From Timberlake.

The Reams boys had two cutting frolics recently.

John Ashley has tobacco plants up, and no doubt but what Mr. Ashley will plant soon if the weather is suitable.

Button Dunn had a pig to leave home, and Mr. Dunn sent his children after the pig, and the animal took a nigh cut by swimming the mill pond and beat the children home, and Mr. Dunn dotes on his pig making a fine hog as it can swim deep water.

J. H. Reams is now doing carpenter work at Louis Daurels in the way of making some up-to-date addition to Mr. Daurel's residence.

A Jewish peddler came this way a few days ago, and gave the following remedy for curing chills: He said when one felt the chill coming on to wash in cold water from the knees down, from the elbows down to the hands and face, and said that there would be no more of that chill.

A Mr. Walters, the chicken peddler who came this way from Pine Knot said that "the phone wires were so numerous that they were called the merry-go-round, and said that the crows had all left as they were afraid that they would be entangled."

C. H. Tapp and family spent last Sunday with Mrs. W. A. Barton.

J. A. Terry took charge of the depot at this place instead of Bowen and Murray, so I am not responsible for what is reported to me.

Hurdle Mills.

Spring time is about here and it makes us feel good to see the farmers stirring the ground once more in preparation of their garden and etc. Most everyone is through preparing their seed beds for tobacco plants.

We believe that the physicians statistics show a greater amount of sickness and death this winter than any other time we ever knew of.

Several of our people attended the "Clansman" in Durham Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn gave a most enjoyable Washington birthday party Friday night, it was to have been on the night prior to His birthday, but owing to sickness it had to be postponed until the time mentioned above.

The programme consisted of old time games, plays, etc., refreshments, all of which was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

Rev. R. H. Jones will preach at the Hurdle Mills Academy on the 2nd Sunday in April.

G. T. Sally is very sick and is not expected to live.

It was the writer's pleasure to attend the Fiddler's Convention held in Roxboro Monday and Tuesday nights, March 3rd and 4th. There was a very large crowd present and the music was indeed fine.

DEATHS.

Again our vicinity is visited by the magic wand of death. This time bearing away as its victims two good christian women. The subject of this notice, being Mrs. Mollie Horton, wife of Mr. Basley Horton. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Mollie Sally. She leaves a husband and nine children, the youngest being but a few days old at her death. Mrs. Horton was a good christian, being a member of the Baptist church for many years. The greatly bereaved family have the sympathy of everyone. The remains were laid to rest at Walnut Grove church.

Mrs. Ellie Davis widow of the late Asa Davis died Sunday March 1st. For several years she had been a great sufferer. Her life had been one of length and great usefulness. She leaves one son any three daughters, and a host of devoted friends to mourn her departure all of whom have our deepest sympathy. Her remains were interred at Salem church there to await the call of her Master in whom she had the most devoted faith. A. P. D.

German Notes of Interest.

Everything is very dull around here, there is still lots of sickness in this community, the Drs. will be rich soon unless a change takes place one way or another. We hope sickness will soon cease. Our postmaster Mr. Hall is able to attend to the office again we are glad to know.

Mrs. W. T. Holloway recently spent sometime with her sister, Mrs. Jas Ferrell in Durham. Mrs.

Ferrell is suffering from a complication of diseases. Miss Blanche Holloway, is convalescent, she has been confined to her room with pneumonia.

Messrs. Con and Wiley Fogleman, recently went over to Durham on business.

Charles Husketh, is having a new addition added to his home.

Misses Malissa and Bessie Markham have returned from Knap of Reeds, where they visited friends, they report having had a fine time, and attended a party Feb. 29, at Mr. Roberts home, which was enjoyed by all present.

J. F. Glenn is still very ill we regret to learn.

Miss Emma Veazey is on a visit to relatives in Gorman.

Miss Eva Hall recently visited her sister Mrs. Carl Colclough at Morrisville.

Dr. Ward was a Durham visitor this week. Also was A. M. Hall.

Wylie Sykes school closed at Bethesda Friday owing to measles being in the school.

"Dewey," the little pet pug of all that knew her died recently. She did not run mad as many heard. So we hope the mad dog scare will go no farther.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Perry, of Durham recently visited relatives near here.

There will be services at Roberson's Grove Sunday at the usual hour, all are invited to come.

It looks now as if Spring has made its appearance, we hope it may continue warm so we can have a good fruit year.

A little boy recently said a peach would cure the tooth ache, this year if such be true we hope to have a full crop. B. M.

A Sad Death.

The South Lowell community is again made so sad by the death of another loved one, Mrs. William S. Terry age 58 years and 11 months died March 3, 1908, at her home after an illness of several weeks with pneumonia.

Mrs. Terry was a noble woman was, blessed with a genial livable disposition, and will be sadly missed by her loved ones and friends, loved ones left their bruised hearts submissively to God but don't know why.

All that medical skill and kinder care could do, was done but to no avail, she was called home to glory.

She leaves an aged husband four sons, three daughters and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn her sad death. 'Tis hard, oh so hard, to look at mothers vacant chair, but may you be comforted by the blessed thought if you live right you will meet mother again. The writer has visited Mrs. Terry's home a number of times and had learned to love the kind woman.

Mrs. Terry sleeps beneath the Majestic Oaks at Mt. Lebanon church. May God comfort the bereaved one.

"A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still:
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled,
God in His wisdom has recalled,
The boon his love has given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is still in Heaven."
Rougemont, N. C. M. K. C.

Bahama Items.

Mr. Wm. Bacon of Flat River was in Durham yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff F. Turner of Hillsboro, visited Mr. and Mrs.

J. D. C. Turner last Sunday and Monday have returned to their home.

Once and a while we hear a man speak of hard times and that a panic is brewing. Would say the farmers are in good spirits and well they might be, for how can a money panic hurt a farmer that has a plenty bacon in his smoke house, wheat in his garner and plenty corn in his crib, and getting good prices for his tobacco, and in many cases a nice snug sum in the bank to his credit, surely we should stop grumbling and be more thankful for what we have and are.

Would like to hear from our Buffalo and Helena correspondents regularly.

From Stem.

Most farmers in this section are plowing and burning plant beds. However, all are backward with their work on account of so much rain.

Mr. Mack Suit passed away at a ripe old age near here on the 2d of March. The burial took place March the 4th near Hester, and many friends and relatives attended the last sad rites. He was an old soldier and faithful member of the Primitive Baptist church. I extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved. iD. W.

Opening the Campaign.

Hon. J. C. Pritchard is to open prohibition campaign for Durham county at the Academy of Music next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, March the 15th.

In obedience to the action of the executive committee of the Anti-Saloon League of Durham county, held March the 9th a mass meeting of the citizens of the county is hereby called to in the Academy of Music at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, March 15th, 1908; for the purpose of inaugurating the prohibition campaign for Durham county.
