VOLUME 91.

DURHAM, N. C., APRIL 21, 1910.

NUMBER 49.

THE DEATH RECORD.

DEATH OF MRS. HOLT.

Mrs. Lucy Holt died Saturday at the home of her father-in-law, Mr. E. M. Holt, at Willardsville.

Mrs. Holt had been desperately ill several weeks. She fell victim to typhoid fever about the time of her husband's death the latter part of March. Tuesday of last week, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holt, Nannie Holt, died with typhoid fever and it was then known that the mother could hardly live. The three deaths occur in as many weeks.

Mrs. Holt leaves now several orphan children. It is recalled that she was made a widow in the death of Mr. E. P. Holt, who died at Willardsville, though their child was sent to the hospital. This family has been visited heavily by affliction. The tragic death of Mrs. Susan Lipscombe on Thanksgiving of last year is recalled and three deaths in the same family in so short a time carry more than a single family's share of grief.

The funeral was held Sunday from Mount Lebanon church at 2:30. Elder P. D. Gold conducting it.

MRS. ELIZABETH BARBEE.

Mrs. Elizabeth Barbee died Monday at the home of her son, Mr. W. H. Barbee, after an illness of some length with paralysis.

Mrs. Barbee was 61 years of age. She was reared in Mississippi, her home being Port Gibson, Mississippi. Her maiden name was Miss Elizabeth Gibson and until twenty years ago, when her husband, Willis Haynes Barbee, died, she lived there. She came here shortly afterwards.

She leaves a son, Mr. W. H. Barbee, and a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Barbee. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the home on Smith avenue, Rev. J. A. Daily, pastor of Carr church, officiating.

DEATH OF MRS. DICKERSON.

Mrs. A. A. Dickerson died Wednesday evening from poisoning, the cause being the eating of canned kraut. Mrs. Dickerson was taken ill ten days ago after eating of the kraut and medical aid was summoned at once. However, she continued to be ill until her death Wednesday.

Mrs. Dickerson was 26 years of age and leaves a husband and three children, besides other relatives. The funeral was conducted from the Christian church this afternoon, after which the interment took place in Maplewood cemetery.

Cigars and Cold Drinks Cut Out.

At a meeting of the city aldermen last Monday night many matters of a routine nature were considered and some orders passed relative to general improvement in the city.

The matter of the most general public interest passed upon was the repealing of the law passed by the same board some time ago relative to the selling of cold drinks and cigars by the drug stores on Sunday. The ordinance allowed them to sell such articles, but the aldermen decided that it should be cut out and the law was repealed.

Messrs. Cole, Tucker and Paschall have purchased the granite business of the Durham Marble Works and will conduct the business in the future. Each of these young men are practical men in the granite business and have good prospects of a good business.

Raleigh, Route 7.

Everything going nicely just at present and everybody has a job if they want one building up their dikes and ditches which was washed down by the heavy rains Sunday. All streams were full and many running over washing the land terribly.

Sorry to note that the little child of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Perry who is very sick with measles and almost beyond hopes.

Mr. Nat Roberson is also down with measles but at last accounts was thought to be somewhat better.

Those who had mumps are up and going and we here of no new cases.

Guess there was but little visiting Sunday so of course news is scarce in this respect.

Mr. H. M. O'Neal, of Edgemont, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Brinkley on route 7, Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hill on route 2, Morrisville, spent several days last week visiting relatives in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nichols, of Gorman section, spent Monday with Mrs. Nichols father, Mr. A. Ferguson.

Mrs. Sallie Ferguson and son, C. E., spent Saturday night with the family of J. E. F.

Sorry to note the sickness of little Anna, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ferguson.

Mrs. C. G. Hill and Mrs. Norman Hill visited the family of J. E. F. Sunday p. m.

There was a baseball game Friday the 15 inst between Kelvin Grove and Leesville, the score being 11 to 2 in favor of Kelvin Grove. The batteries for Kelvin Grove were Messrs. Markham and Ferrell and for Leesville the batteries were Messrs. Pennington Thompson, King and King. All present reported a fine time it being the closing of the school at Leesville.

With best wishes to our good editor and all the readers of the Recorder I will ring off.

J. E. F.

From Roxboro, Route 5.

Mrs. Ida Reams recently spent the evening with the writer's wife.

One of our young men was recently offered some candy by a lady and he would not partake as the candy resembled corn bread and sugar and had the appearance of corn husk, so when the lady partook of the candy the gent forgot about it being corn bread and corn husk and how he devoured that candy was a sight to behold.

Mrs. Holy Wagoner spent one night last week with Mrs. R. H. Jones. She is now 84 years old and said that she saw Halley's comet 75 years ago when she was but a small girl.

Samuel Jones' horse ran away with him while returning home from Antioch church on the second Sunday. His buggy was badly damaged and he was thrown about fifteen feet behind his buggy and he received a serious sprain of the arm. Miss Nannie Satterfield, of Durham, was riding on the buggy with Mr. Jones but was not seriously hurt. It was reported that they both ran a narrow risk.

On last Thursday Roger and Henry Tapp called in their neighbors to assist them in raising a tobacco barn, and we do not have more energetic young men in our community than Roger and Henry Tapp.

One of the nicest young men of our community called on his best girl a few Sundays ago and he was informed that she was going back home the next morning on the train so he wanted to take one more good look at her and he went about three miles to the railroad to see her as she passed on the train.

Miss Nannie Satterfield, of Durham, is visiting her cousin, Miss Mildred Satterfield, of Timberlake, route 2.

Bud Right and his sister, Miss Clyde, and Cleve Timberlake, of Grassy Creek, spent last Saturday night with Mr. Ernest Reams and wife, of Push.

On last Saturday night Messrs. Samuel Jones, Roger Tapp and D. J. Tapp, were expecting to go to Rougemont to ride the Junior goat, and as that is one of the first Orders of the country we hope that our boys found much pleasure in taking their ride.

I will say that the horse that was crippled by the train some months ago is now being plowed by the owner while the horse is badly lame in the knee of its left fore leg and it is doubtful if the horse ever recovers from that lameness.

Mr. P. S. Rogers was on the jury last week as court convened in this county, and if the jury was composed of such men as Mr. Rogers, I am sure that every case got justice that were tried before them.

I am still doing supply work for Antioch church. I preached there on Saturday before the 2nd Sunday, and also Sunday to a large and appreciative congregation. I joined this church twelve years ago by letter and here I find some of the best people I ever knew, and it affords me great pleasure to preach to the good people of Antioch and here I have no more staunch friends on earth. However we will feel free and at liberty to call a regular pastor whenever it will suit our convenience. Antioch is not a perfect church, but a pastor will find in Antioch much of the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

ROPER.

Rougemont Items.

After so long a dry spell we are having plenty of rain. We have heard lots of complaint about the dry weather and now I guess the cry will be too much rain.

Rev. W. M. Hudson had quite a bad day Sunday for services at Bethany church, of which he is pastor.

On account of the bad weather Professor Tingen could not meet his singing class at Redmountain Sunday, but will be there first Saturday and Sunday which will wind up the session.

Quite a large crowd attended the entertainment at Rougemont Thursday night and it was extra good considering the short time the teachers had to get it up in. Miss Willie T. Hall the principal of the school gave her scholars and a few of their friends an ice cream supper Friday night and it was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Professor Tingen, Rev. W. M. Hudson and Miss Eura Carver, spent second Saturday night at Mr. Sam Glenn's.

Mr. H. M. Cozart spent Saturday night with Mr. W. P. Mangum.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cates spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mangum.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Copley recently visited Mr. Copley's parents of Rougemont.

The millinery store at Rougemont has been opened up now. Mr. Nichols brought a lady from Baltimore to attend to it, so all are invited to come and try them.

Miss Maude Mangum has returned home after spending several days with friends at Rougemont.

We have heard reports of a large hail storm last Tuesday but we did not have very much around our village. People say it greatly damaged the fruit crops and plant beds.

I will ring off this time hoping to hear from Buffalo and all other correspondents next time.
