr. C. A. Anderson is supplying just now.

Wm. Cash was sick Monday. Glad to know he is better.

From Timberlake.

P. L. Tapp is having a porch built to his house. J. F. Reams is doing the carpenter work.

J. H. Garrett is making many improvements on the Moore farm and the rabbits will not be quite so fruitful.

Mrs. Ida Reams is having her dwelling house painted, which will add much to its appearance.

Most of the farmers in this community are ready to plant corn and are waiting for the weather to get warm enough. Some farmers contend that the week after the third Sunday in April is the best time to plant corn.

Some people say that April is borrowing some days from December, as well as March, and the recent weather indications seem to be pointing in that direction.

Leonard Barton took in his mink traps a few days ago, as he is now turning his attention to the farm.

V. Berry was around a few days ago buying hens. Mrs. Roper and Mrs. W. A. Barton sold him thirty fine hens, and by this time Durham or some other market is picking their bones. It makes our mouths water when we think how they enjoy eating those fat hens.

The fleas are said to be devouring the tobacco plants, and some say this will prevent them from planting half a crop.

J. F. Reams spent an evening with Roper. We enjoyed his visit.

I will again give my text and outline of a sermon I preached last Sunday. You will find that I was advocating the sufferings of our Savior and His following glory. "The sufferings of Christ and the glory that should follow."—I Peter, 1:11.

I. How did Christ suffer?

a. He suffered in mind, as He was called the Prince of the Devil.

b. He suffered in mind, as He was betrayed by one of his disciples.

c. He suffered in mind, as He was denied by Peter. d. He suffered in mind, as He was falsely accused.

e. He suffered in mind, as He was spit upon.

f. He suffered in mind, as He was mocked.

g. He suffered in body, as He was an hungered.

h. He suffered in body, as He was buffeted.

i. He suffered in body, as He was scourged by Pilate.

j. He suffered in body, as He was bound and carried from one court to another.

k. He suffered in body, as He took his cross and was nailed to it on Calvary.

l. He suffered in body, as He was smote, sceptered and crowned with thorns.

m. He suffered in body, as He shed his precious blood.

II. Let us think about His following glory and be happy.

a. The glories of a crucified body.

b. The glorious halo of light encircling Him.

c. The angels gloriously appeared at His tomb.

d. The glories of His gospel.

e. A glorious victory over death and sin.

f. His was a glorious resurrection.

g. His Cross is now glorious.

h. A glorious triumph for a lost world.

i. Every saved soul will add glory to Christ.

j. A glorious salvation complete for all who will believe in Christ.

k. A glorious ascension amid squadrons of angels.

The writer filled his appointment at Rock Grove church on last Sunday and Saturday before and spent a portion of Sunday evening with Bro. Johnnie Long, who is one of my best members.

It has been reported that one of our young men went over to see his best girl and continued his visit just about through the recent cool spell and his horse got so fat that he mired up in the stable and he had to hire a negro to dig the horse out.

Roper cut forty-five cross-ties on his new canal in five days and he only had seven second-class ties in the lot, and the price being 35 cents for second-class and 50 cents for first-class ties, the lot netted me $21.40, and will get wood enough off the land to do me throughout a hard winter.

I will turn the red cow loose some time this week to consume the brush, after which I will start my Coulter, so as to make ready to plant some June corn.

We are sorry to learn that B. I. Satterfield is somewhat mopey with sore throat.

There will be a baptizing at Flat River church on the fourth Sunday.

Kidnaping is becoming so common that it would be well for our next Legislature to pass a law making it a hanging crime and not allow money to screen the offender in the least.

ROPER.

From Green Level.

Misses Kinpie Yates and Mattie Harward spent Saturday night at Carpenter, visiting friends and relatives, and report having had a good time.

V. L. Riggsbee and B. J. Yates spent Sunday evening near Carpenter.

Misses Lessie Riggsbee and Hallie Brown and Wannie Riggsbee spent last Saturday and Sunday with the Misses Wellans, near Cary.

Between frost and flies the tobacco plants of this section and Apex have nearly all been killed.

H. W. Baucom was welcomed last Sunday to Green Level by the following preachers: Bro. Livingston Johnson, who preached the sermon; Rev. W. Saline, who gave the charge; and Rev. J. H. Campbell, who offered the prayer. A large number of people were present.

The school at Carpenter closed April 9. A large assemblage was present, and all seemed to enjoy the occasion, but they all had to stay out-of-doors, for the house was too small to hold the pupils, much less the visitors. Notwithstanding this curtailment of space Mr. Walton knows how to conduct a school and also how to arrange an entertainment. The program will be published in next issue. HUSTLER.

From Rougeant, Route 2.

Death has invaded our community again, and another of our oldest citizens has been called. J. I. Cothran died at his home at an early hour Tuesday morning in the 83d year of his life. A complication of diseases caused his death. Mr. Cothran left a wife and four children, one daughter, Miss Allie, and three sons, Messrs. I. N., C. H. and Walter Cothran. The remains were laid to rest in the burying ground at Bethel Wednesday.

It has been announced that Mr. Isaiah Carver, a Christian disciple, will preach in Rougeant school building at 11 o'clock the first Sunday in May.

A Sunday school was organized at Redmountain Sunday at 9:30 o'clock. W. P. Mangum was elected Superintendent, D. L. Critcher was elected secretary and treasurer, and Mr. William Bowling, Misses Pink Glenn, Corinne Bowling and Mollie Bowling were elected teachers.

Umstead and Edgar Mangum were the welcome guests of Miss Lillian Lunsford Sunday afternoon.

S. D. Nichols has business over the creek right often.

If Jimmie doesn't mind he will have to sow his turnip patch again.

Watch out, boys, you will have to stay off Buffalo. E. M.

Speeches on Good Roads.

The discussion of the bond issue of $300,000 for road improvements in Durham county is being discussed both privately and publicly now. Those in favor of the issue of the bonds are holding public meetings and speeches are being made, while those opposed to the issue are saying little in a public way.

Messrs. J. S. Manning and Victor S. Bryant addressed the Merchants' Association at the court house Wednesday night, and while the attendance was not large those present were enthusiastic for the measure, and the speeches made were up to the standard of speeches usually delivered by these gentlemen.

Next Saturday Mr. Victor S. Bryant and E. H. Bowling will address the citizens of Rougeant on the question of issuing bonds.

On Monday Messrs. J. S. Manning and W. G. Bramham will speak at Bahama for good roads.

On Wednesday W. G. Bramham and R. H. Sykes will speak at Couch's store.

All who can should attend these meetings and hear what these gentlemen have to say on the question of issuing bonds for public road improvement.

John Love, a negro, was bound over to court by the mayor for the larceny of a pair of shoes from S. Hockfield one day this week.
