SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOLUME 88.

DURHAM, N. C., SEPTEMBER 24, 1907.

NUMBER 41.

NEWS FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS

Items of Interest from Various Places as Viewed and Told by Those on the Field.—Personals.

Rougemont, Route 1.

The many friends of Mrs. John Rhew will be grieved to know of her sickness.

Rufus Jeffres spent Friday in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Carver and Joe Timberlake returned home Friday from Norfolk, where they had been taking in the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McCutchen are visiting in Virginia among Mr. McCutchen's relatives.

Mrs. Capt. Bowling spent a few days in Durham visiting her son and daughter.

Protracted meeting begins at Rougemont Sunday. Rev. Mr. Hoyle, of Durham, Mangum Street church, is to assist Mr. McFarland. Mr. Hoyle is a fine preacher and we hope to have a great revival.

Protracted meeting is to begin at Bethany Baptist church the fifth Sunday. Rev. E. R. Harris, of Hamlet, is to do the preaching.

Little Kathleen Jones returned home Sunday, after spending the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Capt. Bowling.

The attendance at Redmount Sunday school continues to be good notwithstanding the hot weather. Prayer services are held every fourth Sunday.

J. J. Thacker and family visited John Rhew Sunday.

Mrs. E. W. Thacker is sick her many friends will be pained to know. We hope her speedy recovery.

School at Rougemont had a large opening. We have a fine principal in Mrs. Rufus Bowen.

From Timberlake.

J. P. Bussey, of South Carolina, passed this way a few days ago. He was trying to sell family bibles and other books.

Roger Wilkerson and wife passed here last Saturday morning and we supposed that they spent the day with Mrs. Mollie Satterfield.

Miss Hettie Rogers will teach district school, number 1 this year.

A young couple were recently driving along the road and when just in front of Roper's house they suddenly turned around and went back the same way from whence they came. Such conduct peculiar at the time, but I have learned that they were a courting, which explains such acts.

Miss Hettie Rogers has purchased a new piano.

W. A. Barton expects to go to the Jamestown exposition this week and I am expecting an interesting account of the big show when he returns.

A revival is being held by the Methodist congregation here this week, and I hope much good will be accomplished.

Mrs. A. G. Satterfield has 26 fine pigs for sale.

The farmers say that they never saw a more favorable time for sowing feed and much of it is being stored away.

Ira Rogers and wife, and his mother and her two daughters, Misses Bessie and Hettie, are at this writing on their way to the Jamestown exposition, and there is no doubt but it will be interesting to hear what they have to say of the exposition when they return.

R. I. Satterfield says he would not take $100 for what he saw while at the exposition, and it is reported that he saw "the old boy," and that he told them he was not going to stop there, for said he, "I am going to a better place than that."

Roper had Charles Cameron employed to help him pull fodder. While pulling on the canal we had to bend down the stalks because they were so tall, and Cameron said it reminded him of pulling down trees. Well, Charlie did the bragging, but it was true, as I never made better corn since I have been farming. However, on the same ground some time ago, before I dug a canal, no corn could be made worth anything. So much for good drainage.

For benefit of Recorder readers, I will give the following information in regard to telling the age of a horse: After a horse has reached the age of nine years he will have a wrinkle over his eye for each additional year. I find this to be a true test so far as I have been able to ascertain from personal knowledge.

Mrs. J. H. Howard and her daughter, Miss Lula, spent last Friday evening with Mrs. R. E. Jones. It was learned that Mrs. Howard's son, Johnie, had the misfortune of having a horse step upon his foot, mashing off one of his toe nails. Well, Johnie, Roper knows how to sympathize with you as I lost a finger nail by a wild hog biting me through the finger, and I also dropped a 12 pound sledge hammer on one of my big toes, and the nail slipped off like an eel slipping through your hand, and if that does not make a boy hop and skip nothing will. But as nails grow back, I now have nothing to complain of.

ROPER.

The Richmond Fair.

Richmond day at the Virginia State Fair, to be held in Richmond October 7-12, will be celebrated on Wednesday, October 9th, and will vie with Bryan Day, October 11th, for first place in point of interest and attendance.

The School Board will declare Wednesday, October 9th, a holiday, thus an opportunity of attending the fair on that day.

The City Hall and other public buildings and offices will also be closed, and the leading merchants will close their places of business on Richmond Day. The closing of factories and business houses will be made as general as possible, so that all of Richmond may participate in the movement and if possible make Richmond Day the crowning event of the week.

The executive committee is urging merchants to decorate their places of business for fair week. Nothing will add more to the festive spirit of the occasion than myriads of flags, streamers, and banners displayed on the principal streets. Already a number of merchants have decided to decorate, and the movement will, no doubt, be general.

Durham is to have a baseball team for next summer. Plans have been perfected, and all arrangements will be made to have a strong team in Durham, which will be a member of the state league.

C. J. Tilley Dead.

C. J. Tilley, who has been ill at Watts hospital for two weeks or more, died early last Saturday morning. Typhoid fever was the cause of his death, and he left a wife and other relatives to mourn for him.

The remains were carried from the hospital to the home of a home of a sister on Lyon street, from which the funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. E. R. Leyburn. Mr. Tilley was a member of Tar Heel Council No. 2, Jr. O. U. A. M., and was buried with the rites of that order.

Mr. Tilley was 36 years of age and was united in marriage about ten months ago. The wife is now confined to her bed with the same disease that caused the death of her husband.

Death in West Durham.

Mrs. Cecelia Blue, of West Durham, died suddenly late Thursday night and Friday her remains were taken to her old home at Morganton, where the interment took place.

Mrs. Blue was 47 years of age and was the mother of seven living children, the oldest child now being eighteen years of age. The husband and father has been dead for several years and the children are left alone in the world.

The deceased was as well as usual Thursday but as night came on she was taken ill. The illness terminated in her sudden death.

Death in Granville.

Mrs. Fannie Peed, of Knap of Reeds, Granville County, died Wednesday night and was buried near her home Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The funeral was conducted by Rev. C. W. Robinson. The age of Mrs. Peed was 63 years. She leaves only one daughter, Miss Myrtle. Mrs. Peed was a daughter of the late J. C. Cozart, of Granville county. She was an aunt of Mrs. J. C. Hundley and Mrs. E. C. Piper, of this city. Both of these attended the funeral and burial.

Death of Mrs. Bettie Barbee.

At the age of 50 years, Mrs. Bettie Barbee, wife of P. B. Barbee, died at her home two miles east of Durham, last Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Sometime ago she was operated on for cancer, and this was the cause of her death.

She left a husband and six children, together with other relatives, to mourn her death. The remains were carried to Asbury and the interment took place at the church Saturday afternoon.

Death of Mrs. S. C. Hughes.

Last Saturday at 11:45 Mrs. S. C. Hughes, who has been suffering of typhoid fever passed away at her home on Angier avenue. Mrs. Hughes was 23 years of age and left one son, about two years of age, and a husband to mourn her death.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Autry, pastor of Branson Methodist church, after which the remains were carried to Creedmoor for interment.

In a game of ball between a team of the Durham Hosiery Mill and Trinity College last Saturday the latter won the game. This is the second game these teams have played and each has the distinction of winning one game. Next Saturday they expect to play off the tie.

Both Sent Over to Court.

Our last issue contained an account of a young man at Graham stabbing his teacher for slapping him while on the grounds of the school. The young man was arrested and the trial took place last Saturday.

Lawyers appeared for both and the trial lasted until dark Saturday evening. Prof. Allen was fined five dollars and the cost for slapping the boy and young Shields was bound over to court under a bond of $150. Shields gave bond, but Prof. Allen refused to pay the fine and gave bond in the sum of $100 on appeal to the superior court.

Many Cases Before the Mayor.

As usual the mayor had many cases to claim his attention last Monday morning.

Sam Taylor, Joseph King, Bob Marrow, negroes, were up on the charge of an affray with bricks. King was bound over under a bond of $100 while Taylor and Marrow only gave bond in the sum of $25.

Cornelia White, a disreputable negro, was arrested Saturday by policeman Pendergrass and gave all kinds of trouble. She was fined $5 and the cost for being drunk and bound over to court under a bond of $25. She went to jail.

Many other cases for drunk on Sunday were called and each fined to the limit of the law.

Killed by a Baseball.

Greensboro, Sept. 23.—To the list of fatalities resulting from baseball is to be added another, the victim this time being a resident of Walnut Cove. While witnessing a game of ball at his home at Walnut Cove Saturday afternoon, C. T. Willis, a white man of middle age, was hit on the head with a baseball just above the right ear and received a wound from which he later died. The lick at once rendered him unconscious and he never regained consciousness. He was brought by Dr. A. G. Jones, of Walnut Cove, to the hospital here yesterday afternoon, but the blow was such a serious one that he died this morning at 3 o'clock. A post-mortem examination showed that his skull was not broken, but the doctors discovered that the blow caused such a jar to his head as to cause hemorrhages of the brain, and his death is attributed to this.

The body was turned over to E. Poole, the undertaker, who prepared it for burial, and this afternoon it was taken back to Walnut Cove for burial. Mr. Willis was 32 years of age and is survived by a wife and several children. The remains were accompanied back to Walnut Cove by Dr. A. G. Jones and Mr. John A. Burton.

Died in Edgemont.

Mrs. Wilson died in Edgemont Friday morning. She had been ill but a short while. The funeral and burial took Saturday.

WANTED—Men, Women, boys and girls to represent McClure's Magazine. Good pay. Address 67 East 23 St., New York City.

What Our Reporter Saw in New York.

A recent visit to one of the largest paint factories in the world, disclosed machinery that was producing 10,000 gallons of Paint, and doing it better and in less time than 100 gallons could be made by hand mixing. This was the celebrated L. & M. Paint. The L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years. 4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes 7 gallons of paint at a cost of less than $1.20 per gallon. If any defect exists in L. & M. Paint, will repaint house for nothing. Donations of L. & M. made to churches. Sold by Hackney Brothers, Durham.

FACTS

CAN'T BE RUBBED OUT

Here are some: Paint is the only preservative known for building; the better the paint the longer it lasts. The DeVoe paints are rich in color, durable and don't peel off. If you are painting your house or barn use DeVoe's paints.
