NEWS FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS

Items of Interest from Various Places as Viewed and Told by Those on the Field.—Personals.

Buffalo News.

The farmers in this community are through sowing wheat and gathering corn. Some are breaking up corn land and getting up Xmas wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Tilley spent Sunday afternoon with Lote Wilson and family.

The bird hunters are having a nice time killing birds, game is very plentiful in this community.

Mr. Perry and a painter from Durham are painting the school house at South Lowell. When finished it will add greatly to the looks of the house. Mrs. J. F. Garrard our excellent teacher, is teaching in a cabin near by.

Charlie Wilson, formerly of Burlington, but now of Buffalo, paid a flying visit to Burlington Saturday. Guess his many friends were glad to see him.

J. P. Clark bought a fine young cow Wednesday, giving $24.50, and Sunday she became tangled in a chain and died. Quite a heavy loss as cows are very scarce in this community.

House, Route 1.

We are very glad to note that Miss Luzie Moss, the music teacher of Bay Leaf school, who has been very sick with sore throat, is able to be teaching this week.

A great number of the pupils are absent from school this week owing to having the measles.

The writer spent Saturday night at the home of her father, R. H. Smith, on Cary, Route No. 1, and attended service at Pleasant Grove Sunday morning which was greatly enjoyed.

Last Tuesday the death angel visited the home of Yancey Bailey, and claimed for its own his dear wife, Mrs. Susan. She was 74 years of age, and had been ill a long time. Consumption was the cause of her death. She left a husband, seven children and several grand children and a great many relatives and friends to mourn her sad death. The children are Messrs. Paul, Job and Duncan Bailey, Mrs. J. D. Clark, Mrs. W. L. Nipper, Mrs. D. W. Hackney and Miss Velera Bailey. She had been a member of Bay Leaf Baptist church forty years, and had always lived a pure, noble christian life, and was loved by all who knew her. The husband lost a devoted wife, the children a loving and sympathetic mother and the community a very near and dear friend. The funeral was conducted at her home by Rev. W. H. Hutcherson Thursday afternoon and the body was laid to rest in the family burying ground. I extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

There was a wedding in the community Saturday night, "but no wedding bells," it was a runaway marriage. The contracting party being Harvey Davis and Elen Cooley. Their friends wish them many years of happiness and success.

Dr. E. W. Sikes of the chair of History of Wake Forest, has been invited to lecture at Bay Leaf School Friday evening, 7 o'clock, Nov. 29. The public is invited to attend.

The cotton is about all picked, and the farmers are holding their cotton for higher prices. L. S.

Rougement, Route 1.

Mr. Lee Riley and family have moved to our neighbor hood.

Their many friends give them a hearty welcome.

Mr. Odie Mincey spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents. He is boarding at Mrs. Capt. Wm. Bowling's and attending school at Rougemont.

The Sun Beam Society is to meet at Red Mountain Baptist church, the first Sunday. Every member is requested to be present. A very interesting program has been prepared, also the Xmas stockings for China will be given to each Sun Beam on that day.

Prayer meeting is to be held at Red Mountain church next Sunday after Sunday school.

Red Mountain folks are to clean up their church yard next Saturday evening. All the members are requested to be present as there is a great deal of work to be done.

The reports of guns are heard often since the 15th. The partridges are being hunted.

Mrs. Wilkins left for Roxboro last week to be gone for some time.

Some of our people attended services at Bethany Saturday.

Mr. Lee has moved near Lyncovover. Mr. John Parker having the place where he lived.

Mr. Edgar Mangum and Miss Cora Clark, visited the Flat River section Sunday evening.

Mr. Charley Glenn, who is building the vestibule to Red mountain Baptist church, spent Saturday and Sunday with his wife in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carver visited Mrs. Carver's parent Saturday.

Lillian, Route 1.

Jack Frost has made his appearance and tells us that winter is on hand, and the man that is now picking cotton will have some sore fingers.

Most of our people are now getting up corn and the crop is fairly good.

There is but little sickness in the community at present.

There is lots of good ammunition being wasted in this section for most everybody is bird hunting, and hunter is our name for we could not be classed as a killer.

Z. P. Ferrell and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. Sallie Ferguson, and visited J. E. Ferrell's family Sunday night.

J. E. Ferrell and son had the good luck to kill a fine turkey a piece last week. Guess they will go hunting again.

J. H. Egerton, of the Durham county home, spent Saturday night and Sunday with home-folks.

There was a very pretty home marriage ceremony solemnized at the home of Mrs. Candace O'Neal Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, when her daughter, Miss Tessie, was given in marriage to James W. Carpenter. There were a number of relatives and friends present. Rev. J. S. Thompson spoke the words that made them husband and wife. After the marriage the young couple and their friends attended services at Union Grove church, after which the marriage party drove to the home of D. N. Carpenter, father of the groom, where a sumptuous dinner was served. J. F. F.

WANTED—Men, Women, boys and girls to represent McClure's Magazine. Good pay. Address 67 East 29 St., New York City.

A Double Wedding.

There was an important event in Graham Tuesday afternoon when two daughters of Col. L. Banks Holt were united in marriage. Both ceremonies were at the home of the brides' father and there were present quite a number of the friends of the parties. Rev. E. C. Murray, pastor of the church in Graham, was the officiating minister at both these weddings.

Miss Louise Holt and Mr. Victor Graves and Miss Mollie Holt and Mr. Pal Nacross were the couples united in marriage. Both of the grooms are from Atlanta. The marriage vows were said at the Presbyterian church at 6:30 o'clock. Immediately after the vows the couple went on a bridal trip and will locate in Atlanta.

Marriage in Granville.

There was a pretty marriage at the home of Mr. James T. Aiken, Northside, Granville county, on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Lillian Catherine Aiken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Aiken, was given in marriage to John Garland Fleming. The marriage vows were said at the home of the bride's parents.

There were present at the marriage a large number of the friends of the contracting parties.

Immediately after the marriage vows the parties went to the home of the groom where a reception was held. This was at Lyons and there were present the members of the families and a number of the friends and relatives.

A Surprise Marriage.

There was a surprise marriage at the home of Rev. J. H. McCracken, pastor of the West Durham Methodist church, last Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock when Mr. Charles A. Johnson, aged 27 years, of Reynolds, Illinois, and Miss Elsie Elizabeth Norman, of East Bend, this state, were married. The bride gave her age as 22 years.

Mr. Johnson has made Durham his home for sometime, being tuner in the employ of the W. R. Murray Company. His bride has also resided in Durham for quite a while. While it was known that the young people were sweethearts the marriage announcement was a great surprise. Only two of three friends accompanied them on the important trip.

Quiet Home Marriage.

There was a quiet but a very pretty marriage at the home of Mr. Thomas H. Crews, Canal street, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock when his daughter, Miss Elsie, was given in marriage to Mr. M. M. Marshall, of Germantown, this state. Rev. C. J. Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated at this marriage.

The groom came here from his home in Forsyth county and in the application for his license he gave the age of 31 years. His bride's age was given as 19 years. He is said to be a well known business man in the county named.

Quite a number of the friends of the couple attended the marriage and went with them to the union station when they left on the morning train for their home.

Pretty Home Event.

There was a pretty home marriage at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Newton, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Mable, was given in marriage to Mr. Duncan Turrentine. This was at the home on McMannen street. Rev. C. J. Thompson officiated at this marriage. Quite a number of the friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the marriage.

The party entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Christine Rosemond, a friend of the bride.

Just before the couple entered the parlor there was a solo, "You," that was rendered by Miss Rosemond.

The groom is the son of Mr. W. D. Turrentine, of Stagville, and he has been in the tobacco business for a number of years. He is now located at Charleston, S. C., and is buying tobacco for the American Cigar company, with whom he is employed. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Newton, this city. She is a young woman who has a great many friends here and whose marriage was a popular social event. Immediately after the marriage the newly married couple left on a bridal trip, after which they will go to Charleston, S. C., to make their home.

Married at Parsonage.

There was a very pleasant social event at the parsonage of Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, last Tuesday night at 8 o'clock when Mr. Samuel L. Hunt, of Chatham county, and Miss Pearl Williams, daughter of Policeman L. F. Williams, were made husband and wife. It was a very quiet affair on account of the illness of the bride's mother.

Only a few of the most intimate friends of the parties were present when the vows were said. Mr. Hunt, the young bridegroom, is a very prominent saw mill and lumber man and he is well known in this section. His bride formerly lived in Chatham county, but came here when her father decided to make Durham his home. There was no objection to the match on either side, but it was thought best to have a very quiet affair, since the mother is now so ill.

The newly married couple will make their home in Chatham county, and they left Wednesday morning for a short bridal trip before they go to their home.

Damage Suit Begun.

John W. Riley has qualified as administrator of the estate of the late John Wilkins and suit has been entered in the superior court for damages against the Southern railway in the sum of $2,000 and the complaint filed with the clerk of court.

Wilkins was killed in August by a train on the O. & C. Railroad, when he stepped from the Seaboard track to the Southern. The suit will be docketed at the approaching term of Durham superior court for the trial of civil cases.

Any young lady who desires an education and who is really without means with which to pay for it may write to J. M. Rhodes, Littleton, N. C.

What Our Reporter Saw in New York.

A recent visit to one of the largest paint factories in the world, disclosed machinery that was producing 10,000 gallons of paint, and doing it better and in less time than 100 gallons could be made by hand mixing.

This was the celebrated L. & M. Paint. The L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years. 1 gallon L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes 7 gallons of paint at a cost of less than $1.20 per gallon. If any defect exists in L. & M. Paint, will repaint house for nothing. Donations of L. & M. made to churches. Sold by Hackney, Br. & Co., Durham.
