NUMBER 23.

J. S. MANNING NOMINATED

Mr. V. S. Bryant Makes Good Speech in Refusing to Run.

WORK OF THE PRIMARIES RATIFIED

Democratic County Convention Saturday—Only Two Precincts Not Represented—Speech by Judge Winston.

The county Democratic convention met at the court house Saturday at noon. The principal matter of interest was the nomination of a senator for the 19th senatorial district, and the result was that Hon. J. S. Manning received the unanimous vote of the convention.

This convention was called to order about 20 minutes after 12 by Chairman Brawley, who invited ex-Judge R. W. Winston to the chair as temporary chairman.

On taking the chair Mr. Winston took occasion to pay his respects to the nominees of the Republican State Convention, especially to the candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, and the platform that was adopted. The speech was just what might have been expected from Judge Winston, and he was applauded liberally.

While waiting the securing of official vote, it was announced that nominations for senator of 19th senatorial district was in order. There was much uncertainty regarding this nomination, no one had been aggressively at work for the place, and several had been mentioned for the place.

Mr. R. H. Sykes secured the floor, and there was expectancy manifest everywhere, there being at the beginning some doubt as to who he would nominate. However, the delegates were not long in doubt for it was clear that he was on the point of nominating Hon. J. S. Manning. His speech was good, and was well received.

Mr. John W. Umstead, of Mangum township, was the next to secure recognition, and he spoke in warm words of praise of his choice candidate, Mr. V. S. Bryant.

When Mr. Umstead took his seat Judge Winston arose, and said that he had been requested to state for Mr. Bryant that he was not a candidate and that he could not make the run.

Mr. D. W. Sorrell arose, and made a motion that the nomination of Mr. Manning be made by acclamation, which received a ready second.

Just before putting the motion, Mr. Bryant, who came in during Mr. Umstead's speech, secured the floor, and spoke for about twenty minutes, declining the offer of the nomination and asking his friends not to vote for him, and followed by pledging his every effort to the ticket and the cause of Democracy.

The vote to nominate Mr. Manning was taken, and he was nominated without a dissenting voice. Mr. Manning was present and was called for and made a speech about what he had done in the last legislature.

The next business of the convention was the reading of the official vote of the primaries, which follows:

For sheriff—Harward 1345, Turrentine 255, total 1599.

For treasurer—Bowling 915, Christian 571, total 1486.

For register of deeds—Markham 1324.

For the legislature—Smith 760, Moore 216, Lovenstein 92, Chambers 324, total 1291.

For coroner—Maddy 869.

For surveyor—Belvin 675.

For county commissioners—J. W. Allen 1146, L. B. Markham 1077, J. E. Belvin 1093, Z. T. Hampton 572, J. D. Hamlin 1169, F. M. Tilley 703.

After the reading of the official vote, the defeated candidates for the legislature were called, and Messrs. Chambers and Lovenstein responded, but Mr. Moore did not answer. Whether he was present seemed not to be known. Sheriff Harward was called and said that he could not make a speech, but would endeavor to make a good sheriff.

Mr. Y. E. Smith was called, and said that he appreciated the vote he had received, and would serve the people to the best of his ability.

The convention adjourned with general good feeling and Democrats feeling that there was little doubt of victory in the election.

Charged With Burglary.

On advices from Chapel Hill the police arrested Samuel Hopson here Monday. He was charged with committing a burglary near Chapel Hill.

He was carried back to Orange to answer the charge. He does not deny that he and another negro by the name of Ernest Blackwood entered the house of "Met" Alston, but does deny that it was burglary. He claims that the woman had told them to enter and that the door was closed, but was not locked. He also claims that the reason the warrant was issued against them was because the woman got mad with them and that is her method of getting even with them.

Opening of the County Schools.

The board of education have ordered that the schools of the county open for the fall term as follows:

Durham township Sept. 2, Lebanon township Sept. 10, Mangum township Sept. 2, Oak Grove township Sept. 2, Cedar Fork township Sept. 16, Patterson township Sept. 30th.

An examination for white school teachers was held Monday and for colored teachers today. School committeemen are busy getting things in shape around their schools to open for the fall term.

Orange Ticket Strong.

Hillsboro, Aug. 29.—The Democratic county convention was held to-day and nominated the following ticket: For the House, S. M. Gattis; for sherriff, S. W. Andrews; for register of deeds, John Laws; for treasurer, Harry L. Parrish; for suveyor, J. O. Webb; for coroner, T. D. Tinnin; for commissioners, J. W. Pickett, J. D. Webb, C. E. Wilson.

Senator Overman and Hon. A. L. Brooks addressed the convention. There was a large attendance. No stronger ticket could have been named and the party is in fine shape.

The dog and pony show is here today and the children really have a day to themselves.

SUPERIOR COURT IN SESISON

Judge Jones Presiding; Solicitor Fuller Prosecuting.

NUMBER OF CASES DISPOSED OF

The Grand Jury Chosen—The Court's Charge—Criminals Explaining How They Got Into Trouble—Sentences Passed.

Durham superior court for the trial of criminal cases convened Monday morning with Judge Jones on the bench and Solicitor Fuller as prosecutor. There were a number of cases to claim their attention, and as they came before the court, they were disposed of as rapidly as practical.

The first work was in getting a grand jury. Mr. W. M. Bacon was drawn and selected as foreman. The others were as follows; Messrs. N. B. West, Floyd Lambe, K. T. Brogden, H. W. Vickers, E. L. Garrard, J. F. Terry, A. E. Lloyd, J. G. Latta, W. G. Vickers, M. Haskell, John J. Rigsbee, J. R. Weatherspoon, J. J. Whitley, J. W. Carlton, T. E. Carrington, J. Y. Long, and M. R. Strickland.

After the selection of the grand jury Judge Jones delivered his charge, which was pronounced by those who heard it to be strictly to the point, dealing with crime in all its phases. This being the first visit of Judge Jones, his charge was looked for with special interest. He made a very favorable impression.

Although he has held court in Granville, Person and Orange county, this is the first term for Solicitor Jones Fuller in his home town. He handles the cases on the docket with dispatch and thoroughness, and the guilty need have no idea that they are going to get off light.

The docket is a large one, containing 260 cases, and the work of clearing the jail and the docket will receive special consideration for this one week's term. The following cases have been disposed off:

George A. Shepherd, retailing, $100 and costs. George A. Shepherd, distilling, nol pros with leave.
