Those Who Ask Your Support Have Been Before You—Full List of Candidates and the Office for Which they are Running.

The election that has occupied the attention of the county for the past month or more will take place next Tuesday and every voter that is qualified will have the pleasure of expressing his sentiments at the polls and there is little reason to believe but that his will will be expressed, especially in North Carolina, for there is little chance for stuffing the ballot boxes or cheating in an election if any were so disposed.

The issues were discussed in every quarter and votes that had a mind to learn about the platforms of the two parties has had ample opportunity. The two main parties of the state and county have been before you and told what they stand for and it is now up to the individual to say which he prefers. Below we give the full ticket of each party:

If you decide to vote for neither candidate for Congress, you need not deposit any ticket in the Congressional box.

Rev. S. S. Bost and Assistant rector T. C. Trott, are attending the convocation in session in Tarboro this week.

THE FINAL RALLIES MONDAY NIGHT.

Democrats at the Academy of Music and Republicans at Parrish Warehouse.

The final rally of the two parties in Durham county will take place Monday night and each will do his best to secure the biggest crowd and have them do the loudest hollering.

The Democrats are proud of the fact that they will have with them Hon. W. W. Kitchin, who has not been here since before the nomination. Mr. Kitchin has many friends in Durham who would have been disappointed had he not come during the campaign to whoop things up a bit.

They will turn out in large numbers to hear Mr. Kitchin and the only mistake the Democrats made was in not having sufficient room to accommodate the crowd that will want to hear Mr. Kitchin and participate in the final rally of the campaign. However, the fun will be on between the opposing crowds and the fun will be to see which can whoop it up the best.

The Republicans of the county are also fortunate and feel good over the fact that they have secured one of their best speakers to be here in the person of Hon. A. A. Whittier, elector for the state at large. He is the best speaker, so said, that has been out on the campaign and all who hear him will have an opportunity that is not afforded every day.

The Republican forces will congregate at Parrish Warehouse and have plenty of room to accommodate all that care to go out and see and hear. The county candidates will all be present to see that things run smoothly and the campaign will be closed with rejoicing.

Conference Arrangements.

Methodists of this city are busy these days making arrangements for the conference that will be held here this year and a canvass to secure homes for the ministers and laymen that are expected is being made. From all reports the people of this city are responding in a hospitable manner and the committee will experience very little trouble in entertaining all that come here to attend the conference.

The conference opens here Wednesday, December 9. Bishop Charles B. Galloway, of Mississippi, presided over the conference last year when it met in Wilson. Of the Durham ministers who will move this year on account of the expiration of the four years, Rev. J. H. McCracken is the only one thus affected.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church will have an oyster supper and Halloo'en party this afternoon at the parsonage.

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS.

In this issue will be found a change of the ad of H. A. Gaskins in which he tells you about bicycles, guns, rifles and ammunition.

J. C. Tingen of Woodsdale, called in to see us this week while here with tobacco. He was well pleased with the price his tobacco brought.

Large breaks of tobacco were sold on the Durham market this week, and from all reports the farmers were well pleased with the prices paid for the weed.

The "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," billed to appear here last Wednesday night did not put up their tent and attempt to give a show on account of the weather.

Roland H. Parker tells you in a change of ad in this issue about drugs, toilet articles and seeds. Read his ad and visit his store for courteous treatment and prompt service.

John Cameron was before the mayor Wednesday charged with stealing a bicycle and sent over to the higher court under a bond of $25. The boy is only ten years of age and was caught in the act of stealing the wheel.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Holloway and children are here on a visit to Mr. Holloway's parents. Mr. Holloway buys tobacco on the South Carolina market, but as the season is now over he is here spending the time with relatives.

The union meeting of the Mt. Zion Association will be held the fifth Sunday of November and the Saturday before at Mt. Hermon Baptist church. The program has been arranged and delegates from each of the 43 churches of the Association are expected to attend this meeting.

Mr. C. H. Gattis, traveling passenger agent of the Seaboard, is planning to have another personally conducted excursion. This time he intends to carry a party of North Carolinians to Cuba, and already has application for several berths in a sleeper. Such a trip in the winter will prove a very good trip and doubtless many will take advantage of it.

The Evidence in the Case.

35 years use is evidence—Millions of consumers is evidence—sales made by 16,000 agents is evidence. You buy 4 gallons I. & M. Paint and 3 gallons Pure Linseed Oil (at 60 cents) mix them and make 7 gallons best paint ready for use—cost only $1.20 per gallon—Done in 2 minutes. Hackney Bros., I. & M. Paint Agents.
