

THE DURHAM RECORDER.

VOLUME 91.

DURHAM, N. C., JUNE 16, 1910.

NUMBER 57.

DR. WILLIAM PRESTON FEW

charms of home will soon be broken. What is home without a mother? Would the beautiful blooming roses make our hearts happy if mother was gone? Oh how happy it is for the little ones to return home and lay their toys at mother's feet and think how sad it would be to return home and find mother's vacant chair. There is no one to fill mother's vacant chair. Three of the sweetest words in the English language are mother, home and heaven. M. K. C.

Morrah Mentionings.

(Left out last week by mistake.)

People are through planting tobacco and claim prospects for a good crop.

Wheat, which is soon to be garnered, is in promising condition.

Morrah determines not to trail in the dust but to reach up to higher things. It has a splendid school, conducted by the same teachers four years. It has two churches, a Primitive Baptist with no pastor, and a Missionary Baptist, Bethany, with Rev. Gudson as pastor. There is also a store, and another to open soon and a grist mill.

Miss Annie Rhew, of Rougemont, and our primary teacher, returned home Thursday from Elon College, where she had been attending school.

Misses Mary and Hallie, Claton were the guests of Misses Jennie and Hattie Gray, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Pattie Rhew and brother, Cornelius, have returned home from Raleigh where they were called on business.

Mrs. J. T. Newton continues to improve. There is little sickness in this section at present.

Miss Asa Rhew, of Rougemont, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Claton of Moriah.

Mr. Swanson, of Georgia, a representative of the Farmers' Union spoke at Moriah, Tuesday evening June 7. One farmer, Mr. Newton, joined the Union.

Rougemont News.

The farmers are very busy now and large crops of corn and tobacco are being planted. Wheat is getting ripe and several are cutting their crop this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blalock and niece last week visited Mr. Blalock's brother at Richmond farm, five miles west of Roxboro. While there Mr. Blalock attended the reunion of Person County Confederate Veterans.

At the reunion of the old soldiers last week, 126 men were present and were given a sumptuous dinner by the Person county women. The occasion was greatly enjoyed, and we hope that Durham will equal it in their county reunion. Let us hear from camp Webb, and come together and celebrate some of our officer's birthday, for instance, Col. R. F. Webb or Gen. M. W. Ransom. Let us hear from you through the Recorder if you are a subscriber, and if not, you had better get busy and subscribe.

The merchants here are doing a good business, the town is growing and everything indicates prosperity. Dr. Stroud is getting a good practice and is liked by all. The house and lot of Dr. Maynard is for sale. Will write again soon. W. M. B.

From Roxboro Route 5.

Two unknown negroes last week broke into George Johnson's house and stole three suits of clothes, a watch and chain, an album, pencil and paper. One was a low chunky yellow negro, and the other was tall and black. For almost two weeks it was very dry up to last Friday evening when the gentle and refreshing showers came, and now the corn and tobacco have a green and thriving appearance.

Mr. J. R. Nowell is now taking the tax list in Flat river township, and he is a man who knows his business.

Mr. E. R. Noell, of Timberlake, met his singing class at Antioch on last Sunday evening and made some very good music.

On last Sunday morning Mr. E. D. Cheek's horse passed this way, as it was going to convey the body of Mrs. Wilson to Little River church, where she was laid to rest in the church yard.

There are lots of people, lately, fishing on Barton's pond, and some are having good luck. It was reported that Roy Howard caught a fine lot of cat fish.

Messrs. J. W. Moore, G. W. Moore, and Barnet Moore have had them wells bored, and Mr. C. H. Tapp will soon have his well to the proper depth.

The farmers around Wilkerson's school house have recently organized into the Farmer Union, with fifteen members. They have also organized with six members at Oak Grove school house. Mr. W. T. Swanson, of Georgia, who is the organizer, seems to be busy and we believe that he is advertising a good cause. If the farmers ever escape from under the heels of trust and combine, they will have to unite as all other enterprises have united.

Wheat harvest is on now, and the farmers are sowing the golden grain which is as fine and matured as any we have seen in many years.

Miss Laura Tingen is spending some time with her brother, Mr. Obe Tingen, of Durham county.

I have been informed that Mr. A. R. Foushee, of Roxboro, is a candidate for the office of County Treasurer. I am confident that the citizens of Person county not entrust their finances in more honorable and worthy hands than Mr. Foushee. Ex-sheriff Nathaniel Thompson is a candidate for the office of sheriff. He is a man of the highest character, whose record is stainless and who will make us as good or better sheriff than he did before. Roper.

German Notes.

Farmers are getting very much behind with their work owing to so much rain. Wheat will soon be ready to harvest.

Fruit is more plentiful than we once thought, although the hail did much damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Umstead, of Durham, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Holloway.

Misses Becky Holloway is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Haskins, down near Apex. She will be away several days.

Our prosperous farmer, Mr. A. M. Carpenter, carried a load of chickens to town recently, and we are glad he had some money to bring home, as they were nice ones.

Misses Eva Hall and Bessie Warkham spent a few days in Durham last week and attended the Trinity commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway attended Trinity commencement and visited relatives in Durham for a few days.

Miss K. B. Markham and sister, Miss Belle, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson.

We are glad to learn Mr. W. W. Ferrell's condition is better. He has suffered very much with rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall, of High Point, and Mr. J. D. Hall of Greensboro, have been on a visit to their father and relatives near here. We are glad to see the boys come to their old home occasionally.

Elder T. Y. Monk and wife were the guests of Mr. Tom Hall, Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. T. J. Holloway, of Durham, was out at his old home last week. He stopped with Mr. W. W. Ferrell.

Miss Thelma Holloway has returned from a visit to the Misses Hicks of Durham.

Miss Myrtle Gooch and Mike Roberson left Monday afternoon for Durham to go on the excursion to Wilmington.

There will be services at Sandy Level next Saturday at 11 o'clock and Sunday at 2 o'clock. The regular pastor, Mr. Lanier, will preach, and all are invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Suitt's new residence is almost completed. It is indeed a nice home. G. C.

About 500 people went on the Wilmington excursion and report that in spite of the bad weather, the trip was very enjoyable.

From Buffalo.

We have had a quantity of rain. Everything looks beautiful and is growing fast. Hope no one will grumble and say we have had too much rain. Thank God for the refreshing showers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tilley spent an afternoon with Mrs. Lon Clark and family. They are jolly old people and very interesting.

Little Myra Parrish, of Durham, is going to spend the summer with the writer her aunt.

One of my lady friends wrote me a few days ago she was going to wed soon to one of the most stylish and handsome young men of her city, but said he was one of the wildest in the city. She said she admired him because he was so stylish. My! my! What a sad mistake, never judge by appearances. A ragged vest may cover a bosom in which there is a heart of noblest impulses and attained to sweetest strains of goodness.

The girls are trying to learn Jim to string sacks. He doesn't like the job, but prefers courting. But oh; my that little word "no" makes him feel like he is in a wasps nest. He keeps cheerful and says "disappointment sinks the heart of man but the renewal of hope gives consolation."

Ros Clark has a beautiful crop of corn and has layed by same. But I must say it doesn't beat my mellow patch. If they continue to grow and do well guess I will have to have a mellow slicing.

My little niece and I have just returned from a pleasant stroll through the green forest. We gathered a quantity of brooms and some beautiful flowers. Dear mother met us with a pleasant smile and was delighted to get the beautiful flowers.

I have so often thought what would be home without a mother, and with this thought I went to my room and retired for a short evening nap. I lay asleep in my lonely chamber and was awakened by a heavy clash of thunder. Going to my window I discovered that a shower had passed. I gazed on my yard robed in its mantle of green. Oh, how grand.

How magnificent the little flowers looked peeping from their hiding places. Where is mother? In her rocking-chair, rocking to and fro, ready to share our little joys and sorrows. It saddens our hearts as we gaze at mother in the shades of life, and think the
