

THE DURHAM RECORDER.

VOLUME 91.

DURHAM, N. C., FEBRUARY 3, 1910

NUMBER 38.

DURHAM SUN PUBLISHING CO.

Corporation Organized to Publish Afternoon Daily in Durham.

A meeting of the stock holders of the Durham Sun Publishing Company was held last Thursday night. General Julian S. Carr was made president of the corporation; G. C. Farthing, vice-president; L. B. Markham, secretary-treasurer; J. L. Morehead, attorney, and R. O. Everett, temporary business manager.

James A. Robinson, twenty-one years editor of the Sun, will be its editorial expression with Thomas Garner associate, and the man upon whom falls the duty of getting out the paper. Mr. Garner throws much of the machinery into the business as stock and is the largest shareholder of the corporation. He has a family of operators and printers who will be valuable to the paper.

The company has rented the Murray store room on Main and near Market street, the room recently vacated by the W. R. Murray company. It has spacious first and second floors and is one of the very desirable places in the city. Its first floor is adapted to a heavy press and the second to the working room.

The date of the paper's initial issue under the new management and with different type has not been made known. In fact it is not known by any member of the corporation. It is subject to delay on account of getting the machinery here. The directors are General Carr, Mr. Farthing, M. E. Newsome, Jr., R. O. Everett and L. B. Markham.

From Raleigh, Route 7.

We are having plenty of rain and lots of hard wind, and it will be sometime before we can be plowing again.

Everything is going along quietly in our community at present, and I am glad to say there is but little sickness.

Very sorry to note the burning of a dwelling, which occurred Sunday morning about 2:30 o'clock. Mr. George Davis and family were living in the house at the time. Just how the fire originated is not known. Everything in the house was lost except two quilts, which they carried out with them as they were escaping from the flames.

Miss Floy Ross, of Lillian section, spent Friday night and Saturday with her cousins, Misses Lizzie and Lucy Peed, of Rogers Store.

Messrs. J. H. and W. A. O'Neal, of Edgemont, spent Thursday night and Friday with their sick mother, Mrs. Candace O'Neal.

Mrs. Robert Carpenter is also visiting Mrs. Candace O'Neal.

Mrs. Q. B. Gullie was in this neighborhood recently.

Mr. Mark King, of Morrisville section, was a visitor in this community recently.

Mrs. Sallie Ferguson and Mrs. A. B. Ross, visited Mrs. Candace O'Neal Saturday.

Am very glad to report Davie Carpenter as being somewhat improved and all hope he will soon be out again.

The Recorder failed to appear on route 7 last week for some cause. Hope we will have better luck next week. J. E. F.

Dr. Shepard Returns.

Dr. James E. Shepard, who has been spending several days in Cuba on a visit and in work in connection with the National Training School and Chautauqua, has returned to Durham.

The trip to Cuba was a very pleasant one and everywhere he was well received.

COURT HAS ADJOURNED.

For Lack of Work Civil Term of Superior Court Ends.

The civil term of Durham superior court came to an end Wednesday afternoon owing to the fact that all cases on the docket set for trial had been disposed of, some of them having been settled, some continued and others non-suited.

The last of the cases of Mrs. Octa D. Thomas were non-suited this week and this ends a litigation in which many Durham people were interested.

This leaves Durham court records in good shape for both civil and criminal actions. Judge Biggs in two weeks cleared the docket and while a number of cases remain they could not be heard this term for one reason or another. Judge Sykes keeps the criminal docket in good shape by sending up petty offenders when they are first brought up, and thus Durham courts will not be kept congested all the time.

MARKS LOSSES HIS CASE.

Durham Traction Company Wins In Damage Suit—Jury Out 11 Hours.

The case of Marks against the Durham Traction company for damages on account of stepping off the car, was threshed out in the superior court last Saturday and Monday.

Both the plaintiff and defendant put up a good fight and every effort was made to show up the case for their side in its best light and when the jury received the case it was somewhat confused, judging from the length of time it took them to decide the case. They were out 11 hours, and the verdict was returned Monday night about 11 o'clock.

Mr. Marks was a passenger on the car and stepped off while the car was in motion and received a sprained foot. All available evidence was thoroughly gone into and when the lawyers for both sides had had their say the jury returned a verdict as above stated.

Buffalo News.

After remaining silent for some time I will come again. I am not like the young man who told me not long since that he was so deeply in love that he could not write the news. I have been waiting upon the sick.

We are having a quantity of rain, notwithstanding which we are on the sunny side and must learn to be submissive.

Mrs. Lou Clark, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Several families that have been living on Buffalo have recently moved to Durham. I am opposed to so many good citizens leaving our midst. Yes, they turn their backs on home sweet home, never again to be renewed in its holy retirement.

You can see smoke and hear axes in every direction. Farmers are preparing land and plant beds, fixing for the golden leaf.

Jim spent yesterday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Perry, of South Lowell.

The ground is very muddy and I heard an old bachelor say that his Sunday boots were ruined.

There is but very little visiting in our midst. Everybody hard at work. I believe most people think they will get rich this year.

Mr. Bob Tilley, who had his leg sprained recently, is getting better, able to ride around. Mr. Tilley is lively and always has something pleasant to say.

M. M. T.: I would be glad to hear from you. I enjoy your letters so much, come again.

M. K. C.

THE DEATH RECORD.

MISS BESSIE LONG.

Miss Bessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Long, residing at 603 Angier avenue, died last Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after a long illness of consumption. Miss Long was 23 years of age and came to Durham from Person county. She left a father and mother and several brothers and sisters. The remains were carried to Person county Saturday for interment.

MRS. MARY HART.

Mrs. Mary Ann Hart died last Thursday night at 10:45 at her home, living with her sister, Miss Pattie McMillan.

The sisters came here from South Boston about ten years ago and for sometime have been inseparably together. Mrs. Hart was 75 years of age. She was a communicant of the Episcopal church and from her home she was buried in the Episcopal faith Friday afternoon, Rev. S. S. Bost, officiating. She had been ill quite a while and her death was expected.

MR. J. VAN PASCHALL.

Mr. J. Van Paschall died last Saturday night at 9:45 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. N. Slade, after a brief illness, being confined to his bed about one week.

Mr. Paschall was 30 years of age and was a plumber by trade, having followed that vocation for several years in this city. He was reared in this city and spent most of his days here.

He leaves mother, two sisters, Mrs. H. M. Lewis and Mrs. S. N. Slade, a brother with the American Tobacco company in St. Louis, and Mr. Mallie J. Paschall, proprietor of the Star bakery, of this city.

The funeral and burial services took place Sunday afternoon.

DEATH OF MRS. WARREN.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. James B. Warren, who died Sunday morning, were held Monday afternoon from the home on Watts street, Rev. J. H. McCracken, of Beaufort, and Rev. M. Bradshaw, of Memorial church, officiating.

Mrs. Warren died shortly before 11 o'clock after an illness of several weeks apparently, but in reality after two years of organic heart trouble. About Christmas she was greatly worse but improved and within the past ten days had been able to walk through the house and yard. Last week she began to grow worse and Sunday morning the worst came.

She was nearly sixty-one years old and had been married thirty-three years. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. W. P. Redmond and Mrs. W. P. Farthing, and two sons, Mr. W. J. Warren and E. W. Warren. Besides the two living sisters, Mrs. Martha Harper and Mrs. J. T. Ferrall.

She was the wife of Alderman James B. Warren and before her marriage was Miss Margaret Turner. She belonged to the Primitive Baptist church and attended its services when they were held, dividing the attendance with her husband of the Methodist faith.

At the funeral Messrs N. Underwood, H. N. Snow, G. C. Farthing, J. B. Mason, J. D. Pridgen and J. F. Wily were pall bearers. The floral bearers were Messrs. D. W. Horton, Will Crabtree, Dolian Harris and Ben Tingen. The funeral was held at 3 o'clock and the burial was in Maplewood. The floral offerings were profuse and there was a great crowd to follow the family in its mission of grief.

DEATH OF MRS. UMSTEAD.

Mrs. Mary K. Umstead died Monday morning after an illness of some length.

She was the wife of Mr. B. W. Umstead. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. P. Constable, of the West Durham Methodist church, officiating and Rev. O. W. Triplett, of West Durham Baptist church, assisting. The burial was in Maplewood.

THE POPULARITY CONTEST.

One or Two Sent in Large Votes this Week—Others Quiet.

The popularity contest has been quiet this week in some quarters. One or two of the contestants have been doing well and sent quite a number of votes, while others have been doing very little.

There yet remains time for several to get busy and make a good showing and secure one of the prizes, but every bit of the time from now until the contest closes on the 17th of March can well be used by every one, as every vote recorded will count when it comes to the final count. Get busy and ask your friends to remember you when sending in their subscriptions.
