A large swarm of bees passed here a few days ago, but we could not succeed in causing them to settle down convenient for living, however they settled several times in the tops of tall trees and I thought that if we were as eager to follow our king as the little bee that we could not go astray so often and see the bee our aspirations would settle down on the low and reveling shrubbery and snags irreverence to our King.

Commencement, May 27, 28, 29.

The Southern Conservatory of Music has issued the handsomest sort of invitations to the commencement exercises which begin May 27 and run through May 29.

The first day, Wednesday, is the junior recital at 8:30 in the evening. On Thursday, May 28, at 8:30 in the evening, the commencement exercises take place with General B. S. Royster, of Oxford, annual speaker. Friday, May 29, at 8:30 in the evening will be the closing commencement exercises. The daily programme will be printed in the paper as the events take place.

The conservatory has had one of its best years. It has been full and at no time in its life have the recitals running through the spring been of higher merit.

IN DEATHS DOMAIN.

The Record of Deaths Since Our Last Issue.

DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAMS.

The death of Mrs. T. C. Williams yesterday morning in Columbia, S. C., was wired her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Woodward.

Mrs. Williams is remembered as Miss May Woodward and lived here nearly all of her life. She was an exceptionally admired young woman and married a young man whose residence here made him a favorite. Their marriage was idyllic and the husband is sorely grieved.

The marriage of these young people resulted in the birth of a son, their pride. Besides the little fellow, Woodward Williams, the mother leaves father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Woodward, two sisters, Mrs. C. C. Thomas, of this city, and Mrs. Benjamin Wyche, of San Antonio, Texas, Mr. George J. Woodward, of Greenville, N. C. Mr. John Woodward, of Columbia, S. C., and Mr. F. W. Woodward, of Durham.

The remains reached here last night and the funeral took place this afternoon.

MRS. TUCKERS DEATH.

Mrs. Cora Tucker died at her home on Randolph street Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. She had been in declining health for several months and her death was not unexpected.

She leaves a husband, Mr. M. W. Tucker, a little daughter five years old, father, Mr. Joseph Maynor, and three brothers, Messrs. W. J. Maynor, J. J. Maynor and G. W. Maynor, of Durham, and five sisters, Mrs. High and Mrs. Pendergrass, of Chatham County; Mrs. A. F. Carden, Mrs. H. Lee and Mrs. A. A. Woods, of Durham. She was a faithful member of Main street Methodist church and for a long time was a teacher in the Sunday school.

The funeral and burial took place Monday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. M. Bradshaw.

MRS. LANGLEYS DEATH.

Mrs. Annie Langley, who came here ten days ago to visit her father and Sargeant Pengrast, died Sunday afternoon of meningitis from which she had suffered a week.

Mrs. Langley was 24 years old and leaves a husband, one child, father, two sisters and four brothers. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at Mt. Hermon, near University Station, where she lived.

A CHILD DIES.

The one-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Carlton, of East Durham, died yesterday at noon. For several days the little one was violently sick with whooping cough and other complications.

The funeral was conducted from the home today at 3 o'clock by the pastor of the family, Rev. J. A. Dailey, assisted by Rev. J. W. Downey. The interment was at the city cemetery.

MRS. MINOR DEAD.

Mrs. Sallie Minor of Orange county, who came here several days ago to visit her brother, Mr. W. E. Phillips, of West Durham, died Saturday night and was taken to her family burying ground in Orange.

She was 76 years old and leaves one son. A brother also survives her.

THE END OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Speeches by Dr. Kilgo, Mrs. Curtis, and Others.—The Anti Meeting.

Since the last issue of The Recorder the campaign for and against prohibition has been on in earnest and it is safe to say that every man, woman and child have had a word to say about the question that is being voted upon while we write these lines.

Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday afternoon speakers for the cause of prohibition could be heard at almost any place, but the principal occasions were Sunday afternoon and last night, when Dr. Kilgo and Mrs. Curtis, addressed the voters of the town and county.

A large crowd of men and women filled the Academy Sunday afternoon to hear Dr. John C. Kilgo, and his speech was all that the admirers of him had expected.

Monday afternoon about one thousand women and children met at Trinity Methodist church and watched up Main street, which made a very imposing spectacle.

Last night at Parrish warehouse it was estimated that five thousand or more men women and children were present at the final rally. Music was furnished by the Third Regiment Band, of Raleigh, and the principal speaker was Mrs. Nannie Curtis. Other short speeches were made by local speakers and the large crowd cheered each utterance in favor of their cause.

THE ANTI MEETING.

The final meeting of the Anti-Prohibition forces was held at the Academy of Music last night. Music was furnished for this occasion by a portion of the Third Regiment Band, the other portion making music at Parrish warehouse.

W. G. Bramham, chairman, addressed about one thousand men that came out to this final meeting. He was followed by W. B. Guthrie of the law firm of Guthrie & Guthrie, who caused the crowd present to applaud his witty sayings. The meeting adjourned in a shout.

Owing to the illness of Prof. C. W. Massey, the called meeting of the Board of education will not be held to-morrow, but has been continued. It is hoped that he will be able to be at his post in a few days.
