

THE DURHAM RECORDER.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOLUME 88.

DURHAM, N. C., JULY 30, 1907.

NUMBER 23.

NEWS FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS

Items of Interest from Various Places as Viewed and Told by Those on the Field.—Personals.

from Timberlake.
Messrs. Marvin Sneed, of this place, and Charley Timberlake, of Durham, were recently on Barton's mill pond fishing, and they said that they did not get a nibble, and Mr. Dunn told them that the fish had all been caught up and killed out by saw dust.

William Clayton has been carrying the mail a few days on route 5 for J. W. Chambers, as Mr. Chambers' wife is now confined to her bed with typhoid fever.

W. A. Barton attended services at Clemont church on the 3rd Sunday.

Miss Florence Reams is now on a visit to relatives in Virginia.

J. F. Reams attended Children's Day services on last 3rd Sunday.

Misses Sue Rogers and Miss Laura Tapp are now on a visit to relatives in Durham, Hillsboro and Burlington.

Mrs. J. T. Cates is in very feeble health now, and it is supposed that it is caused from a fall she received several years ago.

A very large audience attended the Children's Day service at this place on the 3rd Sunday, and the exercises were very instructive and were greatly enjoyed by all present. Rev. J. B. Thompson made a talk that was grand, by referring to the child Moses, to the child Samuel, to the child Jesus, and a quoted a scriptural expression "a little child shall lead them." After Bro. Thompson closed his remarks he called on the writer and several others to make speeches and it was right amusing when he called on Bro. John Vanhook, and he excused himself by saying that he was very much in the condition that a Bro. was whom a preacher called on to pray and the Bro. told the preacher to excuse him as he did not come prepared to pray.

"The harvest has passed, the summer has ended, and we are not saved."—Jer. 8:20.

The pitch fork that I lost I am glad to say has been found, and is at home.

The writer attended the Farmer's Institute that was held in Roxboro on last Monday, and I think that the farmers went home greatly benefitted in hearing those able speeches made by Messrs. Parker and Hurst, and I think that those speeches will do much to aid the farmers to take nigh cuts in farming and to use economy in labor. Mr. Parker said that they wanted to make farming so intelligent that our boys would not leave the farms to go to the towns. I met Mr. W. A. Woody, of Bethel Hill, who was at the institute, and it was a treat to me to again meet Mr. Woody, who proved to be a true friend to me while in school and I would class Mr. Woody among the most high-toned people of Person.

Our revival service is on this week at Rock Grove and I solicit the prayers of all who read The Recorder for the success of the meeting. Bro. B. D. Thames is assisting me in the service.

Add W. A. Woody, Denniston, Va., as a new subscriber.

ROPER.

Lillian, Route 1.

The weather is very hot but not withstanding crops are hustling, and we clod hoppers have begun to smile instead of gain. Corn crops are fine and it is now expected that corn will be better in this section than for several years. If anyone has any water melons in this neighborhood they will either steal or buy them.

Fruit is very scarce and the ladies do not know what to do with their fruit jars. They are boasting on having ham and chicken for the meetings.

We are glad to note the sick of this community are improving. Rev. H. E. Martin had a young lady to call at his home for board and lodging one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. O'Neal, Edgemont, spent last week in this community visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. S. H. Nichols and son, Bud, of Gorman, spent one day recently with Mrs. Nichols father, A. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shepherd, of Elberon, Warren county, are visiting friends in this community.

Mrs. A. D. Ross spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. King.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson spent last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Candace O'Neal.

We understand that Z. P. Ferrell and son, Eddie, are sick with fever.

The writer is lucky in getting his neighbors horses to finish plowing his crop.

Glad to know that our editor took such a nice trip and enjoyed it so fine, and hope he may have others to take and may enjoy them as he did this one.

Daniel Hinton was sent to the roads for twenty days one day last week for vagrancy.

THE RAILROADS SURRENDER.

The Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line Attorneys Accept the Governor's Ultimatum.

The agreement made yesterday afternoon in the office of the Governor of North Carolina by the Governor Glenn for the State, and by the general counsel of the Southern and Atlantic Coast Line Railways on behalf of their roads, by which the 2 1-4-cent State rate goes into effect by August 8th, and by which a procedure of an orderly legal contest is agreed to by the railroads, all present indictments to end, is a complete vindication of the position and demands of Governor Glenn, and is a complete surrender of the railroads to the laws of North Carolina, which they have been violating since the first day of July. The full text of the important document by which the sovereignty of the State is acknowledged is as follows:

1. The railroad puts the 2 1-4-cent rate into effect not later than August 8, 1907.

2. The State to appeal from the order of Judge Pritchard discharging parties in Asheville on writ of habeas corpus.

3. The Southern Railway appeal to the Supreme Court of North Carolina in the Wake County case, and if the case is there decided against it to take the case by writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States.

4. That both sides co-operate to have both said cases advanced and argued together and speedily determined.

5. The State at its option to indict the Atlantic Coast Line in one case.

6. All indictments and prosecutions now pending to be dismissed and no other indictments or prosecutions to be instituted for any alleged violation of the law, up to the time the new 2 1-4-cent rate is put into effect under this arrangement, as far as the Governor can control the same.

7. The Governor advise all people against bringing any penalty suits pending final determination of the questions involved and ask the people as a whole to acquiesce in this arrangement.

8. The suit pending before Judge Pritchard to be diligently prosecuted without the State, however, waiving any question of jurisdiction.

Signed, Alfred P. Thom, Alexander P. Humphrey counsel for the Southern Railway and R. B. Glenn, Governor.

Messrs. Thom and Humphrey also as counsel for the Southern Railway Company undertake that the Southern Railway will not inaugurate contempt proceedings because of anything heretofore done by any of the State officers in connection with the rate litigation, and will do what it can to prevent the inauguration of any such contempt proceedings.

This arrangement between the Southern Railway and R. B. Glenn, Governor, is also assented to by George Rountree, attorney for A. Nelson Buckley and others, complainants, and Alexander Hamblint, General Counsel for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, except that they do not consent that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company shall be indicted in one case, but as to that leaving the State at liberty to do as its sense of duty may dictate.—Raleigh News and Observer, July 23.

Death of Miss Rogers.

Miss Lola Rogers, daughter of W. H. Rogers, died at the Watts hospital a few minutes before 1 o'clock this morning of typhoid fever. She had been gradually growing worse for several days, and for the past few days her life had been despaired of.

Miss Rogers was the eldest daughter of W. H. Rogers, one of the oldest citizens, in point of residence, in this town and was an estimable young woman. She was and had been for years a member of the First Baptist church, and interested herself in church work.

Besides a father, she leaves a brother and a sister, Mr. Winston Rogers, of Oxford, and Mrs. Waller Holiaday, of this city.

Held Under Big Bond.

Walter Hobbs was arrested and tried Monday on the charge of intimidating a witness. The charge against Hobbs is that he made an effort to get a witness that would appear against him in whiskey cases to leave town so that he would not testify against him.

It is said this is not the first time such things have been done with witnesses that knew information against that would convict. After hearing the evidence the mayor bound Hobbs over to the court in a bond of $1,000.

The name of the Durham Photo and Supply Company is to be changed to the Piedmont Supply Company, and many improvements will be made in the Holladay studio and the present house of this business.

Rev. G. P. Bostic, former pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, who has been a missionary in the foreign lands, was here last Sunday and preached to his former congregation last Sunday.
