The farmers are very busy getting ready for planting, and some have already planted.

We are very sorry to report the serious illness of Mr. C. E. Cope. His many friends wish for him a speedy recover.

I. L. B. Penny, of Lillian, N. C., was a visitor at the home of A. M. Thompson recently.

Frank L. Cope, and Miss Albertie Hailey were married on Wednesday night, April 3d, at the home of the brides parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hailey. The parlor was beautifully decorated in green and white. The bride was attired in cream silk and lace trimmings, with hat and gloves to match. The maid of honor was Miss Emma Hailey, sister of the bride, and the best man was Mr. Ector Cope, brother of the groom. The waiters being Norman Smith and the writer; Willie Thompson and Ola King; Clinton King and Maggie Pollard. After the ceremony was performed by A. M. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Cope left for their new home. The bride is the daughter of J. S. Hailey, and a sister of J. R. Hailey, who runs the Capital Shoe store of Raleigh, N. C., and is a charming young lady of Wake county, having a large circle of friends throughout this and other counties.

The groom is a son of C. E. Cope and is a prosperous young farmer, and is very popular. Mr. and Mrs. Cope's friends wish them many years of happiness and success.

The new Methodist church at Pleasant Grove was dedicated Sunday, a large crowd was present and all report having a good time. The presiding elder, Rev. Mr. John preached two very fine sermons which were greatly enjoyed by all that heard him, great many people of Raleigh and Cary attended.

The public school at Ebenezer will be out Friday April 26, and will give an entertainment Tuesday night April 30. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Carrie Hailey is on the sick list this week, but her friends hope that she will soon be well again.

Miss Alma Herring spent Saturday night with Misses Carrie and Emma Hailey.

We are glad to report that Miss Cornelia Blake who have been sick is well enough to be out again.

Hurrah! for Roper, I think his letters get better, and I certainly do enjoy reading the outlines of his sermon. I think they are fine. How many have read the chapter that his text was taken from?

Bushy Fork.

Carl Hester and sister, Miss Claudie, attended the marriage of their brother, Walter, at Hillsboro last Wednesday.

There was a fire at John Long's saw mill last Friday, April 19th, but very little damage was done as the flames did not reach the lumber pile.

Rev. E. W. Thomasson filled his regular appointment at Clement Baptist church the third Sunday in this month and he preached an excellent sermon which I wish every one could have heard.

The lumber is on the ground to build Mr. R. H. Malone a new residence.

The young ladies of Clement Baptist church are endeavoring to raise money to purchase a silver communion set. Hope they will be successful. BUSTER.

Buffalo News.

We hail this beautiful weather with joy, hope May will not be as cold and changeable as April.

The little birds were singing their sweetest songs, and the sunshine felt pleasant, I concluded to visit my chosen retreat for the first time since the sweet summer days last June, I walked to the front door I had covered with moss, a more God forsaken spot I never saw, I sat down on the mossy rock to meditate, lo I saw a snake crawling from his hiding place among my vines, and a lizard, dear life I was frightened and I left without gathering my little wild flowers.

Charlie Hall and Miss Willie Gates spent Friday night with Lote Wilson and family.

Ed Mangum's surroundings are nice, he is leveling up his yard, planting flowers, which adds greatly to his home. That is right Mr. Mangum, make things around home sweet home look as inviting as possible.

Thursday night, April 25, as the golden and crimson sun was sinking behind the western hills, a large crowd gathered in the beautiful grove at South Lowell to enjoy an entertainment given by Mrs. J. F. Garrard, at the close of the school. The rostrum was a scene of beauty. The entertainment was a perfect success. I never enjoyed anything better. The drill by the little boys and girls was splendid, they proved to the crowd they had been well trained. The teacher, Messrs. John, Isaac and Will Terry furnished some nice music.

Miss Mary Leathers, of Durham, spent Friday night with Misses Mary and Mattie Terry. Mary's many friends were glad to see her at South Lowell again.

Mrs. Magarett Canady and daughter, Miss Emma, of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Murdock, of Hillsboro, spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Garrard, of South Lowell.

The remains were taken to Morrisville Sunday and from there seven miles into the country where the burial took place.

The wife of Mr. Lewter died several years ago and he left nine children, six daughters and three sons. They are as follows: Mrs. Bettie L. Davis, Mrs. Estelle Gooch, Mrs. Venona Riggsbee, Mrs. Meroa Gibson, Miss Nellie Lewter, Miss Lillian Lewter, Messrs. George F., William H. and Madison Lewter.

The Trinity College baseball team defeated the A. & M. College team last Saturday by a score of 4 to 2 in one of the best games of the season.

Capt. William Bowling.

Born Nov. 5, 1817. Died March 18, 1907. Married twice. First wife Miss Martha Jones, to whom was born eight children, three of whom are living: viz: J. G. Bowling of Greenville, N. C., Mrs. A. W. Umstead and Mrs. Hugh Holloway both living in Durham county.

Second wife Miss Bettie W. Tapp, of Orange county, survives. This union was blessed with five children, all of whom are living, viz: Dr. E. H. Bowling, Durham, N. C., B. P. Bowling, Rougemont, N. C., Mrs. J. E. Bowling, Durham, N. C., Mrs. Sam H. Jones, Granville county, and Miss Corinne Bowling, Rougemont, N. C.

Brother Bowling was converted to Christ at about the age of 23. He joined Shady Hill Missionary Baptist church, but moved his membership to Knapp of Reeds Baptist Church, where it remained until Red Mountain Baptist church was built. He joined Red Mountain among the first. He was an active deacon in his church until old age and feeble health caused him to offer his resignation. The church would not accept it, but made him an honorary deacon, which position he held the remainder of his life. He was Superintendent of the first Sunday School in Redmountain church. He always gave the church his fervent prayers, his financial support and his presence. He and his faithful wife (last one) were the beginners of Red Mountain church, and for some time he paid nearly half of the pastor's salary. Even after he could no longer attend he always gave to all the objects to which his church contributed. He was an honorary member of our W. M. S. and paid his dues regularly. Since its organization (1882) he has been the financial backbone of the church.

Not only was he kind and interested in his church, but to all who needed. He never said "No," when called on by the poor.

In conference April 13, 1907 Red Mountain church expressed its deepest regret at its loss and made the following resolutions:

1. Resolved; That we extend to the widow and family our heart-felt sympathy, and may the Saviour sustain and comfort them in their sore bereavement and may the beautiful example of his life be reflected in theirs.

2. That this church has lost one of its most beloved charter members and influential saints, and the community one of its most worthy and honored citizens.

3. That the broken-hearted family, sorrowing kindred, acquaintances and our distressed church should not mourn as those who have no hope, but rather rejoice, because he was the life and death of the righteous.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be recorded on our church book: and a copy be sent to each the Biblical Recorder, and Durham Recorder for publication.

Death of Mrs. Ora Yearby Edwards.

Mrs. Ora Edwards, wife of Dr. W. H. Edwards, died at the Yearby House last Thursday afternoon. Drinking of carbolic acid was the cause of her death, and whether it was done intentionally or accidentally is a mystery.

Mrs. Ora Blanche Yearby Edwards was the daughter of Lemuel M. Yearby, who was a merchant in Raleigh many years ago and who died before the family moved here to cast their lot with Durham and Durham people. She was about 34 years of age. Her mother died a number of years ago and all that remains of the family are the two brothers, Messrs. W. M. Yearby, one of Durham's and the state's most prominent druggists, and Adolphus Yearby, who is with his brother in the drug business. There are also two children, one son and one daughter, and her husband.

Mrs. Edwards has been a citizen of Durham for twenty-five years, having moved here when she was a child. She was a member of the Trinity Methodist church, and before coming here was a member of the Edenton Street church in Raleigh.

The funeral was conducted from the Yearby house Friday afternoon by Rev. G. T. Adams, after which the remains were interred in Maplewood cemetery.

The R. F. Webb Camp.

An interesting meeting of the R. F. Webb camp of Confederate veterans was held at the court house last Saturday, and the attendance was larger than for some time past.

Several matters of special interest were considered and decided upon: It was decided that the camp should be represented at Richmond at the unveiling of the Jeff Davis monument, and it was ascertained that at least 125 veterans would go from here.

It was decided at this meeting that the camp would join the Daughters of Confederacy in the celebration of May 10. The program will be prepared later. After the exercises that will take place in the graded school building the Daughters of the Confederacy, the old veterans, school children and others will march to the cemetery, where the graves of the Confederate dead will be decorated with flowers. A band will make music for the occasion and the salute will be fired as a part of the exercises at the cemetery.

Meeting of Doctors.

Doctors of the sixth districts of the North Carolina Medical society were in session here last Friday. About forty physicians were present and a pleasant and profitable meeting was held. Dr. A. W. Knox, of Raleigh, was president and Dr. Joe Graham, of this city was secretary.

Two papers were presented by Durham doctors: One by Dr. N. M. Johnson on "Disinfectants," and one by Drs. Joe and W. A. Graham on "A Report of Limited Surgical Experience." All visiting doctors present were high in their praise of the manner in which they were entertained by the local doctors.

A dinner was served at Carolina Hotel after the meeting adjourned.

Tar Heel Council No. 2 Jr. O. U. A. M. presented Holt school with a bible and flag last Friday with appropriate exercises. In addition to the Juniors that went from here quite a number of people went out to be present at the exercises of the school that were held at night.
