

THE DURHAM RECORDER.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOLUME 89.

DURHAM, N. C., APRIL 21, 1908.

NUMBER 100.

NEWS FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS

Items of Interest from Various Places as Viewed and Told by Those on the Field.--Personals.

Union, Route 1.

Farm work is being rapidly pushed in this section, and everybody wants to plant some cotton next week. Almost everybody is done planting corn, and much fertilizer is being hauled by our neighbors, and some of them say they will get their money back this fall with 8 cent cotton.

Glad we had such nice showers Wednesday night and we certainly appreciated them, for the ground was getting mighty hard.

There will be some fruit in this section. Some of the peaches were missed by the cold wave and a pretty good crop of apples are expected, while pears and plums will not be so plentiful.

Dr. O. T. Ray attended the bedside of Mrs. John Johnson Wednesday, and I am glad to report that she is much better at this writing. Hope she will soon be well again.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. John Gooch that has had appendicitis is very much improved and there appears to be some hopes of final recovery.

Little Herbert Grissom, who had his leg broke some time ago, is getting along very nicely.

H. M. O'Neal has been at work some this week and says that his foot is almost well. Guess he has five toes more than he at one time thought he would have.

Mrs. S. H. Nichols and son, David, of Gorman, spent Saturday night and Sunday with the family of A. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. P. Ferrell spent Sunday with the family of J. L. King.

The writer and family spent Sunday afternoon at the home of E. L. Tilley.

Mrs. Sallie Ferguson and family spent Sunday afternoon with A. Ferguson's family.

Any one wishing to get some fine pigs will call on J. E. or C. E. Ferguson and if they fail it will be because the other fellow got there first.

Green Level News.

A. A. Maynard who lives near Carpenter is very ill. He has Bright's disease.

Misses Mallie and Goodman Roberts and Miss Sarah Bowling, of Durham, are spending Easter with friends.

Misses Fedda and Lessie Stanfield of Durham, are spending a few days at the home of L. S. Yates.

Tobacco plants are fine and are about ready to be transplanted. Raymond Yates has returned home from Cary High School.

W. Scott, and his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Lassiter, spent Easter in Durham shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Baucum spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. J. J. Yates.

I am sorry to state that W. H. M. Yates is on the sick list.

HUSTLER.

From Roxboro Route 5.

We are sorry to hear of Mr. Barnett Moore's recent sickness but we are glad to hear that he is improving.

Rev. J. K. Faulkner spent last Monday night at Mrs. W. A. Barton's. He filled his regular appointment at Antioch on last Saturday and Sunday.

It was reported that one of our neighbors talked on his new phone when he got home and couldn't talk.

Some of our neighbors have been planting corn for the last two or three days, but it seems like planting it in the winter time while it may be sunny and warm in time to cause it to sprout and emerge from its once cool bed.

Mrs. Ida Reams will soon have crapped collards, but she set out her cabbage last winter.

Miss Laura Tingen who has recently been afflicted with catarrhal fever is now improving and will soon be out again.

I live about half way between Roxboro and Timberlake, and will give what news I can get from both places, as I have some true and tried friends in both towns.

To-day is good Friday and some of the housewives are planting their garden beans for good luck.

Ex-Governor Aycock will deliver an address in Roxboro on the 21. His theme will be prohibition and those who do not understand prohibition had better attend, for Mr. Aycock is able to tell you about what prohibition is.

I recently delivered 4 Greenville washers, and I cannot afford to take less than $7 as I make the order, pay the charges, set up the washer and deliver them. I expect to treat all alike by selling the washers strictly at $7, and I hope that no one will try to take the advantage, by ordering the washer thinking that they can get them at a reduced rate. Mr. C. H. Tapp says that the washer is more to his notion than any washer he ever saw.

Mr. Lawrence the timber man has moved his timber force to Dengiston junction. He cut lots of large oaks and poplar, while among us, but the forest does not look much thin since the leaves are putting out.

On last Friday I spent something like an hour at Helena, and if the wagons continued to come and go with fertilizers during the day like they did while I was there no doubt but what lots of pockets were made thinner and lighter, while some other pockets were made thicker and heavier.

Louis Daniels and wife recently went to the Thomas Bartons place or formerly the old Daniel farm, to see if he could locate the grave of his grandfather. It is supposed that Mr. Daniel has been buried a hundred years or more so it was difficult to find any trace of his grave as no epitaph was pointing to his last resting place.

I cannot call to mind the time when I ever preached to a more bright, refined and intelligent congregation than at Hurdles Mills on last Sunday, and I never spent a more pleasant and enjoyable evening than with our Hurdles Mill correspondent, Mr. A. P. Daniel, who is admired and loved by all who know him, and the Hurdles Mills people are proud of their boy who is offering to noble and grand things in life. Doubtless he will occupy conspicuous pages in the papers of the county, state and very likely of the world. ROPER.

A mad dog was killed by the police here Sunday morning. It is said that quite a number of other dogs were bitten before he was shot.

Death of Major Morehead.

Major J. Turner Morehead, of Spray, died Sunday night in New York after an illness lasting several months.

The message here yesterday to Mrs. John F. Wily, a niece, and Mr. J. L. Morehead, a nephew, conveyed but the smallest intelligence surrounding the illness and death. The telegram was answered by the relatives going to Spray where the funeral will be held to-day.

Major Morehead was the last surviving member of the famous Morehead family. He was a son of Governor John Motley Morehead, whose administration brought imperishable luster to his own and the face of the state. He was 69 years old and leaves one son Mr. P. M. Morehead, two daughters, Mrs. B. Frank Mebane, of Spray, and Mrs. Parrish, of Covington, Virginia.

Major Morehead had lived here and spent most of his life in North Carolina. He had property interests in several portions of the state and was a successful business man. The passing of the last son of the famous governor marks the death of that knightly race of men.

University Catalogue.

We have just received the catalogue of the University of North Carolina for the session 1907-1908. It shows an attendance of 788 students. The faculty numbers 74. The University now comprises the following departments: Collegiate, Graduate, Applied Sciences including Chemical, Electrical, Civil and Mining Engineering, Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy.

The University has grown steadily in strength and influence and stands today for all that is best and highest in education and training for useful manhood.

The Summer School for Teachers begins June 10, and the Summer Law School June 17. The next session opens September 7, 1908.

On a Capital Charge.

Sam Barbee, a negro, was before Mayor Graham Monday, charged with assault upon a little girl of his race by the name of Bessie Street.

The trial took place before Mayor Graham Monday and the evidence was sufficient to blind him over without bond. The negro waived examination.

The details of the case will not do to print, and it is said the little girl made a good witness and her testimony was strengthened by that of Dr. T. A. Mann. This is the second offense of the same nature that has been against Barbee, in the first case he came clear.

Mr. Kitchin to Speak Here.

For the first time since he has been a candidate for governor Hon. W. W. Kitchin will speak here on Wednesday the 29th of April.

Mr. Kitchin has many friends in Durham that will be glad of an opportunity to show their support. Practically speaking Messrs. Kitchin and Horne are the only two candidates for governor that have any following here and Mr. Kitchin's coming will give his friends a chance to rally around him.

James Smith, charged with conspiracy in the death of Revenue Officer Hendrix in Stokes county, was acquitted by the Federal court in Greensboro last Saturday. For illicit distilling he was sent to the Atlanta prison for 10 years.

Schools Close

Last Friday was a big day at the closing exercises of Lowe's Grove and Patrick Henry schools.

The exercises at Lowe's Grove school, of which Miss Ina B. Massey is teacher, took place Friday morning at ten o'clock. About thirty members of Tar Heel Council No. 2, Jr. O. U. A. M. went down and after witnessing the exercises by the school, presented the school with a Bible and flag. The recitations by the scholars were good and showed that the work done in preparation under the direction of the teacher was good. Speeches were made by Messrs. A. S. Hobgood, Chas. Scarlett, and W. T. Mangum for the Junior Order, while Rev. A. P. Barbee and Prof. C. W. Massey spoke on behalf of the school.

After the speeches dinner was served on the grounds.

Quite a number that attended the exercises at Lowe's Grove went over to Patrick Henry where a large crowd had already gathered. Solicitor A. L. Brooks spoke in the afternoon and supper was served on the grounds. After supper the declamations, recitations and dialogues by the pupils of the school took place and were greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

For Attorney General.

To the Democratic Voters of North Carolina.

I am a candidate for the next Democratic nomination for Attorney-General.

I would be gratified to have your support and influence and the support of your county.

I began to labor for the Democratic party in 1875, on my majority. I have labored for years in the ranks of the party for the success of the candidates of the party and its principles, and at no time being lukewarm in my loyalty. Much of this time I have served on my county, district, and the State Committees. I have been unselfish in my devotion to the principles of the party and the welfare of the State. I have not pushed myself forward for office. This is my first request of the party. My county has strongly endorsed me several times. My labors in the Legislatures of 1895, 1905 and 1907 are well known.

With best wishes, I am, Sincerely, B. B. WINBORNE. Murfreesboro, N. C., June 20, 1907.

W. H. Tilley brought to market two quarts of strawberries Monday and received 25 cents per quart for them. They were the first of the season.
