DURHAM, N. C., May 19, 1910

AN INTERESTING PERIOD.

When the waters of a political campaign begins to rise there is much talk that is not printed and many interesting things never reach the public ear, and as we have a little space at our disposal, we will mention a few in the following paragraphs:

In the first place people are saying all sorts of things because the new appointee for the postmastership failed to pay his poll tax this year, some saying that he did so on purpose and others that he just forgot in the rush of other matters to look after this important end of the game.

In the second place the Republican camp is divided upon the appointment of Mr. Giles as postmaster and they are saying that the end of the matter is not in sight.

There are people talking about the ring rule of Wake county and saying that what Raleigh and Wake people have found is what Durham is keeping under cover, that the affairs of the county are not administered as they should and that some of the county officers are not attending to their duties as they should, and if the matter was thoroughly gone into a bad condition of affairs would be revealed.

There is talk going on that, if true, would reveal many things about county affairs that people generally think is all right. Figures are in course of preparation that will reveal many things when the proper time comes.

This is indeed an interesting period for people that are looking for something to happen that will be news to the public and before many weeks, if what is intimated is found to be the true conditions, there will be a more interesting occasion.

It was left to a Durham minister to call attention to the fact that the city aldermen were losing money on the new Academy of Music, or really getting barely more than the light and fuel bill for the rent of this magnificent building which it erected and furnished at great cost, thereby placing the market house in an out-of-the-way place and the rest of us will have to fall in line and say amen.

MANY a good man has gone astray because he was not called down in the beginning by the proper authorities, and the excuse of the authorities in many cases has been that they are afraid it will hurt the party.

We should not jump at conclusions about serious matters. Justice to all parties concerned demands that all the information obtainable be brought out regarding the killing of the negro by a policeman last Saturday night. No one wants the matter thoroughly investigated more than the officer that did the shooting, because for his protection all the facts will form a strong wall. Mr. Cobb has made a good policeman and mere idle talk should not be allowed to lodge in the minds of any regarding his action.

THE newspapers of the State have been good to Dr. Kilgo in saying nice things about him during the past few days. In fact most of them seem to believe that the man elected Bishop is not the same that was elected president of Trinity college many years-his experience having taught him many lessons he had not learned at that time. May his administration as Bishop be as peaceful as has been his connection with Trinity College during the past few years.

Raleigh, Route 7.

As I am suffering with a severe cold I will make my letter short, but in the beginning will tell you that the old coat I have so often mentioned still fits a fellow these cool mornings.

Sorry to report the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. King as having mumps. Hope all will soon be well again.

Rev. J. S. Thompson filled his regular appointments at Union Grove Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Brinkley, of Creedmoor section, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brogden, of Rogers Store, route 2, spent Sunday with the family of Mr. Simeon Brinkley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Carpenter, of Lillian, spent Sunday with the family of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Carpenter.

Mrs. Sallie Ferguson and son, C. E., also visited the family of Mr. D. N. Carpenter Sunday and report Davie as being very feeble.

Mr. T. A. O'Neal spent Sunday with his brothers, G. H. and J. R. O'Neal, of Durham.

Mr. Geo. W. King of this section is now making his home in Durham. We regret to give up our young men but are glad to know they are good boys and will be welcome wherever they go.

Mr. M. F. King and sister, Miss Minnie, of route 2, Morrisville, spent Sunday with Miss Lela Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, of route 1, Cary, spent Saturday night and Sunday with the family of J. E. F.

Miss Lena Norwood spent Wednesday night with Misses Lucy and Lizzie Peed, of Rogers Store. Miss Lizzie spent Thursday night with Miss Lena.

Mrs. C. G. Hill and son, D. A., visited Mrs. Hill's father, Mr. J. S. McGhee, of route 6, Raleigh.

Young Ovid Nichols, of Gorman section, spent Sunday night with his grandfather, Mr. A. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Carpenter, stopped with the writer and family Sunday a. m., on their way to Union Grove.

With best wishes I will ring off.

THE DEATH RECORD.

MR. W. B. D. GHOLSON.

Mr. P. W. Vaughan left Thursday afternoon for Littleton where he was called by a telegram announcing the death of his uncle, Mr. W. B. D. Gholson, of that town.

Mr. Gholson was perhaps the most prominent citizen of that place, the largest corn grower, owner of half a dozen mills, stockholder in many enterprises, director of a bank and a large capitalist. He was about seventy-four years of age and was never married.

A CHILD.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holder last Thursday night at 8 o'clock lost their infant of eighteen months.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 2:30 from the home on Driver avenue, Rev. W. P. Davis officiating. The burial took place at the Evans place, two and a half miles in the country.

MR. J. F. BYRD.

Mr. J. F. Byrd died Saturday morning at his home on Ramseur street, at ten minutes past 1 o'clock.

Mr. Byrd had been ill about eighteen days with pneumonia. The first of that illness appeared inconsequential, but a more aggravated form developed and the stupor of the last few days indicated the fatal end.

He had lived here three years and was with the Durham hosiery mill as foreman. He was twenty-five years married, leaving eight children, Misses Carrie, Louise, Nellie and Ethel Byrd, Messrs Arthur, Hubert and Jefferson Byrd, and Mrs. D. C. Patterson.

The funeral services took place Sunday afternoon from the home at 3 o'clock. He was a member of the Methodist church and Trinity congregation.

MRS. H. L. UMSTEAD.

Mrs. H. L. Umstead died Saturday morning about 4 o'clock at her home in Willardsville, after a short illness with paralysis of the brain.

Mrs. Umstead's condition was told here the night before and prophecy then made that she could not live through the night. Her children living here left the night before and went to her bedside. She was the mother of thirteen living children. They are Messrs. R. T. and F. P. Umstead, S. T. Umstead, of Lynchburg; Mrs. A. J. Terry, of Northside; Mrs. E. G. Gray, of Bahama; Misses Kate, Clyde, Lucy and Mr. Paul Umstead, Fred, Alvis and Otey Umstead. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home and the burial took place at Mt. Tabor burying ground.

JOHN HENRY GRAY.

Mr. John Henry Gray, aged twenty, died Monday morning in East Durham after a lingering illness with tuberculosis.

Mr. Gray had been afflicted many months but took his bed about two weeks ago. He had rapidly declined and his death ten minutes after midnight Monday morning was no surprise. He leaves a wife and one child, a mother, Mrs. Jane Gray and other relatives here. He was a member of the Carr church, East Durham.

The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the home at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. A. Daily, his pastor, officiating.

MR. L. B. PARRISH.

Mr. L. B. Parrish died Sunday morning at his home in East Durham, after an illness of two years.

Though but sixty-one years of age, Mr. Parrish was a confederate soldier and did active service during the war. He owned a restaurant up town and had some property. He was a native of Wake county and the body was buried there. A number of causes entered into the illness of Mr. Parrish.

MR. JAMES GRAY.

Mr. James Gray died Tuesday at his home on Gray street, death coming after a long illness at 1 o'clock in the morning.

Tuberculosis was the cause of his death. The funeral and burial took place Wednesday.

Interesting Figures.

In the course of his sermon last Sunday Rev. E. R. Leyburn, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, presented some interesting figures to his congregation. He was speaking of the fact that the city erected and furnished lights and fuel for the Academy of Music, not to mention the fact that building was furnished in every other way, and received very little more rent than lighting and fuel bill. The figures he used, which were secured from city clerk Woodward, showed that for the last seven months the city has received in rents for the Academy $991.62 and had paid for lights and fuel $794.50.

This Showing was made in reference to the fact that the city owns a building erected from public money and the only thing of a public nature, such as graded school exercises, public meetings, etc., had to be paid for at the full rate, and yet the management could place in there a cheap vaudeville show at practically no cost.

Clerks in the freight office of the N. & W. railway offices have gone out on a strike. The office in Durham lost eight men.

Well-Known Furniture Man Tells of Wonderful Cure

Suffered for Past Two Years With Indigestion—Could not Eat Breakfast and Lost in Weight and Muscles. Remarkable Cure

GLOBE TONIC PRAISED EVERYWHERE

Mr. A. H. Bacon, with Cooper Furniture Company, residence 1920 First avenue, West End: "I have been a constant sufferer from indigestion for the past two years and during that time unable to eat my morning meal. Recently I began taking Globe Tonic and three bottles cured me. Impartially, I wish to say that I consider it superior to any medicine on the market for indigestion, biliousness and general debility."

Globe Tonic is not an experiment, but a medicine that has stood the test and is praised by all who use it. Start today and get well. Its a positive cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Backache and Rheumatism. Go to 108 Church street and get one bottle ($1 size for 50c).
