SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOLUME 88.

DURHAM, N. C., AUGUST 20, 1907.

NUMBER 31.

NEWS FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS

Items of Interest from Various Places as Viewed and Told by Those on the Field.--Personals.

From Timberlake.
Several of our farmers have planted their turnips and they are coming up and looking well. Some of our neighbors are now curing tobacco and some of the weed has a good color.

C. H. Tapp recently went to the Jamestown Exposition and he has returned home. Two of his sons, D. J. and Archie Tapp, are now at the Exposition.

Revival services will begin at Antioch on the fifth Sunday in October.

A Mr. Denny, of Kentucky, is visiting his brother, A. M. Denny of Neptune, and his sister, Mrs. W. B. Brooks, of Timberlake. He is accompanied by his daughter and they will spend some time here before returning home.

A friend who recently went to the Association locked his wagon and drove all the way to his destination before he discovered the fact. If the widower's mind was absorbed on account of his thinking of a certain lady we will excuse him for not unlocking his wagon.

A revival service will begin here at the Methodist church on the third Sunday in September.

The writer baptised four candidates at Rock Grove on the second Sunday and we are looking for others to come in at our next regular appointment so four have been received by baptism and three by restoration.

"The Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from evil."—2 Thess. 3. 3.

I. Think of some respects in which the Lord is faithful.

- He is faithful to his promises.
- He is faithful to shield his people.
- He is faithful to supply all our needs.
- He is faithful to share our sorrows.
- He is faithful to us when tempted.
- He is faithful to us in life.
- He is faithful to us in death.

II. God's child is at his right hand. He will establish you.

- He will establish you in the faith.
- He will establish you in his power.
- He will establish you in his joy.
- He will establish you in prayer.
- He will establish you in God.
- He will establish you in His way.
- He will establish you in well doing.

III. The Lord has pledged himself to keep His children from all harm and evil.

- The Lord keeps them from the evil of intemperance.
- The Lord keeps them from the evil of dishonesty.
- The Lord keeps them from the evil of lying.
- The Lord keeps them from the evil of pleasure.
- The Lord keeps them from the evil of bigotry.
- The Lord will keep them from every evil as long as the eye of faith is fixed on Him.

At her home on the 14th, Mrs. Susan G. Cates, wife of J. T. Cates, departed this life. Mrs. Cates was born November 12th 1831, and was married on the 20th of February, 1851. Mrs. Cates was confined to her bed most all the time for three and one half years and was helpless a great part of the time. But as she had a tender and devoted husband and a multitude of friends she did not lack for the very best attention, and if she could now speak out from the mansions above in her natural voice, what praise and appreciation she would express from a loving heart to those loved ones and friends.

Mrs. Cates was a member of Mt. Zion Methodist church and was faithful to attend until her hearing became impaired and her health gave way. However, she did not neglect her prayers and was ever faithful to her Bible and to her God.

On one occasion this scribe had the pleasure of asking her if she loved Jesus and I never saw a brighter or more heavenly expression light up ones countenance and her eyes were drowned in tears, and I will never forget that look of her eyes betokened in praise of Him whose blood had cleansed her soul from sin and then she began to relate her sweet experience of her Christian life, how she had tried to honor and serve the Lord, the one that she loved and delighted in more than all earth combined. Mrs. Cates often spoke of her only angel child that preceded her to the glory world in infancy, and she was perfectly resigned to go and be with her darling child. Her life proved that there were angelic visitors near by waiting to conduct her home. She saw her chariot and death approaching but she feared them not as her room was bright and full of angels and she went from her bed of intense sufferings to a bright and shining crown, to sing with Jesus who had folded her dear child in His arms.

To her friends, loved ones and dear husband, weep not for her, but prepare to meet her and your God some day.

Almost Fatal Accident.

Friday afternoon an east bound passenger train No. 136 was approaching the city, and when nearly opposite Trinity College, the engine struck a wagon and completely demolished the same. The driver of the wagon drove his team on the track just as the train was in a few yards of the crossing and before the engineer could do anything towards stopping the train, the wagon was struck and the negro man was thrown out and bruised up considerably. No one seemed to know him and he left the scene before any of the railroad men had time to question him. He was evidently not hurt very much as he walked away and no one knew what direction he took.

Death of J. G. Tilley.

After a lingering illness, J. G. Tilley, whose home has been near Couch's store, died last Saturday. Mr. Tilley was about 70 years of age and had been in feeble health for some time. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon being conducted from Pleasant Green church, after which the remains were laid to rest in the burying ground at the church.

S. B. Burch, of the W. A. Slater Company, is now on the Northern markets purchasing goods for his company.

Mrs. Mary A. Gilmore Dead.

Saturday morning at 4:30 o'clock, at her home in West Durham, Mrs. Mary A. Gilmore, age 60 years, died. The cause of her death was a general run down system with other complications. She left two sons and three daughters.

Sunday afternoon the remains were carried to the old home in Sanford for interment, accompanied by many friends of the family.

Barbecue at Lakewood Park.

Last Saturday was a great day for the employes of the East and West Durham and Pearl cotton mills. The occasion was the entertainment by the management of all hands employed in the mills mentioned.

Everything that goes toward making a good barbecue dinner was served, and ample preparations had been made for all that were present when the dinner hour arrived. Messrs. W. A. and J. Harper Erwin were present to see that all their employes had a good time, and in this they were assisted by the foremen of the mills. A pleasant day was spent by all.

City Board of Health.

The city aldermen held a lengthy session last Monday night. The most important matter was the report of the committee of health appointed at a previous meeting, which recommended the following:

- That a committee on health be created.
- That the committee on health be created, to-wit: Mayor, one alderman, health officer and two physicians—said physicians to be elected by the committee on health to serve in advisory capacity with the committee on health—shall from time to time make recommendations to the board of aldermen, if they see fit, a place for meat and milk inspection.
- That the board of health so created shall recommended to the board of aldermen the duties of the health officer.
- That the term of office of the board of health shall be the same with that of the board of aldermen with whom they serve.
- That section 9, chapter 14 of the city ordinances be repealed.

He Wore a False Beard.

For some time reports have been coming from West Durham that some man out in the woods near that place was selling whiskey and when witnesses were questioned they were unable to tell from whom they purchased their booze. Efforts to get information to cause the arrest of anyone have proved futile.

Last Sunday officer Joe Pleasants went out to the woods where it was reported that the whiskey was being sold. It was not long before he located his man, but when he approached the guilty man took to his heels and a chase followed. However, he landed his man and a trial was had Monday and Will Payne was bound over to court in a bond of $200, which he could not give and was locked up. The reason Payne could not be recognized was due to the fact that while selling whiskey he wore a false beard, and when the days' business was over he would return home with the beard missing. When he was caught and the beard removed the officer realized that he had captured a man well known to them as an old offender.

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS.

A. A. Strayhorn, who has made this city his home for practically all his life, has gone to Wilmington, where he will reside.

The Durham Hosiery Mills base ball team won over the West Durham team in a game of ball last Saturday with ease. The score was 13 to 3.

Look for and read the new ad in this issue of T. W. Wood & Sons, of Richmond. They have something to say of interest about Alsike Clover.

The military boys who attended the Jamestown Exposition last week, returned home Saturday morning. Each one reports having had a fine time.

Miss Cora A. Hobgood was united in marriage to Eugene C. Penny last Sunday night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Barrett at the home of R. D. Barker on Willard street.

Those who were injured by jumping off a street car near this city last Thursday afternoon are getting along as well as can be expected. None of the injuries received have proved fatal up to this time.

E. H. Lawrence, of this city, received the sad news last Friday that his father, John Lawrence, who resided in Brassfield township, Granville county, was dead. Mr. Lawrence attended the funeral and burial.

Miss Lula Addison died at her home near the Junction of the O. & C. and S. A. L. railroads last Friday. She was about 25 years of age and had been an invalid for some years. The funeral and burial took place Saturday.

Adolphus Honeycutt was right badly hurt Friday while passing across the street in front of the Trust building. He was struck by a bicycle and knocked to the ground. His hurts were not of a serious nature and he will be all right in a few days.

The home of John Green, East Main street, was robbed last Saturday evening. The robber entered the house from the rear and secured a hand bag which contained something over $4 in money, some silver knives and a vest, and made his escape.

Louis Barbee, a negro, shot a woman by the name of Maggie Green, Monday evening. He escaped soon afterward and has not been apprehended. It is said that the shooting was accidental, and the facts are hard to get at. The wound inflicted by the ball was through the calf of the leg, and is not at all serious.

The telegraph strike has reached Durham and two of the operators, E. A. Hood and G. S. Dorson, have quit work until the matter now being discussed is settled. J. G. Frazier, who has held the position of manager for the Western Union has resigned his position and will not return to work until the strike question is settled.

Visiting Relatives in Person.

F. R. Warren, who has made his home in Cuba the past several years, was in the city last Friday and part of Saturday. He was on his way home in Person county where he will spend a short time visiting relatives. He has been connected with the American Tobacco Co. in Havana, and left that port Saturday, August 10th. He will return to his post of duty again in a few days.
