THE RECORDER'S POPULARITY CONTEST

Somebody Will Win ? ? Why Not You ? !

SEVEN PRIZES:

Ladies or Gentleman's Gold Watch, Elgin or Waltham, Iver Johnson Bicycle, Victor Talking Machine, Steel Range, Marlin Repeater Shot Gun, Singer or Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machine, a Kitchen Cabinet.

If you get the largest number of votes you have the choice, but you may at least be one of seven, as the seventh person from the highest will secure one of these valuable prizes. Send in your nominations at once.

Any one may enter contest, by cutting the nomination ballots from THE RECORDER and putting their name to it. Each nomination ballot sent in by the contestant of their friends count as 25 votes each. These ballots can be sent in right along.

Secure subscribers for THE RECORDER. The table below tells you how many votes each subscription will entitle you to.

Don't wait to enter contest. Send in your name at once. If your friends see your name in the list of contestants they will vote for you.

Vote for any one you wish. Any one sending in the nomination ballot published in this and other issues of THE RECORDER entitles their favorite to 25 votes. Cut these ballots out and send them in. The following is the plan for securing votes for your contestant:

Go out among your friends and secure subscriptions for THE RECORDER. For each new subscriber you obtain that pays you $1.00, it will entitle you to cast 100 votes for your favorite, and the same proportion for smaller amounts collected:

The following is the plan:

One years subscription $1.00 entitles you to	100 votes
Six months subscription 50 cents entitles you to	50 votes
Three months subscription 25 cents entitle you to	25 votes

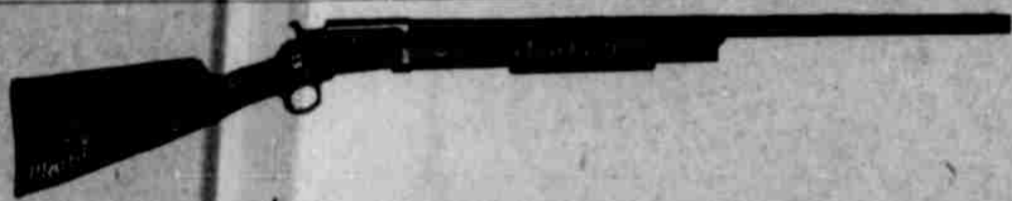

Contest closes March 17th, 1910
