The Has Beens
AND
The Is Nows

Business men are of two classes, the "HAS BEEN'S" and the "IS NOW'S." The "HAS BEEN'S" are the Antiques; the fellow who looks through the business telescope from the wrong end, whose vision is so limited he can't keep out of the way of the street cars nor the automobiles. In plain vernacular, he is asleep at the switch.

The "IS NOW" is the real thing. He is the fellow that "plays ball," the fellow who is alive to the main chance, who knows a good thing when he sees it, who always grasps an opportunity the moment it knocks.

HE IS A LIVE WIRE.

It's the "IS NOW'S" that we are making our life's business to serve; the "LIVE WIRES" that are doing things. Get in the boat. Be an "IS NOW," be a "LIVE WIRE."

Bring us your account. We know your wants and want your business.

EXHIBIT PIANOS MUST BE SOLD

The Kimball Factory Exhibit is Over. All Samples Must be Left Here. Will be Sold at Factory Billing, Which is About Wholesale. Exhibit Would Not Be a Success Otherwise.

YOU CAN SAVE $150.00 TO $200.00
BY GETTING ONE OF THESE SAMPLES

It's Hurry Up to Get Choice. First Come First Served. We Must Get Away in a Few Days. So Time is Short and the Inducement is Offered. 228 West Main, Opposite Traction Office. Open Till 9:30 P. M. Daily.

The exhibit of Kimball Pianos is over and it was a grand success from an advertising point of view. Now they must be sold in a short time, and in order to do so we realize that the inducement must be offered.

These seventeen samples will be left here for future references in making subsequent sales, but in no case will the pianos be sold at these prices after we leave here. Also no duplicate orders will be taken at these factory prices and no pianos will be sold to agents or any one to resell. They must be placed in homes of the best people in the county.

The factory would not consider the exhibit a success unless we left them all here.

Tags Tell the Savings.
Every piano is marked in plain figures—a child can make as good selection as the hardest bargain driver in the land.

It is not an overdrawn statement when we say at this sale greater price inducements and easier terms of payment are offered than at any other time and place in the history of this country.

Remarkable Piano Bargains.
These are all new samples—pianos right from the factory as you know and have not been in anybody's house on trial as is the custom here. Fine hand some pianos, best grade, in fancy or colonial styles, elegant mahogany veneers, worth the world over $350, $375 and $400 to $600, can be bought at this sale while they last at $197, $249, $297, $325, on terms to suit you.

We do not deem it necessary to quote further prices and easy terms. You'll have to see these pianos to fully appreciate the great values that may be obtained, if you can buy now.

Every piano we sell is warranted to be as represented and to give full satisfaction or your money will be refunded.

Sidney Lanier, the sweet Southern poet, said: "Music is love in search of a word," and often told his heart's story upon a flute, which enchanted the soul.

He never knew the joy of sitting down in mystic twilight hour, softly running his delicate fingers over the ivory keys of a Kimball piano which contains beneath its modest exterior the whole gamut of tones and colors, which divinely combine to define music and love—love and music.

There is an opportunity for you, good friends, to learn the meaning. The "Kimball" is a revelation to the dreamers and a revelation to the artists.

Buy now while you can save money. Store open every evening this week to accommodate those who cannot come during the day—228 West Main, opposite Traction office.

DR. KILGO ELECTED BISHOP.

The General Conference Selects Trinity President on First Ballot.

Dispatches from Asheville Monday contained the good news to Durham people that Dr. John C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College has been elected Bishop.

Asheville, May 16.—At the close of the afternoon session of the first days balloting for the high officers of the episcopacy in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, three men have been chosen and as a matter of coincidence, the three are men who have labored for years in the institutions of learning of the church.

On the first ballot the vote showed the election of Dr. John C. Kilgo of the North Carolina Conference, for a number of years president of Trinity College, Durham, and Dr. Collins Denny of the Baltimore Conference, who for a number of years has been a member of the faculty of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.

John Carlisle Kilgo, the son of Rev. James T. Kilgo and Catherine Mason Kilgo, was born July 22, 1861, Fairfield county, South Carolina.

The place of his birth was the little brick parsonage occupied by his minister father, who has the unusual fortune of having seen his three oldest sons enter the Methodist ministry. Young J. C. Kilgo first felt a desire to preach but resisted in his biography writes, until May of 1882, less than 21 years of age when he yielded to his call. It was in December of that year that he married Miss Fannie N. Turner, the daughter of a prominent citizen of Gaffney.

Dr. Kilgo was educated at Wofford college, but owing to failure of his eyes was compelled to quit college before graduation. Notwithstanding this fact he holds various degrees which the colleges of the country have gladly conferred upon him.

Dr. Kilgo's ministerial life is a comprehended, before coming to Trinity college, in Bennettsville circuit 1882-84; Timmonsville circuit 1884-7; Rock Hill circuit 1886-87; and Little Rock circuit 1887-88. In that later year, he was made financial agent of Wofford college and the burden of raising an endowment of $50,000 fell upon him. In two years it had been done. A vacancy in the Wofford faculty, combining the chairs of philosophy and economics, formerly filled by Bishop A. Coke Smith, was filled by him and in 1892 he was made a master of arts by the Wofford faculty. While at Wofford, the death of a presiding elder made necessary the choice of another and he served at that time with great acceptability, giving nearly all of the salary to the widow of the dead.

From this time his life in Durham has been the common history of everybody. He was invited to this college in the year of 1894 and has served out his sixteenth year. It was an unpromising institution. It had fallen upon hard times and with a property valuation of less than $150,000, with nine members of a faculty and 153 students, he bravely set about building the lost fortunes of Braxton Craven of sainted memory. One of the best known southern colleges, the most richly endowed in the south, worth far above a million, is Trinity college of today, with such substantial growth as to make necessary a large addition to the college.

The county road force are at work on the short stretch of road between Durham and Wake counties that is necessary to complete the trip from Durham to Raleigh on good roads. The permanent work on this road will be made in the near future.

Every one who has tried Globe Tonic is well pleased and recommends it to his friends.

Local Tax Carried.

Tuesday was election day in Lowe's Grove district and the friends of special tax are jubilant over the fact that the local tax was carried by a good majority.

There are about 40 registered voters in the election and the workers for the local tax won easily.

The voting of this local tax means much to this school district. The board of education will at once begin the erection of one of the modern school houses that are to be found in many sections of the county. The local tax will enable the school to run nine months and the board of education furnishes the house to carry on school work in good shape.

The first game of base ball by the city league teams will take place at the new park next Saturday, when all of the teams will play their first game. The teams composing the league are East Durham, West Durham, Hosiery Mills and the Y. M. C. A. The promise is that some good games will be played, and they will be games in which Durham people will be interested because they know and come in daily contract with the players.

Mr. Borch, Well Known Grocer, Corner 15th St, and Avenue F, Made Happy.

"Paul, my son, aged 15 years, has suffered from stomach trouble for the past five years and I have been wasting my money trying to get him well, for nothing seemed to do any good, and my doctor bill has been very large, but thanks to the Globe Tonic Remedies, for I read an advertisement last week in the Birmingham News and saw where a child had expelled a tape-worm by this medicine and decided to try it on Paul, my son, and to my great surprise he expelled a tape-worm 37 feet long the same evening he took the medicine. I have always been skeptical about patent medicines. Doctors would laugh at me when I told them I was thinking of trying so and so, and I thought they were right, but now I know better and advise all who have stomach trouble to try the Globe Tonic Medicine, for I know they have saved my boy. If you doubt this phone Peoples 215 W."

Two Marriages.

Miss Lizzie Hall and Mr. E. H. Williams, both of Rougemont, were married Tuesday shortly after noon, Rev. E. R. Leyburn of the First Presbyterian church officiating.

The couple came over on the Norfolk & Western train at 11:15 and searched for a minister, finding Rev. G. T. Adams and Rev. Dr. Lynch away. Mr. Leyburn was secured and the work done well. They are stopping at the Corcoran.

Mr. Bruce Sanderford, of Creedmoor and Miss Mary Madison, of Charlottesville, Va., were married Tuesday night in the parlor of the Corcoran hotel, Rev. Sidney S. Bost officiating.

The couple came over and found the usual difficulty in locating a minister. They desired a ceremony with excess of simplicity. There were but a few witnesses.

The bride is an uncommonly pretty young woman who has been in the Granville town but two months and a tinge of very sweet romance goes into the junction of hearts. Her parents are not living and she became Mr. Sanderford's sweetheart while engaged in her profession as a milliner.

Mr. Sanderford is a young druggist of Creedmoor, being associated with his father. The couple took in the moving pictures last night as a climax to a very pretty wedding picture. They left Wednesday for Creedmoor.
