

THE DURHAM RECORDER.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOLUME 90.

DURHAM, N. C., DECEMBER 15, 1908.

NUMBER 63.

SUPERIOR COURT ADJOURNS.

Grand Jury Discharged With Thanks of the Court.

BENCH WARRANT FOR WILL MANGUM.

Much Business Disposed of During the Week.—Grand Jury Committed.—Court House Condemned.

Durham superior court closed last Saturday afternoon and the result of the weeks' work was satisfactory to all concerned, except possibly some that received sentences that they were not expecting.

When the report of the grand jury was presented and they announced that the work had been completed, Judge Jones announced that they were dismissed and complimented them highly for the efficient way in which they had performed the work given them. The court was pleased and made the grand jury feel good.

The following cases not heretofore mentioned were disposed of:

John Stroud, abandonment, guilty; nine months on the roads.

State vs. George Vickers, larceny, guilty; sentenced to two years on the roads.

Jim Benton, gambling, guilty; sixty days on the roads.

George Mangum, larceny, guilty; four months on the roads.

Alonzo Curtis and Amos Jackson, gambling; Jackson called and failed, Curtis pleads guilty and is fined $15.

A. A. Latta, despoising of mortgaged property; called and failed.

Jessy Bane, retailing; not guilty.

Annie Allen, Thomas Jenkins, Fletcher Browning, retailing; called and failed.

Richard Rhew and Ernest Curley, disturbing religious worship; called and failed.

James Graham, embezzlement; called and failed.

John Callie, assault with deadly weapon; called and failed.

James Peoples, carrying concealed weapons; called and failed.

James Merritt, larceny; called and failed.

Ed Ladd and Fannie Ladd, affray with deadly weapon; called and failed.

Agnes Brown, larceny; called and failed.

S. Bane, cruelty to animals; not guilty.

Joe Cozart, carrying concealed weapons; fined $20 and costs.

Jack Barbee, assault with deadly weapon; not guilty.

W. MANGUM ARRESTED.

Testimony in the superior court Friday was of such a character that a bench warrant was issued for Will Mangum for selling whiskey. He was brought into court and his bond fixed at $1,000 which he could not raise during the night and spent the night in the lock-up.

Saturday he was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and give justified bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at court from term to term to show that he had not violated the law again. He paid the fine and gave the required bond and was released.

Sixty-one prisoners were carried out to the road force Monday. They looked like a real army going with each two chained together. It is a pity that the weather of winter does not allow them to be of full benefit to the road work being carried on.

W. J. Adams Appointed Judge.

Carthage, Dec. 12.—Mr. W. J. Adams received a telegram from Governor Glenn late this afternoon notifying him of his appointment as judge of the eighth judicial district to succeed Judge Walter H. Neal. Mr. Adams' many friends here are greatly pleased at this appointment. He is a man deservedly popular here and throughout the State. He is a lawyer of recognized ability and judicial temperament. He is a son of the late Rev. S. D. Adams, who for many years was a presiding elder in the North Carolina Conference. He graduated at Trinity College and studied law at the University of North Carolina. He obtained his licence to practice law in 1880, locating here, where he was for many years associated with the late J. C. Black. He has represented this senatorial district several times in the Legislature and was one of the four Democratic members of that body in the fusion Legislature of 1895. Judge Adams will hold court in Johnston county next week.

Rev. J. H. McCracken, pastor at West Durham, was the only change the conference made in Durham pastors. He goes to Beaufort.

The chimes of Memorial church, which have just been installed, gave a sacred concert last Saturday night and Sunday afternoon that was well received not only by the many visitors in the city, but Durham citizens as well. This was the initial concert of the chimes and to say that the renditions were grand does not describe it. The chimes are the gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stagg in memory of their mothers.

REUBEN BARBEE IN TROUBLE

Holt Murder Laid at His Door and Arrest Follows.

HIS PAST RECORD IS AGAINST HIM

Reuben Barbee, Known All Over the State as a Desperate Character, Landed in Lock-Up for Dastardly Murder.

Mention was briefly made in our last issue that Reuben Barbee had been arrested and was being held for the murder of Engineer Fred Holt near the coal chute on the night of December the 3d.

Few people that have lived in Durham any length of time but know the record in a general way of Reuben Barbee. The trial for the killing of William Cole is still fresh in many minds, and also the fact that many citizens were indignant and held a public meeting giving expression to their views, is still a matter that is well remembered. Future charges with no positive proof of crimes committed by Barbee have been made during the past years. His record in the police court on minor charges have passed almost unnoticed.

There is not expressed in any quarter little sympathy for Barbee in the present trouble and few people feel that if a mistake should be made in this case and he is given a sentence that he would have cause to justly complain at the law.

The preliminary hearing was set for Saturday afternoon and all day Saturday crowds of people were around the court house waiting to see and hear what was to be seen and heard. Little was brought out except street reports and they are of so many varieties that there is little certainty in the truth of any of them. The case was continued from Saturday to Monday because some of witnesses were out of the city.

Monday when the case was called before the mayor Barbee's attorneys asked that the case be continued owing to the sickness of Mr. V. S. Bryant. The mayor continued the hearing until Monday the 21st. In the meantime Barbee is in jail without bail.

LAWYERS EMPLOYED.

It is of interest in view of the approaching trial of Reuben Barbee to note that Messrs. Winston and Bryant, both of whom have appeared for Barbee on former occasions, have been employed to defend him in this case. When Barbee was being tried for his life for the murder of Cole these two lawyers made the effort of their lives in his behalf and since then have appeared for Barbee in other cases.

To assist Mr. Jones Fuller in the prosecution Messrs. Guthrie and Guthrie and ex-Solicitor Brooks will appear. Every effort will be made by both sides to present their side in the best light and the trial will be interesting from the beginning.
